The National Football League and the American sports community lost a true treasure on December 13, 2006 when Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt passed away in Dallas, Texas at the age of 74.

Hunt was originally diagnosed with prostate cancer in 1998 and quietly underwent many treatments and surgeries over the next eight years. He maintained his active schedule until entering the hospital for the final time on Nov. 22, 2006. He is survived by his wife, Norma, and their four children; Lamar Jr., Sharron Munson, Clark and Daniel. He was also the proud grandfather of 14 grandchildren.

Hunt is universally recognized as one of the greatest sportsmen in American history. No one would have savored the 50th anniversary celebrations for the American Football League and the Chiefs franchise in 2009 more than Hunt, the individual who served as the guiding force behind the formation of both football entities.

Hunt served as a positive influence on the game for 47 years dating back to his inception of the American Football League in 1959. He was the first AFL figure to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1972, a remarkable feat considering he became involved in the game just 13 years earlier.

As the catalyst who brought together the whimsically-named "Foolish Club" comprised of the eight original AFL owners, Hunt's "impossible dream" became a reality when his fledgling league took the field for the 1960 season. On June 8, 1966, the AFL-NFL merger was announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, and on Jan. 15, 1967, Hunt's Kansas City Chiefs were participating in the inaugural Super Bowl.

"Before there was a player, coach or a general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," late Patriots owner William Sullivan remarked at Hunt's Hall of Fame induction ceremony. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL."

Despite his many accomplishments, Hunt's humility was one of his most unwavering and endearing traits. While he modestly declined to take credit for his efforts, he truly played an important role in the design, ongoing development and direction of the modern-day National Football League.

Whether it was serving as the central figure behind the formation of the AFL, playing a key role in the AFL-NFL merger talks in the 1960s, or overseeing many crucial issues concerning pro football and the Chiefs franchise over five decades, few individuals helped change the face of America's favorite game for the better as much as this quiet Texan.

In addition to being a principal negotiator in the merger of the AFL and NFL in the late 1960s, he was a contributor to the design of the NFL playoff format. He is also credited with accidentally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game — the name coming from his children's toy "Super Ball." It was Hunt who not only recommended enumerating each Super Bowl with Roman numerals, but also suggested that the league's iconic championship trophy bear the name of Vince Lombardi.

For years, he was an advocate of the two-point conversion — a college and AFL rule that was finally adopted by the NFL in 1994. Hunt had also lobbied for many years that an additional Thanksgiving game be added to the NFL schedule, efforts that were rewarded when the Chiefs hosted the first-ever Thanksgiving contest at Arrowhead in 2006.

Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt holds for his son, future Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt.

When Arrowhead Stadium re-opened in 2010, Hunt's legacy was honored in Founder's Plaza, an expansive outdoor area that forms a dramatic entrance to the north side of the facility. A nine-foot heroic statue of Hunt stands as a tribute to the Chiefs late founder. In addition, eight fountains for the original eight AFL franchises symbolize Lamar's innovation and dedication to growing the game of football.

Perhaps Hunt's biggest influence on the league was his quiet, yet persuasive voice of reason. Hunt's name is rightfully mentioned alongside other legendary family surnames in pro football history such as Halas, Mara and Rooney for his commitment to putting the betterment of the league ahead of any potential individual gain. His AFL model for the equal sharing of television revenue has helped maintain competitive balance in the NFL for many years.

As the founder of the AFL, he helped pave the way for much of the modern growth of pro football. Possibly the greatest tribute to his contributions to the sport was the naming of the Lamar Hunt Trophy, which is presented annually to the champion of the American Football Conference.

The early days of the AFL were problem-filled and often tenuous, but Hunt saw his Dallas Texans achieve on-field success. In 1962, the Texans won the AFL Championship with a double-OT victory over the Houston Oilers, the first of three titles won by his franchise during the league's 10-year existence.

Hunt moved his team to Kansas City in 1963, where the organization was renamed the Chiefs. His team truly put Kansas City on the "big-league" map, thanks to a star-studded squad that was the winningest in the 10-year history of the AFL. The Chiefs were among the first teams to scout and sign players from historically black colleges and universities, a progressive approach that yielded key performers such as DT Buck Buchanan, LB Willie Lanier, WR Otis Taylor and CB Emmitt Thomas.

Hunt's team repeated as league champions in both 1966 and 1969. The Chiefs claimed Kansas City's first major sports championship by defeating Minnesota in Super Bowl IV. In the late 1960s, Hunt was closely involved in the original plans for Arrowhead. While other venues of a similar vintage have long since been demolished, Arrowhead serves as a point of pride for Kansas City.

Thanks in large part to the vision and lobbying efforts of Hunt, Jackson County (Missouri) voters approved a 3/8 cent sales tax in April of 2006. That measure raised $250 million for renovation efforts at Arrowhead. Hunt's longtime dream of hosting a Super Bowl in Kansas City appeared to become a reality when NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue announced on November 16, 2005 that NFL owners had passed a proposal to bring the NFL's championship game to Kansas City in February of 2015.

Unfortunately, a provision in the April 2006 election that would have resurrected the "rolling roof" concept for Arrowhead Stadium did not pass. The "rolling roof" was part of Hunt's initial vision for Arrowhead in the 1960s. In its 21st century incarnation, the "rolling roof" would have provided a climate-controlled facility suitable for hosting the Super Bowl, the Final Four and other major events.

Hunt also worked diligently to bring college football to Kansas City. Arrowhead hosted the Dr Pepper Big 12 Conference Championship Game for the fifth time in 2008. In addition to numerous other college football games, Arrowhead also served as a venue for international soccer matches thanks to Hunt.

During the 1990s, Hunt took great pride in his franchise's on-field resurgence as Kansas City compiled a 102-58 (.638) regular season record. Under Hunt's stewardship, the Chiefs developed an intensely-loyal fan following, not just in mid-America, but across the country and around the globe. Kansas City represented the NFL in four American Bowl contests — Berlin, Germany (1990), Tokyo, Japan (1994, 1998) and Monterrey, Mexico (1996).

Nicknamed "Games" during his childhood, Hunt's love of sports was his true lifeblood, an enthusiasm which led to his involvement in six different professional sports leagues and seven sports franchises. Hunt was involved in the development of both NASL and World Championship Tennis.

Hunt was inducted into the respective Halls of Fame of both United States Soccer (1982) and International Tennis (1993). He was also honored by the state Sports Halls of Fame of both Texas (1984) and Missouri (1995). In total, Hunt has been selected to 11 "Halls of Fame." In 2008, Hunt's bust was added to the "Hall of Famous Missourians" at the state capitol in Jefferson City, Mo.

In 1981, Hunt was inducted into the NFL Alumni Association's prestigious Order of the Leather Helmet. He also received the Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award from the Maxwell Club in 1993.

In August of 2009, the Lamar Hunt Super Bowl Gallery officially opened at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. This 4,000-square foot exhibit showcases the greatest moments in Super Bowl history, and is appropriately named after the individual who gave the world's biggest single-game sporting spectacle its current moniker.

In October of 2009, the Missouri DOT officially designated a stretch of I-435 near the Truman Sports Complex as the "Lamar Hunt Memorial Highway."

Truly a sportsman for all seasons, Soccer America Magazine named Hunt one of its "25 Most Influential People" in 1999 after the 95-year-old U.S. Open Cup was renamed the "Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup." That same year he also received the U.S. Soccer Federation Hall of Fame Medal of Honor, joining former U.S. Soccer President Alan Rothenberg as the only other individual to earn that prestigious distinction. In 2005, the U.S. Soccer Foundation honored Hunt with its Lifetime Achievement Award.

The Hunt family served as the Investor/Operators of the Kansas City Wizards (Sporting KC) franchise of Major League Soccer from 1995-06 and claimed the 2000 MLS Cup. The Hunt family still oversees the operations of two MLS franchises, F.C. Dallas and the Columbus Crew.

Hunt was also one of the founding investors in the six-time World Champion Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association. In total, the Hunt family owns 15 championship rings from five different professional sports associations (AFL/NFL, MLS, NBA, NASL and the U.S. Soccer "Open Cup").

A highly-successful businessman outside of sports, one of Hunt's most notable innovations was SubTropolis, the world's largest underground business complex, located just north of Arrowhead. Hunt also envisioned and developed Worlds of Fun, a 165-acre family entertainment complex which opened in 1973, as well as the 60-acre family water recreation park, Oceans of Fun, which was completed in 1982. While both of those entities were sold in 1995, Hunt Midwest Enterprises continues to oversee a diverse range of business interests.

Hunt was born on Aug. 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Ark. and graduated from SMU with a B.S. in Geology in 1956. While at SMU, he was a three-year reserve end on the varsity football team. Hunt was an avid supporter of his alma mater and was an annual fixture at the Cotton Bowl. In May of 2008, he was posthumously inducted as one of four inaugural members of the SMU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Hunt's wife, Norma, continues to be involved in numerous philanthropic and civic efforts in Texas and in Kansas City. She owns the distinction of being the only woman known to have attended all 46 Super Bowls, and was selected to preside over the coin toss at Super Bowl XLI along with Hall of Fame QB Dan Marino.

Clark Hunt has been involved in the leadership of the Kansas City Chiefs for more than a decade and currently serves as the club's chairman and CEO.

Earlier this year, Hunt announced his family's plans to celebrate the Chiefs 50 years in Kansas City and pay tribute to Chiefs fans in the Kansas City community and throughout the Chiefs Kingdom.

"Over the last five decades, we have been honored to call Kansas City the home of the Chiefs, and in celebration of our 50th year in Kansas City, we want to say 'thank you' to the best fans in the NFL," Hunt said in May 2012. "Throughout the 2012 season, the Chiefs will host fan events, recognize special Kansas Citians, and thank Season Ticket Holders to show our deep gratitude for this community and how proud we are to be Kansas City's Chiefs."

Hunt's proven business acumen, coupled with two decades of experience working side-by-side with one of America's sports pioneers, his father and Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, helped shape his vision for the storied franchise.

"Our fans are the foundation of the Chiefs, and our goal is to provide them with a team that can consistently compete for championships and the best game-day experience in the National Football League," Hunt said.

To meet that goal, Hunt and his family committed $125 million to the creation of the New Arrowhead Stadium – an extensive modernization project that will keep Kansas City "The Home of the Chiefs" for decades to come. The $375-million renovation provides Chiefs fans with the first-class amenities of the finest sports venues in the world while maintaining the distinct soul and mystique that makes Arrowhead one of the most iconic stadiums in the NFL.

Over the last several years, Hunt has emerged as a leading voice among NFL owners. Hunt was one of 10 NFL owners charged by Commissioner Roger Goodell with negotiating the NFL's new Collective Bargaining Agreement which was completed in 2011. Commissioner Goodell praised Hunt's ability to find "creative compromises" throughout the process and for his leadership in the negotiations.

"[Clark] had a critical role in getting [the] agreement completed and getting us back to football," Commissioner Goodell said in August 2011. "He is very credible, very smart, and has a very strong ability to listen and find solutions. He was very effective with both sides. The players clearly expressed that to me and the owners have expressed that to me. He has obviously not only my respect, but obviously the respect of everyone involved in the negotiations."

In 2006, Hunt was asked to serve on the eight-member Commissioner Search Committee which recommended a successor to Paul Tagliabue. In 2007, Commissioner Goodell appointed Hunt to the NFL's Digital Media and International Committees, as well as the Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council. In 2011, Hunt was named chairman of the Internal Committee and joined the league's Finance Committee.

The Dallas, Texas, native is also a founding investor-operator in Major League Soccer. Hunt serves as Chairman of Hunt Sports Group, the parent company that oversees the operations of both the F.C. Dallas and Columbus Crew franchises. Hunt is actively involved in the continued growth of MLS and serves as a member of the MLS Board of Governors appointed to Commissioner's Executive Committee.

Since 2000, Hunt Sports Group has celebrated eight championships with three different MLS clubs, including the 2000 (Kansas City) and 2008 (Columbus) MLS Cup championships. Hunt Sports

OWNERSHIP OF 50 OR MORE YEARS

The Chiefs are one of only six current NFL franchises that have been owned by the same individual family for over 50 years.

Ownership	Franchise	Years
The Halas Family	Chicago Bears	91
William V. Bidwill	Arizona Cardinals	79
The Rooney Family	Pittsburgh Steelers	79
The Hunt Family	Kansas City Chiefs	53

Group clubs also claimed the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup in 2002 (Columbus) and 2004 (Kansas City), and earned the MLS Supporters' Shield – awarded to the MLS club with the best regular-season record – four times.

In addition to the success on the pitch, Hunt Sports Group has also been at the forefront of stadium development in the United States. In 1999, the Hunt family constructed Crew Stadium in Columbus, Ohio – the first soccer-specific stadium in the United States. In 2005, Hunt Sports Group opened Pizza Hut Park in Frisco, Texas, which is widely regarded as one of the world's most unique soccer facilities. The stadium has served as a model for soccer-specific stadiums in North America.

Hunt graduated first in his class at Southern Methodist University in '87, earning a degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance. He was a two-time recipient of the university's highest academic honor, the Provost Award for Outstanding Scholar. During his career he was a four-year letterman on the Mustangs nationally-ranked soccer team, earning first-team Academic All-America honors as a junior and senior and serving as a tri-captain his final season. He was named one of the SMU Cox School of Business Outstanding Young Alumni in 2004 and in 2005 he was appointed to the Cox School Executive Board of Trustees. Hunt currently serves on the SMU Board of Trustees.

Clark Knobel Hunt was born on Feb. 19, 1965 and graduated from the St. Mark's School of Texas in '83. He is married to the former Tavia Shackles of Kansas City. The Hunts are actively involved in numerous philanthropic initiatives in both Kansas City and Dallas including Harvester's and Lift Up America as well as the annual Chiefs Charity Game. In its 26th year, the Chiefs Charity Game is the largest fundraiser of its kind in the NFL providing a local charity with the unique opportunity to expand its capacity to help those in need through the proceeds of the game. In September 2012, the Hunts will serve as honorary chairs for the 2012 "Treads & Threads" charity event benefiting the University of Kansas Hospital.

The Hunts have three children – Gracelyn, Knobel and Ava.

THE LAMAR HUNT SUPER BOWL GALLERY

An official ribbon-cutting ceremony took place for the Lamar Hunt Super Bowl Gallery at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio on Aug. 8, 2009. NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, Chiefs Chairman & CEO Clark Hunt, and members of the Hunt family, as well officials from the Hall of Fame presided over the ceremonies.

Other dignitaries in attendance for the ribbon-cutting ceremony included Super Bowl MVP QBs Len Dawson, Bart Starr and Troy Aikman, as well as Tennessee Titans Owner Bud Adams, one of the original eight AFL owners who comprised the famed "Foolish Club."

The $2.4 million renovation and modernization project is named in honor of Hunt, whose vision and love of sports not only gave birth to a new league, but an international sports phenomenon.

Within the Lamar Hunt Super Bowl Gallery dynamic displays and exciting interactive video kiosks highlighting every Super Bowl, the great plays and the game's stars, complements the one-of-a-kind game artifacts that permeates throughout the 4,000-square-foot space. Hunt was the inaugural American Football League figure enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1972.

SCOTT PIOLI

GENERAL MANAGER

- 21st NFL Season
- 4th with Chiefs

Scott Pioli was named the fifth General Manager in Kansas City Chiefs history by Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt on January 13, 2009. Entering his fourth season, Pioli is regarded as one of the league's top executives with a proven history in player personnel evaluation. Following the 2011 campaign, he was tasked with finding the team's next head coach. The search culminated in the hiring of Romeo Crennel, who holds 30 years of NFL coaching experience and served as the Chiefs defensive coordinator over the past two seasons.

Pioli joined the Chiefs after serving as the Vice President of Player Personnel with the New England Patriots. During his nine-year tenure in New England (2000-08), the Patriots compiled an NFL-best 102-42 (.708) regular season record, won Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX, claimed the Lamar Hunt Trophy four times as the AFC champion and won six AFC East titles.

A five-time winner of NFL Executive of the Year honors from national media outlets, Pioli oversees all football operations in Kansas City and reports directly to Hunt.

In only his second season with the Chiefs, the club orchestrated the franchise's greatest single-season turnaround and won the AFC West with a 10-6 record. It was Kansas City's first division title and home playoff appearance since 2003.

With New England, the Patriots became widely recognized as one of the NFL's model franchises. Working in close concert with Head Coach Bill Belichick, the duo rapidly developed the Patriots into a consistent championship contender. Pioli has embraced the challenge of developing and implementing a comprehensive plan to return the Chiefs to national prominence.

2009-12	Kansas City Chiefs	General Manager

"My job is not to collect talent, it's to build a team," Pioli said upon his arrival in Kansas City. "Individuals make Pro Bowls, teams win championships. That's our goal here. Win championships, win football games - to build this team with the right kind of people, with the right kind of players and to consistently compete for championships."

Pioli and Belichick's collaborative efforts over nine seasons in New England resulted in 14 playoff victories, tying the Pittsburgh and Dallas squads of the 1970s for the most playoff wins by a franchise in a single decade. New England accumulated 11 playoff victories from 2003-07, the highest total by any team over a five-year span in NFL history.

Pioli was named the George Young NFL Executive of the Year by The Sporting News following the 2003 and 2004 seasons, an award voted on by other NFL executives. The youngest individual ever to win that accolade, Pioli joined Bobby Beathard (Washington '82-83) and Bill Polian (Carolina '95-96) as just the third person to ever win that honor in consecutive seasons.

Pioli and Belichick became the first personnel director/head coach tandem in league annals to win three Super Bowls during a four-year span (2001-04). They also helped the Patriots register nine or more victories in eight consecutive seasons, including the NFL's first 16-0 regular season in 2007.

The depth and versatility of New England's roster compiled by Pioli were key components to the Patriots' success in recent seasons. In 2003, the Patriots won Super Bowl XXXVIII despite using 42 different starters, a league record for a Super Bowl champion. In 2004, New England employed 40 different starters as they won their second Super Bowl. In 2005, the Patriots set a post-merger league record for a division champion by utilizing 45 different starters. In 2006, New England won its fourth-straight AFC East title while using 39 different starters.

Under Pioli's direction, the Patriots used an effective combination of draft picks, free agent signings, trades and waiver claims to continually upgrade their roster. He has utilized a similar methodology to improve the Chiefs talent since his arrival in Kansas City.

Pioli enters his 21st NFL campaign in 2012. Prior to his seven-year stint as New England's V.P. of Player Personnel (2002-08), he held the titles of Director of Player Personnel (2001) and Assistant Director of Player Personnel (2000) for the Patriots. While in New England, Pioli was reunited with current Chiefs Head Coach Romeo Crennel, who served as the Patriots' defensive coordinator from 2001-04. They had previously worked together with the New York Jets from 1997-99.

Pioli began his NFL career when Belichick hired him as a Scouting Assistant for the Cleveland Browns in 1992. He then served as Pro Personnel Assistant in Cleveland from 1993-95, where he was responsible for the evaluation of both college prospects and veteran free agents, as well as negotiating various player contracts. He was promoted to Pro Personnel Coordinator after the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1996.

In 1997, Pioli was hired by the New York Jets as Director of Pro Personnel. It was there that he began his relationship with Crennel, who coached the Jets defensive line from 1997-99. In just two seasons working with Head Coach Bill Parcells, the Jets completed a worst-to-first turnaround, rebounding from a 1-15 campaign in 1996 to a 12-4 record in 1998. Those 12 wins in 1998 were the most in franchise history and gave the Jets their first division title since 1968.

Pioli played defensive tackle at Central Connecticut State (1983-87), where he was a three-time Division II All-New England selection and graduated with a degree in Communications. From 1988-89, he served as a Graduate Assistant at Syracuse University, where he also earned a master's degree from the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications. Pioli then took a full-time coaching opportunity at Murray State, where he spent one season as the offensive line coach (1990) and one season as the defensive line coach (1991). He left the coaching ranks to join the Browns personnel department in 1992.

Pioli currently serves on the NFL's General Managers Advisory Committee that provides advice and counsel to the NFL Football Operations department on the integrity of the game and possible areas for improvement. He is also a member of the NFL's CEC Executive Working Group, a subcommittee of the Management Council Executive Committee, and is an Advisory Council Member of the Bill Walsh Minority Fellowship program, helping to make the NFL a more diverse and inclusive league.

Pioli sits on the board of directors for the College For Every Student Foundation (CFES), a national non-profit organization that partners with public schools in high-need communities to raise student aspirations and performance, an initiative he has brought to Kansas City Public Schools. He also created a scholarship for CFES scholars that attend

Central Connecticut State University. He remains involved in fundraising for several organizations in his hometown of Washingtonville, N.Y., and at his alma mater of Central Connecticut State, where he was enshrined in the school's Hall of Fame in 2005. Pioli has established two annual scholarships, one for the children of Chiefs employees and another at WIN for KC (Women's Intersport Network), a program designed to develop the physical and emotional well being of girls and women through involvement in sports and fitness, while providing opportunities for participation and leadership development. In 2011, Pioli was named to the board of directors for the Kansas City Repertory Theatre and also is a board member for the Kansas City Metropolitan Crime Commission.

Pioli was born on March 31, 1965. He and his wife, Dallas, have a daughter, Mia Costa Pioli. Along with other members of the Chiefs, the Pioli family participates annually in Operation Blessing, an effort that provides food to over 3,000 local families. The Piolis have also assisted Harvesters in their mission to alleviate hunger in Kansas City as well as Operation Breakthrough and The Children's Place.

The Piolis have embraced the thriving local arts scene and are enthusiastic supporters of the Kansas City Symphony, Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art and the Kansas City Repertory Theatre. They are also benefactors of the Charlotte Street Foundation, an organization that supports and recognizes outstanding local artists and their contributions to Greater Kansas City.

Education: Syracuse (M.A. 2005), Central Connecticut State (B.A. 1988). Born: Washingtonville, N.Y. Family: Wife - Dallas; Child - Mia.

MARK DONOVAN

PRESIDENT

- 14th NFL Season
- 4th with Chiefs

Entering his 14th season in the National Football League and his fourth season in Kansas City, Mark Donovan was named the fifth president in Chiefs history in January 2011 after serving two years as the club's Chief Operating Officer. As president, Donovan is responsible for all aspects of the club's business operations and reports directly to Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt.

"I want to thank Clark and the entire Hunt family for their support, confidence and trust," Donovan said when he was named president. "It is a real privilege to be part of such a storied franchise, and it's especially exciting to have the opportunity to play an active role in shaping the next chapter in Chiefs history."

Recognized as one of the league's most innovative executives, Donovan brings unique experience and perspective to the team. He is one of only a few executives league-wide who has worked both at the NFL league office and for a club, with valuable perspective and strong relationships both in the Kansas City area and on the national level.

Donovan has led a renewed focus on the Chiefs Fan Experience, building on the direction of the Hunt family and Founder Lamar Hunt's sentiment that "our fans are our lifeblood." Under Donovan's direction, the team has emerged as a league leader in fan engagement – from the electric atmosphere at Arrowhead Stadium on game day to the rapid rise of kccchiefs.com as the premiere online destination for Chiefs fans.

In 2011, the Chiefs continued to be recognized for creative efforts, garnering seven Emmy Awards. The Club was also recognized in 2011 with a Bronze World Medal in the writing category of the New York Festival of International Television and Films Awards, becoming the first NFL team to ever win a New York Festival Award.

In addition to connecting Chiefs fans to the team they love, Donovan has overseen a period of tremendous business growth, re-establishing Arrowhead Stadium as a best-in-class venue for sports and entertainment. In Donovan's first year as president, Arrowhead was one of only six stadiums around the country to host both Kenny Chesney and Taylor Swift for concert stops.

Donovan has also created a new approach to sponsorships, setting a strategy to partner with companies which share the vision, qualities and values of the Kansas City Chiefs. This strategy has resulted in partnerships that are not only mutually-beneficial to the Chiefs and the corporations, but to Chiefs fans and the Kansas City community. Nowhere is this more evident than in the Chiefs Hall of Honor presented by Time Warner Cable, the Chiefs Sports Lab powered by Blue KC or the partnership with Truman Medical Centers focused on healthy living in the urban core.

His leadership extends to the community, where he has initiated a more strategic approach to the Chiefs charitable giving and community involvement, allowing the team to focus resources for greater impact to the community. With this new approach, the club has taken leadership roles in serving the hungry in the region, supporting children's health and wellness initiatives and providing opportunities for families and children in crisis. The Chiefs Charity Game is the longest-running and most successful charity game in the National Football League and this year will benefit Big Brothers Big Sisters of Kansas City.

In 2011, an EF5 tornado ripped through Joplin, Mo., killing more than 150 people, injuring many more and destroying thousands of homes and businesses. Under the direction of Hunt, Donovan quickly mobilized the resources of the Kansas City Chiefs to provide unprecedented support and visibility for the people of Joplin. In addition to bottled water, supplies and thousands of dollars, the team sent more than 130 staff members, players and coaches to assist in the recovery efforts. The club also dedicated its Red Friday fundraising to the people of Joplin and hosted more than 500 residents and volunteers at a Chiefs game at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs support of Joplin continued in October when Arrowhead hosted the Joplin High School Eagles in a benefit game vs. Raymore-Peculiar High School. In December 2011, the team returned to Joplin to provide Christmas gifts to more than 1,200 children at area elementary schools. The club continued its commitment to the people of Joplin in 2012 with participation in the Governor's Joplin-Habitat for Humanity Challenge, sponsoring seven homes in a Joplin neighborhood.

Donovan is also personally committed to the community, serving in numerous civic and charitable leadership roles including the Board of Directors for the Greater Kansas City Chamber of Commerce, Truman Medical Centers and the Kansas City Convention and Visitors Association. He and his wife, Kathy, were pleased to chair this year's Ronald McDonald House Red Shoe Shindig, co-chair Cristo Rey's Dancing with the Stars and serve on the committee for Treads and Threads, benefitting the University of Kansas Hospital. Additionally, Donovan serves on the National Board of Directors of Pop Warner Football. At the league level, he has served on the Working Club Executive Committee.

Donovan came to Kansas City after six years with the Philadelphia Eagles as Senior Vice President of Business Operations (2003-08). During his tenure in Philadelphia, Lincoln Financial Field hosted major concerts, international soccer contests, as well as college football and NCAA Championship events. He led the Eagles' efforts in sponsorship sales and service, television and radio production, retail operations, event acquisition, ticket sales, new media strategy and premium sales and customer service.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Donovan held leadership roles as the NFL's Senior Director of Sales and Marketing (1999-03) and the Director of Sales and Marketing for the National Hockey League (1997-99). He also brings seven years of experience in the private business sector.

The Pittsburgh, Pa. native was born on Feb. 15, 1966 and graduated from Brown University with a double major in Political Science and Organizational Behavior/Management. He captained the Brown football squad as the team's quarterback and signed with the New York Giants as a free agent upon graduation.

He and his wife, Kathy, have two children.

ROMEO CRENNEL

HEAD COACH

- 31st NFL Season
- 3rd with Chiefs
- 31st Year NFL Coach
- 3rd with Chiefs

Romeo Crennel enters his third season with Kansas City in 2012 and embarks on his first full season as head coach of the Chiefs after serving two seasons as the club's defensive coordinator (2010-11). Crennel was named head coach of the Chiefs after the first 13 games of the 2011 season and was officially introduced as the club's 12th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 9, 2012 by Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt and General Manager Scott Pioli. Crennel will retain his duties calling the defensive plays as well.

While serving as head coach for the final three games of 2011, Crennel led the Chiefs to a 2-1 record, including a win over the previously-undefeated Green Bay Packers at Arrowhead Stadium. During that stretch, with Crennel serving as both head coach and defensive coordinator, the Chiefs ranked third in the league in total defense, yielding just 296.3 total yards per game.

He begins his 31st year in the NFL ranks and his 42nd season in the coaching profession. He came to Kansas City after a four-year stint as the head coach of the Cleveland Browns (2005-08).

During Crennel's first two seasons in Kansas City, the Chiefs defense has allowed only 345.6 yards per game to rank ninth in the NFL. Kansas City's defense has allowed opposing quarterbacks to complete just 55.7 percent of their passes to rank third in the NFL. The Chiefs ranked sixth in the NFL, allowing 7,184 gross passing yards during the past two campaigns and tied for 10th, registering 34 interceptions over the same span. Under Crennel's guidance, Kansas City has allowed 20.8 points per game to rank 12th in the NFL and has only allowed 584 opponent first downs to tie for 10th.

Under Crennel's tutelage, LBs Tamba Hali and Derrick Johnson have compiled impressive back-to-back seasons. Hali has accumulated 26.5 sacks to rank fourth in the NFL during that span. Johnson set a Chiefs record for most tackles in consecutive seasons with 326 after pacing the club in tackles each of the past two seasons (147, 179). Both LBs were voted to the 2012 Pro Bowl, becoming the first pair of linebackers in team history selected to the Pro Bowl in the same season since Bobby Bell and Willie Lanier following the 1972 season.

In 2007, Crennel led Cleveland to a 10-6 record, the club's best mark since finishing 11-5 in 1994. The Browns won a franchise-record seven consecutive home games in 2007 as six players were selected to the Pro Bowl.

Prior to joining the Browns, Crennel served four seasons as defensive coordinator with New England (2001-04), where he helped the Patriots win three Super Bowl titles. In total, Crennel owns five Super Bowl rings, has made six Super Bowl appearances and has been a member of teams that have reached the conference championship game on seven occasions.

During his four seasons in New England, the Patriots registered a 48-16 (.750) regular season record and a 9-0 postseason mark. The Patriots registered 89 INTs during his tenure, the second-highest total over that span behind only Tampa Bay (95). Crennel's defensive unit also returned an NFL-high 14 INTs for TDs from 2001-04.

In 2004, the Patriots defense tied for second in the NFL, allowing only 16.3 ppg. Crennel's unit ranked third with 45.0 sacks, sixth against the run (98.3 ypg) and ninth in total defense (310.8). The Patriots allowed a mere 45 rushing yards in their Super Bowl XXXIX victory vs. Philadelphia.

Crennel was named the NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America following the 2003 season. He led a defensive unit that allowed a league-low 14.9 ppg, the best single-season mark in team history. Remarkably, the Patriots defense did not allow an opponent to score a TD on 62 consecutive possessions over a five-game home span. New England led the league with 29 interceptions and six defensive TDs in the regular season, as the Patriots marched to an eventual win vs. Carolina in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

The Patriots ranked sixth in the NFL in 2001, surrendering just 17.0 points per game. During a five-game winning streak to conclude the regular season, New England allowed only one TD and seven field goals. St. Louis averaged an NFL-high 31.4 points per game in 2001, but Crennel's unit limited the Rams to just 17 points in New England's Super Bowl XXXVI victory.

Prior to a one-year stint as Cleveland's defensive coordinator/defensive line coach in 2000, Crennel spent three seasons as the defensive line coach with the New York Jets (1997-99). It was there that Crennel began his association with Chiefs General Manager Scott Pioli. His defense never allowed more than 20.0 ppg in any of his three seasons with that squad. The Jets ranked second in the NFL by permitting 16.6 ppg in 1998 as New York advanced to the AFC Championship Game for the first time since 1982.

Prior to joining the Jets, the Lynchburg, Va., native served as the defensive line coach for four campaigns in New England (1993-96). The Patriots defense allowed 12.8 ppg during the final five contests of the 1996 season, helping to propel the club to a berth in Super Bowl XXXI.

Crennel began his NFL coaching career with a 12-year stint with the New York Giants (1981-92), serving as the defensive line coach (1990-92), special teams coach (1983-89) and special teams/defensive assistant coach (1981-82). During his tenure with the Giants, the club qualified for the playoffs six times, claiming wins in Super Bowls XXI and XXV. While with the Giants, Crennel worked with Bill Parcells, Bill Belichick and Tom Coughlin, as well as current Chiefs assistant head coach Maurice Carthon.

Crennel began his longtime association with Parcells at Texas Tech (1975-77) where Parcells served as defensive coordinator. Crennel concluded his collegiate coaching career with a one-year stop at Georgia Tech (1980). He also spent two years at Mississippi (1978-79) coaching the defensive ends.

Crennel began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1970 at his alma mater, Western Kentucky, before enjoying a four-season stint as the school's defensive line coach. A four-year starter on the defensive line for the Hilltoppers, Crennel was elected captain as a senior. A rash of injuries during his senior season forced him to switch to offensive tackle where he earned team MVP honors.

Crennel was a prep star at Fort Knox High School in Fort Knox, Ky., and Central High School in Amherst, Va. His brother, Carl, entered the NFL as a ninth-round draft choice (209th overall) of Pittsburgh in 1970, playing one season with the Steelers before enjoying an 11-year career in the Canadian Football League.

Education: Western Kentucky (B.A. 1970, M.E. 1971). Born: Lynchburg, Va. Family: Wife - Rosemary; Children - Lisa Tulley, Tiffany Stokes and Kristin Cullinane. The Crennels have eight grandchildren.

MAURICE CARTHON

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH

- 27th NFL Season
- 4th with Chiefs
- 19th Year NFL Coach
- 4th with Chiefs

Maurice Carthon enters his 19th season as an NFL assistant coach and his fourth year as Kansas City's assistant head coach. Owning a longstanding relationship with Head Coach Romeo Crennel, Carthon and Crennel have coached together with five different NFL clubs. In addition to his duties assisting Crennel, Carthon works closely with the club's running backs.

Possessing five seasons of experience as an NFL offensive coordinator, Carthon also owns 11 years of pro experience as a running back. Carthon was part of an Arizona staff that helped guide the Cardinals to a berth in Super Bowl XLIII.

Carthon has been a member of four Super Bowl squads as either a player or a coach, including wins in Super Bowls XXI and XXV as a member of the New York Giants. As a running back for the Giants, Carthon began his relationship with Crennel, who served as New York's special teams coach and later as the club's defensive line coach.

In his 28 previous seasons in pro football, Carthon has either blocked for or coached running backs who enjoyed a 1,000-yard season on 18 different occasions.

Since Carthon arrived in Kansas City in 2009 and started working with the running backs, the Chiefs have averaged 134.4 rushing yards per game to rank second in the AFC and third in the NFL during that timeframe.

The Chiefs rushing attack averaged an NFL-high 164.2 rushing yards per game in 2010, including 182.9 ypg at home. RB Jamaal Charles led the league by averaging 6.38 yards per carry and finished second with 1,467 yards. In his first season with the Chiefs, Carthon was instrumental in the rapid development of Charles. Thanks in large part to Charles, the Chiefs averaged 142.6 rushing yards per game in the final eight contests of 2009.

In 2008, Carthon played a key role in developing Cardinals RBs Tim Hightower and Edgerrin James.

Carthon served as offensive coordinator in Cleveland (2005-06), working alongside Crennel while he was serving as head coach of the Browns. He spent two seasons with Dallas (2003-04), where he served as offensive coordinator/running backs coach on Bill Parcells' staff.

He spent two seasons in Detroit (2001-02), serving as offensive coordinator in 2002. Prior to his time in Detroit, Carthon served four seasons as running backs coach with the New York Jets (1997-00), where he worked with Chiefs General Manager Scott Pioli. He also served as assistant head coach in 2000.

The Arkansas State product began his NFL career on Parcells' staff in New England (1994-96). In 1995, RB Curtis Martin was the lone NFL rookie to earn a Pro Bowl berth after accumulating 1,487 rushing yards and 14 TDs under Carthon. In 1996, Carthon helped the Patriots earn their first division crown in a decade as New England advanced to Super Bowl XXXI.

A veteran of eight NFL seasons as a player with the New York Giants (1985-91) and Indianapolis (1992), Carthon played in 123 games, rushing 300 times for 950 yards with two TDs and catching 90 passes for 745 yards with a TD. He was part of Parcells' squads that won Super Bowls XXI and XXV.

An eighth-round selection of the USFL's New Jersey Generals in 1983, Carthon compiled 2,102 rushing yards in that league, including 1,042 yards and 11 TDs in 1984. He also paved the way for RB Herschel Walker, who gained 5,562 rushing yards during his three-year USFL career. Walker followed Carthon's lead to amass 2,411 yards in 1985, the highest single-season total in pro football history.

Carthon was a two-time all-conference pick at Arkansas State and was inducted into the school's Ring of Honor in 2002. He was a prep standout at Osceola High School in Osceola, Ark.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Daboll spent two seasons (2009-10) with the Cleveland Browns as offensive coordinator. Jack Bicknell Jr. enters his first season with the Chiefs in 2012 as the club's offensive line coach. Beginning his fourth season in the NFL, Bicknell joins Kansas City after a three-year stint with the New York Giants, where he served as the team's assistant offensive line coach under Tom Coughlin and Pat Flaherty.

In 2011, Bicknell assisted a Giants offensive line that paved the way for a 21-17 Super Bowl XLVI victory over the New England Patriots. The club finished fifth in the NFL in passing offense and allowed only 28 sacks on the season.

In 2010, New York's line played at a high level and helped the Giants finish with the NFL's fifth-ranked offense despite a series of injuries that forced the team to start six different offensive line combinations. The Giants started three left tackles, three left guards and three centers throughout the 2010 campaign.

Bicknell helped develop G Chris Snee and OL Shaun O'Hara, who were each selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team, for three straight seasons.

In Bicknell's first season with the Giants, three members of the line played in the Pro Bowl. It was the first time since 1962 that three Giants from the same position group were selected to the NFL's all-star game.

Bicknell joined the Giants after two seasons as the assistant head coach/offensive line coach at Boston College. In 2008, the line coached by Bicknell helped Boston College finish fifth in the ACC in both scoring (24.7 ppg) and in rushing (143.3 ypg) and third in sacks allowed.

In 2007, Bicknell helped mold a young offensive line that protected ACC Player of the Year Matt Ryan and helped the Eagles generate nearly 6,000 yards of total offense. BC finished the season ranked 10th in the nation, the team's best final poll finish since 1984, when Bicknell was the Eagles' center.

Prior to his two-year stay at BC, Bicknell spent eight seasons as the head coach at Louisiana Tech, where his 43 victories are the third-most in school

Bicknell, who was one of the youngest Division I-A head coaches when he started, led the 1999 Bulldogs to an 8-3 record, the school's first AP Top 25 ranking and a 29-28 upset win over eventual SEC champion Alabama. In 2001, Louisiana Tech won the Western Athletic Conference championship during its first year of membership, earning Bicknell conference Coach of the Year honors. Louisiana Tech went on to play Clemson in the Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl, the program's first postseason appearance since 1990.

Bicknell began his coaching career at Boston College in 1985 as a graduate assistant. In 1987, he joined the University of New Hampshire as the defensive line coach and took over the offensive line in 1993. He was the offensive line coach at Louisiana Tech in 1997-98 before becoming the head coach. After leaving Louisiana Tech in 2007, Bicknell accepted the offensive line job at Texas Tech, but later opted to return to his alma mater.

Gary Gibbs enters his fourth season as the Chiefs linebackers coach in 2012. He joined Kansas City after spending three years as the defensive coordinator in New Orleans (2006-08).

Respected in both the NFL and college football ranks, Gibbs enters his 11th season in the pro game after a 22-year career on the collegiate level that featured six seasons as the head coach at the University of Oklahoma (1989-94).

Under Gibbs' guidance, LBs Tamba Hali and Derrick Johnson have compiled outstanding back-to-back campaigns. Hali has registered 26.5 sacks over the past two seasons to rank fourth in the NFL. Johnson set a Chiefs record with most tackles in consecutive seasons with 326 tackles after pacing the team each of the past two seasons (147, 179). Hali and Johnson combined to become the first pair of linebackers in team history selected to the Pro Bowl in the same season since Bobby Bell and Willie Lanier following the 1972 season.

Prior to joining the Chiefs coaching staff, Gibbs spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator with New Orleans (2006-08). In his first season the Saints reached the NFC Championship Game for the first time in team history. New Orleans ranked 11th in total defense, allowing 307.3 ypg that season. After ranking 28th in the league in scoring defense in 2005, the Saints ranked 13th in that category under Gibbs in 2006, allowing 20.1 ppg.

In total, he posted a 44-23-2 overall record and posted a winning record in Big 8 Conference play each season.

Gibbs was largely successful in cleaning up a program that was placed on probation by the NCAA in 1988. Entering his 22nd NFL season in 2012, Joel Collier enters his fourth campaign as Assistant General Manager with the Chiefs. Collier assists General Manager Scott Pioli with the day-to-day football operations of the club, working closely with the coaching and player personnel staffs.

Prior to joining the Chiefs he enjoyed a three-year stint with New England (2005-07) as an assistant coach, working with the defensive backs. The Patriots had a stellar season with Collier leading the club's defensive backs in 2007. New England captured the NFL's first 16-0 regular season record and advanced to Super Bowl XLII. Thanks in part to Collier's secondary unit, the club ranked fourth in the NFL in scoring defense, allowing just 17.1 ppg.

In 2006, Collier assisted in guiding a secondary that helped the Patriots rank second in the league in scoring defense as New England established a franchise record by allowing a mere 14.8 ppg. The Patriots defensive backfield surrendered a league-low 10 TD passes, while Pro Bowl CB Asante Samuel registered a league-high 10 INTs.

After losing six members of the defensive backfield to season-ending injuries in 2005, Collier was instrumental in mentoring a secondary that allowed just 188.0 passing ypg over the club's final seven contests. Over an eight-week midseason span, the Patriots utilized six different starters at strong safety. In total, 13 different starters roamed New England's secondary that season.

In between two separate coaching stints in New England, Collier served an 11-season tenure with Miami (1994-04). During a seven-year stretch as running backs coach (1998-04), the Dolphins produced a 1,000-yard rusher three times. Under Collier's guidance, RB Ricky Williams assembled the finest two 1,000-yard rushing seasons in Dolphins history with a league-leading 1,853 yards in 2002 and a 1,372-yard effort in 2003. In 2002, Williams became the first Dolphins running back to earn a Pro Bowl berth since RB Delvin Williams in 1978.

Collier was also credited with developing FB Rob Konrad into one of the league's premier blocking fullbacks. In total, Collier helped three different Dolphins finish among the NFL's top five rookie rushers.

Before tutoring Miami's running backs, Collier spent four seasons as a defensive assistant (1994-97). In that role, he assisted with the club's linebackers unit and was credited with assisting in the rapid development of LB Derrick Rodgers, who took home Defensive Rookie of the Year honors from Sports Illustrated in 1997.

CHIEFS RADIO NETWORK

For the 23rd-consecutive year, all Chiefs games will be carried in Kansas City by KCFX Radio/101.1 FM. The Chiefs Fox Football Radio Network, with KCFX as its anchor, includes XX affiliates throughout a seven-state region. KCFX will broadcast all Chiefs preseason, regular season and playoff games live.

In 2010, Sports Radio 810 WHB secured exclusive rights to the second hour of the official Chiefs postgame show. Sports Radio 810 is the official AM radio partner of the Chiefs, and owns exclusive live radio broadcast rights to the Chiefs weekly in-season press conferences with Head Coach Romeo Crennel and the other Chiefs programming.

One of the Midwest's most recognizable radio and television personalities, Mitch Holthus handles the play-by-play duties for the 19th-straight year, giving him more years of service than any other "Voice of the Chiefs" in team history. Holthus has called a franchise-record 294 regular and postseason contests for Kansas City. Only six active NFL play-by-play announcers have been in their current roles for more seasons than Holthus.

Holthus is a past president of the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association, an eight-time winner of the Kansas Sportscaster of the Year Award and was inducted into the Kansas Broadcaster Hall of Fame in 2008. The Smith Center, Kan., native also served as the voice of Kansas State athletics for 14 years from 1983-96. In addition to his Chiefs duties, he began his duties as the lead TV play-by-play broadcaster for FOX Sports coverage of the Missouri Valley Conference in 1995. In 2008, Holthus added TV play-by-play coverage of Big 12 basketball to his resume and continued to broadcast select Missouri Valley basketball contests.

Adding the color analysis to the Chiefs Radio Network for the 28th-consecutive year is QB Len Dawson, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987. Dawson was the MVP in Kansas City's Super Bowl IV triumph over Minnesota and guided the franchise to three AFL titles. Pro Bowl long snapper Kendall Gammon enters his fifth season providing in-game sideline updates. A 15-year NFL veteran, Gammon played in 106 games in a Chiefs uniform and was a member of Pittsburgh's Super Bowl XXX squad. Dan Israel serves as the Executive Producer of the Chiefs Radio Network. A member of the Chiefs Radio Network since 1989, his talents have also been used by HBO, CBS, NBC and ABC. "Voice of the Missouri State Bears" Art Haines anchors the pre-game show, halftime and in-game reports.

CHIEFS RADIO TEAM: (L to R): Kendall Gammon (Sideline Reporter), Len Dawson (Color Commentary), Mitch Holthus (Play-by-Play) and Dan Israel (Exec. Producer).

2012 CHIEFS TRAINING CAMP

For the first time in 20 years, Chiefs Training Camp moved back to the state of Missouri as Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Mo. became the "Summer Home of the Chiefs" in 2010.

"We are very excited about bringing training camp back to the state of Missouri," Chiefs Chairman & CEO Clark Hunt said. "Given the increased year-round interest in the Chiefs, it was important to our family to conduct camp closer to our fans in Mid-America."

St. Joseph and Missouri Western are located approximately an hour north of Arrowhead Stadium, and roughly 40 minutes north of Kansas City International Airport. This community of 72,000 and Missouri Western have embraced the Chiefs. The famed Pony Express got its start in St. Joseph in 1860, while noted Wild West figure Jesse James met his demise in the city in 1882.

The Chiefs enjoy a number of amenities at the new climate-controlled Griffon Indoor Complex (below), including state-of-the-art locker rooms, training rooms, meeting rooms, weight room facilities and a 120-yard indoor field. In addition to the indoor practice area, two 120-yard regulation NFL grass fields have been installed, in addition to the artificial surface of Spratt Stadium. Blum Union houses the team's dining needs and serves as the club's media headquarters.

The Missouri Development Finance Board approved a $25 million tax credit in June of 2009 to help bring Chiefs training camp back to Missouri. Through the Hunt family's additional contributions to the Arrowhead project, the family and the Chiefs organization made a $10 million investment toward the Griffon Indoor Complex at Missouri Western.

The Kansas City Chiefs have committed to holding the club's training camp in the state of Missouri for the next eight years, while the club and Missouri Western State University agreed to the university's plans for the current training facility that will keep Kansas City's training camp in St. Joseph for a minimum of three more years.

CHIEFS TELEVISION NETWORK

NFL Network's Paul Burmeister joins former Chiefs All-Pro QB Trent Green on the Chiefs Television Network for the team's 2012 preseason TV broadcasts on KCTV5 that will be seen in 12 different markets in a six-state region. Aired by KCTV5 in Kansas City, all preseason games will be available in high definition.

Burmeister will handle play-by-play with Green serving as the color commentator.

"We are extremely excited to have Paul Burmeister and Trent Green leading the on-air broadcast for the 2012 preseason on the Chiefs Television Network," said Chiefs President Mark Donovan. "Both Paul and Trent have ties to the region and provide a great combination of local Chiefs knowledge and National Football League perspective."

KCTV5 will carry Chiefs preseason contests for the 10th consecutive year.

"We are eager to begin our 10th year of airing preseason games on the Chiefs Television Network this fall," said KCTV5 General Manager Bobby Totsch. "Having Paul Burmeister and Trent Green in the booth will be a true treat for all Chiefs fans and KCTV5 viewers when they tune into games this August."

Burmeister played quarterback at the University of Iowa (1989-93) and was a team captain for the Hawkeyes his senior season. He is currently in his seventh season as a studio host and reporter with NFL Network. He has called preseason games for the Jacksonville Jaguars for the past four seasons. In 2010, Burmeister served as a lead play-by-play voice for NFL Network's debut season broadcasting Arena Football League games, calling 11 matchups – including Arena Bowl XXIII – alongside Kurt Warner. Burmeister also anchors NFL Network's exclusive coverage of the Under Armour Senior Bowl and contributes to coverage of the NFL Scouting Combine in Indianapolis. Green concluded his 16-year NFL playing career in 2008 and launched his broadcasting career with FOX Sports in 2009. In six seasons with Kansas City (2001-06), Green established franchise career records for passer rating (87.3), completion percentage (61.9) and 300-yard games (24). A two-time winner of the Derrick Thomas Award as Kansas City's MVP (2003-04), Green threw for 21,459 yards and 118 TDs in a Chiefs uniform, numbers topped only by Hall of Fame QB Len Dawson.

65 Toss Power Trap Productions, the production arm of the Chiefs organization, will make its debut in live game production starting with the 2012 preseason. Each game will be fully created and designed in-house by the team's staff of producers and directors.

Bills 41, Chiefs 7

September 11, 2011 • Arrowhead Stadium • 68,755

BUFFALO	14	6	14	7	—	41
KANSAS CITY	0	7	0	0	—	7

Led by four QB Ryan Fitzpatrick touchdown passes, the Buffalo Bills defeated the Kansas City Chiefs 41-7 in the 2011 season opener in front of 68,755 fans at Arrowhead Stadium. Buffalo outgained the Chiefs 364-to-213 in total net yardage and possessed the ball for 37:02, compared to 22:58 for the Chiefs.

The game, which fell on the 10th anniversary of the Sept. 11, 2001 attacks on America, opened with a touching pregame ceremony that included a field-size American flag, a live rendition of 'Taps' played from the Shanksville, Pa. crash site, a flyover of A-10s from Whiteman Air Force Base and hundreds of Kansas City firefighters and police officers.

Following the ceremony, Buffalo wasted no time getting off to a quick start, capitalizing on a RB Dexter McCluster fumble on the opening kickoff. Buffalo took an early 7-0 lead when Fitzpatrick found TE Scott Chandler on a four-yard scoring pass with 12:14 left in the first quarter. The Bills drove 26 yards on five plays in 2:39.

The Bills increased their lead to 14-0 with 0:55 left in the first quarter when Fitzpatrick led a six-play, 75-yard drive in 3:37, capped off by a 27-yard touchdown pass to WR Stevie Johnson. TE Shawn Nelson added a key 35-yard reception on the play prior to the score. Fitzpatrick was three-for-three passing for 71 yards on the drive.

Buffalo outgained Kansas City 117-to-42 in total net yards during the first quarter, including an 80-to-nine net passing advantage.

On the first drive of the second quarter, the Chiefs appeared to have cut the lead in half when QB Matt Cassel found TE Leonard Pope on a 19-yard pass in the end zone, but the score was overturned after a replay review. A missed field goal later on the drive left the score at 14-0.

Bills K Rian Lindell increased the lead to 17-0 with a 29-yard field goal with 6:42 left in the second quarter. The Buffalo scoring drive covered nine plays and 50 yards in 5:04.

Following a Chiefs fumble, Lindell added a second field goal when he connected from 38 yards out with 5:38 remaining in the first half to give the Bills a 20-0 lead.

The Chiefs got in the scoring column when Cassel threw a six-yard TD pass to RB Jamaal Charles with 1:46 left in the half. On the drive, the Chiefs went 81 yards on 11 plays in 3:52. McCluster contributed a 23-yard run and WR Steve Breaston's first reception as a Chief went for 20 yards to set up the score.

With 4:19 left in the third quarter, Fitzpatrick hooked up with Chandler for a second touchdown from 11 yards out, giving the Bills a 27-7 advantage. On the drive, Buffalo ran eight plays covering 59 yards in 5:52.

Fitzpatrick threw his fourth TD pass to WR Donald Jones with 0:14 remaining in the third quarter, connecting on a four-yard strike. The drive covered 32 yards on six plays in 2:50.

Bills RB C.J. Spiller scored on a nine-yard run with 11:50 left in the game to cap a four-play, 28-yard drive in 2:11, making the score 41-7.

Fitzpatrick finished 17-for-25 passing for 208 yards on the afternoon. RB Fred Jackson carried the ball 20 times for 112 yards while Chandler caught a team-high five passes. Johnson and Nelson both tied for a game-high 66 receiving yards.

Cassel completed 22-of-36 passes for 119 yards on the afternoon. Charles gained 56 yards on 10 carries and tied with McCluster for a team-best five receptions.

Lions 48, Chiefs 3

September 18, 2011 • Ford Field • 60,040

KANSAS CITY.....	3	0	0	0	—	3
DETROIT	7	13	7	21	—	48

The Kansas City defense could not hold the Lions back as Detroit used a stout passing attack to rack up 322 yards through the air en route to a 48-3 Week 2 victory over the Chiefs at Ford Field. Kansas City had six turnovers and committed eight penalties for 70 yards in the loss.

QB Matt Stafford completed 23-of-39 passes for 294 yards and had four touchdowns for the Lions as they outgained the Chiefs 411-to-267 in total yards. The Chiefs outgained the Lions on the ground, registering 151 yards to the Lions 89 yards.

During the opening drive of the game, Chiefs S Jon McGraw intercepted a Stafford pass but fumbled the ball on the return, giving the ball back to the Lions. Following the fumble, Kansas City committed unnecessary roughness and roughing the passer penalties, setting up the Detroit scoring strike.

The Chiefs took over after the kickoff on their own 20-yard line. RB Dexter McCluster picked up 24 yards on an end-around. After his own 24-yard run, RB Jamaal Charles tried to run for a first down and injured his knee on the play and would not return to the contest. K Ryan Succop connected on a 33-yard FG, making the score 7-3 with 8:00 to go in the first quarter.

After a Detroit punt, Kansas City drove the ball into Lions territory, but were unable to capitalize as Succop's 44-yard field goal attempt missed wide left.

The Chiefs faced fourth-and-one after getting to midfield but were penalized five yards for having 12 men in the huddle and elected to punt.

The Kansas City defense forced a Detroit three and out but on the Lions punt, a 15-yard roughing the kicker penalty kept the Lions drive alive. On third-and-one, McGraw and CB Brandon Flowers stuffed Detroit RB Jerome Harrison for no gain, forcing a Lions punt.

Starting in Kansas City territory after a KC punt, Stafford took only two plays before connecting with TE Tony Scheffler for a 36-yard TD to make the score 14-3 in favor of Detroit with 5:50 left in the first half.

After an INT that went through the hands of WR Dwayne Bowe, Detroit converted on third-and-24, setting up a 51-yard field goal from K Jason Hanson, putting the Lions up 17-3 with 1:07 left in the first half.

On the Chiefs next drive, Cassel's pass for WR Jerheme Urban went through the receiver's hands and was intercepted. This time the turnover set up a 28-yard Hanson field goal just before halftime, giving Detroit the 20-3 lead.

After another KC punt, Stafford completed passes of 27 and 35 yards before hitting WR Calvin Johnson for a one-yard TD on fourth-and-one, extending the lead to 27-3 with 1:17 left in the third.

On the Chiefs next offensive play, Cassel had the ball knocked out of his hand where it was picked up by LB Stephen Tulloch deep in Kansas City territory. Two plays later, Stafford found RB Jahvid Best for a nine-yard touchdown strike, putting Detroit up 34-3 with 14:49 left to play in the contest.

On the second play of the next drive, Cassel hit McCluster out of the backfield but as he dove for extra yards, CB Eric Wright knocked the ball out of McCluster's hands and it was recovered by DE Cliff Avril at the Chiefs 18-yard line.

From there, Detroit covered 18 yards in six plays. An unnecessary roughness penalty on the Chiefs gave the Lions a first down. Best then dove over the goal line to put Detroit up 41-3 with 11:31 left in the game.

Cassel's pass on third-and-five was intercepted at the KC 38-yard line and was returned four yards to the 34-yard line. RB Keiland Williams wrapped up the day's scoring with a one-yard TD run, putting the Lions up 48-3 with 5:06 left to play in the game.

Chargers 20, Chiefs 17

September 25, 2011 • Qualcomm Stadium • 62,236

KANSAS CITY.....	0	0	7	10	—	17
SAN DIEGO.....	0	10	7	3	—	20

Despite holding the Chargers passing game in check for most of the game, the Chiefs couldn't take advantage of San Diego's miscues and fell to the Chargers 20-17 at Qualcomm Stadium.

Kansas City's offense never found its rhythm as San Diego held advantages in total yards (375-to-252), passing (258-to-171) and rushing (117-to-81). The Chargers also won the time of possession battle (34:43-to-25:17).

S Kendrick Lewis intercepted a QB Philip Rivers pass at the Kansas City 15-yard line and returned it 50 yards to the SD 35 to halt a Chargers drive. A holding penalty on fourth and one stymied a potential first down and facing fourth-and-10, K Ryan Succop's 38-yard FG attempt sailed wide right.

DE Wallace Gilberry registered a sack and strip of Rivers in San Diego territory, but the Chargers recovered the ball. Three plays later, RB Ryan Mathews dove into the end zone from two yards out to put the Chargers up 7-0 with 12:45 left in the first half.

After trading punts, Flowers intercepted a deep Rivers pass at the goal line and returned it 43 yards to the Kansas City 43.

Following the interception, Kansas City suffered another three-and-out. On third-and-three, Rivers found Mathews out of the backfield for a 24-yard pickup and a first down. After an offensive pass interference penalty by the Chargers on third-and-10, K Nick Novak connected on a 35-yard field goal, putting San Diego up 10-0 with 0:28 left before halftime.

Coming out of halftime, LB Tamba Hali sacked Rivers for a five-yard loss, eventually forcing a Chargers punt.

Facing third-and-seven, QB Matt Cassel found WR Dwayne Bowe for 23 yards to the San Diego four-yard line. Cassel found Bowe in the end zone on the next play as Bowe hauled in the pass, making the score 10-7 with 11:21 left in the third quarter.

Rivers opened the Chargers next drive with a 26-yard pass to TE Randy McMichael. Mathews would cap the drive with a four-yard rush, pushing the Chargers lead to 17-7 with 7:32 left in the third quarter.

Cassel found WR Steve Breaston for a five-yard gain on fourth-and-four to keep the drive alive. After RB Dexter McCluster picked up a first down on third-and-two, KC's drive stalled and Succop connected on a 33-yard field goal, making the score 17-10 in favor of the Chargers with 12:57 left in the game.

Mathews picked up 14 yards to move the ball near midfield for San Diego. A 23-yard pass from Rivers to WR Patrick Crayton got the ball to the Chiefs 25-yard line. The Kansas City defense stiffened up, forcing a 41-yard Novak field goal. The kick put the Chargers up 20-10 with 8:03 left in the contest.

On third-and-10, Cassel hit Bowe for 21 yards to the Kansas City 41-yard line. Cassel connected with Bowe on third-and-11 for 19 yards and a first down to keep the drive moving. On second-and-13, Cassel hit Breaston for 43 yards, giving the Chiefs the ball on the San Diego one-yard line. Cassel then hit Pope in the back of the end zone for a TD, making the score 20-17 with 4:58 left in the game.

San Diego took over on its own 33-yard line. A 21-yard pass from Rivers to RB Mike Tolbert gave San Diego a fresh set of downs. Facing fourth-and-one, Rivers' QB sneak was stuffed by DE Tyson Jackson and LB Jovan Belcher, giving KC the ball on its own 34-yard line with 1:26 left to play in the contest.

On first down, Cassel found Pope for 23 yards. Cassel's next pass was intercepted by S Eric Weddle, ending Kansas City's hopes of a last-minute comeback.

Chiefs 22, Vikings 17

MINNESOTA	7	0	3	7	—	17
KANSAS CITY	3	6	6	7	—	22

Behind five field goals from K Ryan Succop and a total of 13 second-half points, the Kansas City Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings 22-17 at Arrowhead Stadium.

QB Matt Cassel finished with 260 passing yards and a 102.7 rating to pace Kansas City in the victory. The Chiefs defense limited Minnesota RB Adrian Peterson to 80 yards on 23 carries in the game.

Succop's five field goals tied a Chiefs record for most field goals made in a single game that was set by K Jan Stenerud and K Nick Lowery.

On the game's opening drive, CB Javier Arenas recorded a 33-yard punt return, setting up a 40-yard field goal to put Kansas City ahead 3-0 with 7:16 left in the first quarter.

Minnesota was quick to answer as the Vikings drove 80 yards in nine plays, with QB Donovan McNabb finding WR Devine Aromashodu for a 34-yard touchdown, giving the Vikings a 7-3 lead with 1:47 left in the first quarter.

After a Chiefs punt, the Kansas City defense stymied a promising Vikings drive as a McNabb pass was tipped by RB Toby Gerhart and intercepted by CB Brandon Carr.

The Chiefs second field goal was set up by a 42-yard pass from Cassel to WR Steve Breaston. Succop hit a 24-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 7-6 with 5:15 left to play in the first half.

Kansas City took a 9-7 lead into halftime as Succop nailed a 51-yard field goal as the first half ended.

The Chiefs opened the second half with a punt. K Ryan Longwell connected on a 33-yard field goal to give the lead back to the Vikings, 10-9 with 9:15 left to play in the third.

Kansas City answered with another Succop field goal as he booted a career-long 54-yarder. The kick was his second of the game longer than 50 yards, tying a Chiefs record, and put Kansas City back on top, 12-10 with 5:18 left in the third quarter.

After another Minnesota punt, Cassel hit WR Dwayne Bowe with a 28-yard reception, which went on to set up another field goal. Succop split the uprights from 22 yards out to increase the lead to 15-10 with 0:09 left in the third quarter.

After the ensuing kickoff, Minnesota was unable to convert on third down for their third-consecutive drive and Kansas City's momentum was rolling.

FB LeRon McClain caught a short pass for seven yards to start the drive and Bowe finished it with a 52-yard touchdown reception, increasing the lead to 22-10 with 13:51 left to play in the game.

Following KC's score, the Vikings refused to let up as they answered back with a scoring drive of their own. The eight-minute, 70-yard Minnesota drive included a 23-yard pass and run to WR Percy Harvin early and a 20-yard pass to WR Bernard Berrian later on to set up a one-yard touchdown catch by WR Michael Jenkins to cut the lead to 22-17 with 5:50 left in the game.

Former Chiefs DE Jared Allen got to Cassel for his second sack of the game on the following series, and a pair of incomplete passes to WR Keary Colbert and Bowe put the ball back in Minnesota's hands after a 61-yard punt by P Dustin Colquitt.

Harvin put the Vikings in Chiefs territory with a 23-yard dash and the Vikings appeared to be rolling towards a comeback, but the Chiefs defensive line batted down a pair of passes, forcing fourth-and-10 for the Vikings. An incomplete fourth-down pass from McNabb gave the Chiefs the ball back on downs and Kansas City was able to run out the clock for its first victory of the 2011 season.

KANSAS CITY	0	14	7	7	—	28
INDIANAPOLIS	7	17	0	0	—	24

Kansas City recorded 21 unanswered points to overcome a 24-7 first-half deficit and beat Indianapolis 28-24. The Chiefs defense pitched a second-half shutout against an explosive Colts offense, holding the Colts to 64 total yards in the final two quarters.

QB Matt Cassel completed 21 of 29 passes for 257 yards and four touchdowns, good for a 138.9 QB rating, his third-straight contest with a 100.0-plus QB rating. RB Jackie Battle led the Chiefs ground attack as he racked up a career-high 119 yards on 19 carries. WR Dwayne Bowe registered 128 yards on seven catches, marking his third 100-yard receiving day of the season and the 13th of his career. He and WR Steve Breaston each hauled in two touchdown receptions in the win.

The Colts went 80 yards in 12 plays on their opening drive and QB Curtis Painter found WR Pierre Garcon for a six-yard TD to put the Colts up 7-0 with 7:36 left in the first quarter.

After the Indianapolis score, the Kansas City offense moved the ball into Colts territory but the drive stalled as RB Dexter McCluster was dropped for a one-yard loss on third-and-two. P Dustin Colquitt pinned the Colts inside their own 10-yard line. The Chiefs defense held the Colts to a three-and-out and Indianapolis punted out of its own end zone.

After a Chiefs punt, Painter fired a 37-yard strike to Garcon to get to the Kansas City 32-yard line. LB Tamba Hali stopped RB Delone Carter for a three-yard loss. K Adam Vinatieri converted a 53-yard field goal to put Indianapolis up 10-0 with 12:23 left in the first half.

After another Chiefs punt, Painter found Garcon for a 67-yard TD pass to put Indianapolis up 17-0 with 11:13 left to play in the first half.

The Chiefs managed to get on the board as Cassel found Bowe on a quick slant for 41 yards and a touchdown to make the score 17-7 with 5:11 left in the first half.

The Colts wasted little time answering as Indianapolis mounted an eight-play, 80-yard touchdown drive that was capped by a three-yard Carter rush, giving the Colts a 24-7 lead with 1:09 left in the first half.

Cassel hit Breaston for 15 yards and Breaston dove for the end zone, putting the ball just inside the pylon, making the score 24-14 with 0:13 left to play in the opening half.

After taking over on the seven-yard line midway through the third quarter, Cassel hit Bowe for 12 yards. Battle then recorded back-to-back 11-yard carries while RB Thomas Jones followed that up with a 21-yard carry of his own to start the drive. Facing third-and-one, Battle pounded his way up the middle for two yards. After getting to the Indianapolis five-yard line, Cassel found Bowe for a five-yard TD as the receiver fended off a defensive pass interference penalty to make a one-handed catch, capping the 12-play, 93-yard scoring drive and making the score 24-21 with 0:40 left in the third quarter.

The two teams traded punts on their next drives.

Facing third-and-two from the 11-yard line, Cassel found Breaston in the end zone, marking the pair's second TD connection of the day. The score put the Chiefs up 28-24 with 5:15 left to play in the contest.

S Jon McGraw batted down a Painter pass on fourth-and-six to stop the Colts comeback attempt. After the turnover on downs, Battle and Cassel each picked up first downs on the ground, allowing the Chiefs to run out the clock on the comeback victory.

KANSAS CITY.....	14	0	7	7	—	28
OAKLAND.....	0	0	0	0	—	0

The Kansas City Chiefs secondary stole the show as the defensive backfield accounted for six interceptions off Oakland QBs Kyle Boller and Carson Palmer en route to a 28-0 blanking of the Raiders.

Kansas City's six interceptions tied for the second-most in team history. It marked the seventh time in Chiefs annals that KC recorded six interceptions off opposing quarterbacks in a single game. CB Brandon Flowers (58 yards) and S Kendrick Lewis (59 yards) each returned interceptions for a touchdown.

The Chiefs offense couldn't get going on its first drive, but the Chiefs defense set the tone early as Lewis intercepted a Boller pass and returned it 59 yards to the end zone to put the Chiefs up 7-0 less than three minutes into the game.

Two drives later, CB Brandon Flowers notched the Chiefs second interception off Boller as he picked off a pass at the Chiefs 40-yard line.

QB Matt Cassel converted two third-down plays through the air and eventually found WR Dwayne Bowe for 15 yards, getting inside the one-yard line. On the next play, FB LeRon McClain broke the plane of the goal line, putting the Chiefs up 14-0 with 1:53 left to play in the first quarter.

Following the Chiefs score, Boller marched Oakland into Chiefs territory. Eventually, Bush got loose up the middle, scampering for 35 yards to the Kansas City five-yard line.

Oakland got to the one-yard line after two rushes. On third-and-one, the Chiefs defense stopped Bush for no gain. LBs Derrick Johnson and Jovan Belcher stuffed Bush short of the goal line on fourth-and-goal to give the Chiefs possession.

After the teams traded punts, the Chiefs forced another three-and-out but an illegal hands to the face penalty on Oakland's punt gave the Raiders an automatic first down at their own 10-yard line. As Oakland moved the ball down the field, Boller's pass for WR Darius Heyward-Bey was intercepted by CB Brandon Carr at the KC 10-yard line. Kansas City took over on the 12-yard line with 0:55 left in the first half.

Cassel's hail mary pass was intercepted by S Chinedum Ndukwe at the two-yard line to end the first half.

The Kansas City defense held Oakland to a three and out on its first drive of the half. Two 15-yard penalties on the Oakland defense helped the Chiefs move the ball down the field. CB Javier Arenas lined up at quarterback in the Wildcat formation and scored from seven yards out, making the score 21-0 with 10:25 left to play in the third quarter.

On the Chiefs next drive, Cassel's pass for RB Dexter McCluster was intercepted by CB DeMarcus Van Dyke and returned to the Oakland 22-yard line. On third and nine, Palmer found Heyward-Bey for 21 yards, but two plays later, Flowers grabbed his second interception of the day, this time off Palmer, and returned it 58 yards to the end zone to mark the Chiefs second interception return TD of the day, putting the Chiefs up 28-0 with 14:20 left in the game.

S Jon McGraw joined the interception club at the Chiefs nine-yard line as he grabbed a Palmer pass that had been tipped, the Chiefs fifth interception of the day.

After a Chiefs punt, CB Travis Daniels intercepted a Palmer pass at the KC 18-yard line for the Chiefs. After Oakland went three and out and punted, Kansas City was able to run the clock out on the shutout victory.

MIAMI.....	7	7	14	3	—	31
KANSAS CITY.....	3	0	0	0	—	3

Led by three QB Matt Moore touchdown passes, the Miami Dolphins reeled off 31 unanswered points to defeat the Kansas City Chiefs 31-3 at Arrowhead Stadium.

After receiving the opening kickoff, the Chiefs drove down the field and took a 3-0 lead on a 43-yard field goal by K Ryan Succop. The 14-play drive covered 53 yards in 7:49. QB Matt Cassel connected with WR Dwayne Bowe for 15 yards on third-and-eight to keep the drive moving.

Both teams punted on their next drives and Miami answered Kansas City's early score when Moore found WR Brandon Marshall for 20 yards and connected with RB Reggie Bush for 18 yards to the KC three-yard line. On the next play, Moore hit TE Anthony Fasano for a three-yard touchdown with 0:46 left in the first quarter. The scoring drive covered 47 yards on six plays in 2:53.

After a Chiefs punt, Miami wasted little time extending its lead as Moore connected with RB Charles Clay for 21 and 22 yards on back-to-back passes. On the following play, Moore found Fasano for a second touchdown on a 35-yard pass with 9:41 left in the first half to cap a three-play, 78-yard drive that took only 1:39. The score put Miami on top 14-3. For Fasano, it marked his second-career multi-touchdown game. His first came on Dec. 21, 2008 at Arrowhead Stadium.

Miami carried the 14-3 advantage into halftime and received the opening kick of the second half.

After both teams punted on their opening drives of the half, Bush hauled in a 27-yard reception to set up Moore's third touchdown pass of the day, this time a 14-yard strike to Marshall with 8:38 remaining in the third quarter. The scoring drive lasted only four plays and covered 61 yards in 1:17.

Following the Miami score, the Chiefs went three-and-out and punted the ball back to the Dolphins. Bush scampered 18 yards to the KC 28-yard line on first down and followed that up with a 28-yard end-around touchdown run with 6:41 left in the third to push Miami's lead to 28-3. Prater missed a 41-yard field goal with 1:55 left in regulation to give KC the ball back.

GAME 10 Patriots 34, Chiefs 3

November 21, 2011 • Gillette Stadium • 68,756

KANSAS CITY	3	0	0	0	—	3
NEW ENGLAND	0	10	17	7	—	34

The New England Patriots scored 34 unanswered points in the final three quarters of the game to take a 34-3 victory over the Chiefs on Monday Night Football at Gillette Stadium.

The Patriots held advantages in all offensive categories, outgaining the Chiefs in total net yards (380-to-334), rushing (157-to-119) and passing (223-to-215). The Chiefs defense held QB Tom Brady to 234 yards passing, but allowed two touchdowns. TE Rob Gronkowski recorded four receptions for 96 yards with two touchdowns to pace New England's offense. RB BenJarvus Green-Ellis rushed 20 times for 81 yards.

QB Tyler Palko completed 24-of-37 passes for 230 yards but was intercepted three times in the contest. RB Thomas Jones had eight rushes for 48 yards and WR Dwayne Bowe recorded seven catches for 87 yards in the game.

Both teams opened their first two possessions of the game with punts. The Kansas City offense found rhythm after CB Javier Arenas registered a 25-yard punt return to put the Chiefs near midfield. RB Thomas Jones reeled off his longest run of the year, a 26-yard scamper to move the Chiefs to the Patriots five-yard line. K Ryan Succop would eventually connect on a 26-yard field goal to go up 3-0 with 2:30 left to play in the first quarter. The Chiefs drive covered 45 yards in nine plays.

After the Chiefs field goal, Kansas City attempted an onside kick to catch New England off guard. An illegal touching penalty before the ball went 10 yards gave New England possession at the Kansas City 44-yard line.

After New England moved the ball to the Kansas City 30-yard line, DE Wallace Gilberry sacked Brady and forced a fumble. DL Allen Bailey recovered the loose ball, ending the Patriots drive.

New England was first to reach the end zone when Brady found Gronkowski in open space for a 52-yard touchdown to put the Patriots up 7-3 with 4:18 left in the first half.

A Kansas City INT then turned into a New England field goal. K Stephen Gostkowski's 21-yard kick split the uprights, giving New England the 10-3 lead with 0:10 left in the first half.

New England received the opening kickoff of the second half and Brady again found Gronkowski for 19 yards up the right sideline, putting New England up 17-3 with 10:27 left in the third quarter.

Following the Patriots score, Kansas City went three-and-out. New England WR Julian Edelman returned Colquitt's punt 72 yards for a touchdown to put the Patriots up 24-3 with 9:24 left in the third quarter.

Another Chiefs INT resulted in Gostkowski's second field goal of the night as he booted a 19-yarder to put the Patriots up 27-3.

New England's final score came when the offense moved the ball to the Kansas City four-yard line. Facing fourth-and-goal with 1:01 left in the game, the Patriots added one more touchdown as RB Shane Vereen found the end zone, making the final score 34-3.

PITTSBURGH	0	13	0	0	—	13
KANSAS CITY	3	3	0	3	—	9

In a tightly-contested defensive battle, the Kansas City Chiefs fell 13-9 to the Pittsburgh Steelers on Sunday Night Football at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs turned the ball over four times as the Steelers held on to win.

The Chiefs took an early 3-0 lead on a 41-yard field goal by K Ryan Succop to cap the game's opening drive. Kansas City drove 57 yards on 11 plays in 4:20 and QB Tyler Palko was 3-for-4 passing as the Chiefs featured a no-huddle attack. He connected with WR Dwayne Bowe on a 25-yard completion to put the offense in field goal range.

On Pittsburgh's first possession, the Steelers drove 80 yards before Chiefs LB Tamba Hali forced a RB Mewelde Moore fumble at the two-yard line that was recovered by CB Javier Arenas in the end zone for a touchback. Pittsburgh QB Ben Roethlisberger was 5-for-6 passing for 76 yards on the drive.

Five plays later, Palko was unable to handle a snap and the fumble was recovered by Steelers DE Brett Keisel at KC's 38-yard line.

The Chiefs defense held thanks to an offensive holding penalty and a sack (-11.0 yards) from DL Amon Gordon.

One play after the Steelers punt, Palko was intercepted at the KC 36-yard line by CB Ike Taylor, who returned the pick 29 yards to the Chiefs seven-yard line.

Again, the Kansas City defense held and K Shaun Suisham tied the game with a 21-yard field goal with 13:29 left in the second quarter.

Palko's next pass was intercepted by S Ryan Mundy at the KC 29-yard line. Mundy returned the pick five yards, and the Steelers were able to convert the turnover into points as Roethlisberger then found TE Weslye Saunders on a two-yard touchdown pass to finish a five-play, 24-yard drive in 2:29. Pittsburgh led 10-3 with 10:53 remaining in the first half.

Succop connected on a 49-yard field goal to cut the lead to 10-6 with 4:30 left in the second quarter. The scoring drive lasted nine plays and covered 38 yards in 3:20.

On the final play of the first half, Suisham connected on a 49-yard field goal to cap a nine-play, 47-yard drive in 4:30, making the score 13-6 in favor of Pittsburgh at halftime.

Both defenses held strong as the teams traded possessions for the duration of the third quarter.

The Chiefs pulled to within four at 13-9 with 7:11 left in regulation on a 40-yard field goal by Succop, his third of the night. The scoring march lasted 13 plays and covered 70 yards in 6:11.

On Kansas City's final drive, the Chiefs were moving down the field when Palko was intercepted by CB Keenan Lewis at the Pittsburgh 14-yard line with 29 seconds remaining.

From there, Roethlisberger kneeled on the ball to run out the clock.

GAME 12

Chiefs 10, Bears 3

December 4, 2011 • Soldier Field • 61,973

KANSAS CITY	0	7	3	0	—	10
CHICAGO	0	3	0	0	—	3

It was a defensive showcase for the Chiefs as Kansas City recorded 7.0 sacks and intercepted three passes en route to a 10-3 victory at Soldier Field. The Chiefs held the Bears to 181 yards of total offense, limiting Chicago to fewer than 100 yards both rushing and passing.

Kansas City had 252 total yards of offense, 139 through the air and 113 on the ground. The difference in the game came on a 38-yard TD pass from QB Tyler Palko to RB Dexter McCluster at the end of the first half that was batted in the end zone by a Bears defender before McCluster jumped under it to take a 7-3 lead into halftime.

The teams traded punts before the Bears offense started the game's first sustained drive of the day with a QB Caleb Hanie pass to TE Kellen Davis for 12 yards. The Bears got to the four-yard line where they were stopped on third-and-one. On fourth-and-one, Hanie found a wide-open RB Marion Barber who had been left uncovered, but the touchdown was nullified by an illegal formation penalty.

After a false start penalty, K Robbie Gould's 32-yard field goal was good, putting the Bears up 3-0 with 9:44 left to play in the second quarter.

LB Justin Houston recorded his first-career sack and first of 3.0 on the day as he dropped Hanie for a nine-yard loss to stall the next Bears drive.

The Bears lined up for a 51-yard field goal attempt, but a delay of game penalty pushed Chicago back and forced a punt that was downed at the KC 13-yard line.

Faced with third-and-eight, Palko found WR Steve Breaston for 10 yards and a first down. On third-and-nine, Palko connected with WR Dwayne Bowe for 14 yards and a first down. On fourth-and-three, Palko hit RB Dexter McCluster out of the backfield for five yards to keep the drive alive.

With 0:02 left on the clock before halftime, Palko's Hail Mary pass was batted by a Bears defender and was caught by a McCluster, putting the Chiefs up 7-3 at halftime.

Kansas City forced a three-and-out on the Bears opening drive of the half. Following the Chicago punt, the Chiefs marched 86 yards on 15 plays and capped the drive with a 21-yard K Ryan Succop field goal.

On the first play following the KC score, CB Brandon Carr intercepted a Hanie pass. The Chiefs offense was unable to capitalize and had to punt.

RB Kahlil Bell posted a 26-yard run to give the Bears first-and-goal at the seven-yard line. DE Tyson Jackson dropped Hanie for a 10-yard loss and on the next play, Houston recorded his second sack of the game, taking Hanie down for a six-yard loss. Gould's 41-yard field goal attempt was wide left.

Both teams went three-and-out on their next drive as S Jon McGraw dropped Hanie for a 13-yard sack to force a Bears punt. After trading punts again, the Bears got to the Kansas City 13-yard line. Hanie's pass was tipped by a Bears receiver and multiple Chiefs defenders before McGraw grabbed the ball in the end zone for an interception.

LBs Derrick Johnson and Tamba Hali each recorded a sack of Hanie on the next drive, forcing the Bears into fourth-and-17. Hanie's pass fell incomplete. The Chiefs ran the clock down to 0:13 before having to punt back to the Bears. CB Javier Arenas intercepted Hanie's final pass of the day to seal the Chiefs 10-3 victory.

December 11, 2011 • MetLife Stadium • 79,088

KANSAS CITY.....	3	0	0	7	—	10
N.Y. JETS.....	7	21	7	2	—	37

The Chiefs could not stop a balanced N.Y. Jets offensive attack while Kansas City's offense could not get going in a 37-10 loss at MetLife Stadium.

The Jets took the early lead over the Chiefs as QB Mark Sanchez led an 11-play, 77-yard scoring drive, with Sanchez putting the ball in the end zone on a one-yard bootleg.

The Chiefs were forced to punt on their opening possession but then held the Jets to a three-and-out on their next possession as well.

Kansas City took over at the Jets 41-yard line after the punt. Facing fourth-and-four, K Ryan Succop connected on a 53-yard field goal to make the score 7-3 with 4:36 left to play in the first quarter. The field goal marked Succop's 17th-consecutive made field goal to put him fourth all-time in Chiefs history for most consecutive field goals made.

The Jets were moving the ball as Sanchez found FB Josh Baker for 17 yards and then hit TE Dustin Keller for 11 yards on third and five. CB Javier Arenas recorded his fourth-career sack and his first of the season as he dropped Sanchez for a six-yard loss on third-and-five.

The two teams traded punts and on the Chiefs next possession, QB Tyler Palko's third-and-11 pass was intercepted by S Jim Leonhard at the KC 38-yard line.

Sanchez's first-down screen pass to RB Shonn Greene went for 36 yards to the Chiefs two-yard line. Sanchez found WR Santonio Holmes for a four-yard TD to put the Jets up 14-3 with 10:02 left in the first half.

After a Chiefs punt, Sanchez hit Tomlinson out of the backfield for a 31-yard gain on third-and-eight to the Chiefs 13-yard line. It appeared S Reshard Langford forced a fumble on a Greene rush that was recovered by CB Brandon Flowers, but the play was overturned. On the next play, Greene found the end zone from seven yards out to put N.Y. up 21-3 with 3:56 left in the first half.

The Chiefs went three-and-out on the next drive with the Jets sacking Palko for an eight-yard loss on third-and-eight. WR Jeremy Kerley returned the punt 26 yards to the Kansas City 35-yard line.

They Jets wasted little time getting back up on the scoreboard as Tomlinson caught a 19-yard pass from Sanchez and ran into the end zone to push the score to 28-3 with 1:15 left to play in the opening half.

The two teams traded punts to open the second half.

After a Chiefs punt, the Jets took over on their own 10-yard line. The Chiefs were called for five penalties on the drive. New York covered 90 yards in six plays and Sanchez recorded his second rushing touchdown of the day, this time from three yards out, to put the Jets up 35-3 with 4:06 left to play in the third quarter.

The Chiefs put a touchdown on the scoreboard early in the fourth quarter as Palko found WR Jerheme Urban for a 24-yard scoring strike, making the score 35-10 with 12:58 left to play in the game. The scoring drive covered 65 yards on nine plays.

After an unsuccessful onside kick, the Chiefs forced the Jets into fourth-and-four. LB Tamba Hali recorded his ninth sack of the season and stripped Sanchez of the ball. LB Derrick Johnson recovered the fumble at the KC 45-yard line.

After the turnover, Palko hit Battle for 24 yards out of the backfield and then found WR Jonathan Baldwin for 18 yards. Facing fourth-and-10, WR Dwayne Bowe could not come down in the back of the end zone with control of the ball, giving the Jets possession at their own 13.

After a Jets punt was downed at the one, Battle was tackled in the end zone for a safety, making the score 37-10 in favor of the Jets with 3:37 left in the game.

GAME 14

Chiefs 19, Packers 14

December 18, 2011 • Arrowhead Stadium • 74,093

GREEN BAY	0	0	7	7	—	14
KANSAS CITY	6	0	3	10	—	19

Thanks to a gutsy defensive performance against the NFL's best scoring offense and timely offensive conversions, the Kansas City Chiefs defeated the previously unbeaten and defending Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers, 19-14, at Arrowhead.

QB Kyle Orton completed 23 of 31 passes for 299 yards and six ball carriers combined for 139 rushing yards to lead the offense.

The Chiefs took an early 3-0 lead on a 19-yard field goal by K Ryan Succop to cap a 14-play, 69-yard game-opening drive in 6:04.

On the ensuing drive, LB Tamba Hali sacked Green Bay QB Aaron Rodgers and caused a fumble, marking his 10th sack of the season. Hali finished the day with 3.0 sacks, giving him 53.5 for his career, which moved him into fourth place in team history.

Later in the drive, Packers K Mason Crosby missed a 54-yard field goal attempt wide right to keep the score at 3-0 in the Chiefs favor.

Succop added a 32-yard field goal with 0:11 left in the first quarter to increase the lead to 6-0. The scoring drive covered nine plays and 42 yards in 3:58.

The Chiefs later drove down to the Green Bay three-yard line, but were stopped when RB Jackie Battle was held up on fourth down with 3:28 left in the first half.

Both defenses held throughout the second quarter as the score remained 6-0 at halftime.

On the first drive of the second half, LB Derrick Johnson stuffed FB John Kuhn on third-and-one to force a punt.

Green Bay took a 7-6 lead on a two-yard touchdown pass from Rodgers to WR Donald Driver with 8:04 left in the third quarter. The scoring drive lasted six plays and covered 54 yards in 2:21.

On the following drive, Succop connected on his third field goal of the game from 46 yards to regain the lead at 9-7, capping a seven-play, 61-yard drive in 4:19. The big play on the scoring march was a 39-yard pass from Orton to TE Leonard Pope.

As the teams headed to the fourth quarter, the lead remained 9-7, marking the first time in 2011 that the Packers trailed going into the final quarter.

Just 11 seconds into the fourth, the Chiefs defense held on fourth down.

After the Chiefs took over on downs, Orton connected with WR Steve Breaston on a 16-yard pass and FB LeRon McClain rushed for nine yards before Orton found Pope on a 33-yard pass down to the Green Bay three-yard line.

Succop's fourth field goal of the game came from 20 yards out and increased the lead to 12-7. For Succop, it was his 21st-consecutive made field goal, tying for the second-longest streak in franchise history.

On the following possession, the Chiefs defense again held, led by DL Allen Bailey's first career sack and a crucial run stuff for no gain by DE Wallace Gilberry.

Following the punt, Orton led the Chiefs on the game-clinching eight-play, 66-yard touchdown drive in 3:27, culminating with a one-yard scoring plunge by Battle. Breaston began the drive with a 25-yard run and Orton hooked up with WR Dwayne Bowe on a 13-yard pass and found TE Anthony Becht for 16 yards down to the five-yard line.

Rodgers promptly led Green Bay down the field on a nine-play, 80-yard scoring march in 2:49, finishing it off with his own eight-yard touchdown scramble.

After the Packers' onside kick went out of bounds, RBs Thomas Jones and Battle rushed for first downs to run out the clock, marking the first time that Green Bay had lost in nearly a calendar year.

GAME 15

Raiders 16, Chiefs 13 OT

OAKLAND	3	0	7	3	3	—	16
KANSAS CITY	3	0	3	7	0	—	13

In a close AFC West battle, the Kansas City Chiefs fell 16-13 in overtime to the Oakland Raiders at Arrowhead Stadium. K Sebastian Janikowski made a 36-yard field goal in the extra period to give the Raiders the win. The Chiefs had previously tied the game on a touchdown pass from QB Kyle Orton to WR Dwayne Bowe with 1:02 left in regulation.

On the first offensive play of overtime, QB Carson Palmer found WR Darius Heyward-Bey on a 53-yard completion that set up Janikowski's field goal.

Oakland took an early 3-0 lead on a 28-yard field goal by Janikowski. The score was set up by a 91-yard return from CB Bryan McCann on the game's opening kickoff. The Chiefs defense allowed just four yards on the subsequent three plays.

RB Thomas Jones broke free for a 22-yard run before the offense stalled and P Dustin Colquitt booted a 54-yard punt that was downed at the Oakland three-yard line.

On the ensuing possession, LB Derrick Johnson intercepted a Palmer pass and returned it 17 yards to the Oakland 36-yard line. DL Allen Bailey and LB Tamba Hali pressured Palmer on the pass.

K Ryan Succop tied the score at 3-3 with a 23-yard field goal, his 22nd-consecutive made field goal, which tied a franchise record previously set by K Pete Stoyanovich in '97-98. The scoring drive covered nine plays and 31 yards in 4:58.

Janikowski's 58-yard field goal attempt hit the crossbar and bounced back with 6:33 left in the first half, keeping the score tied.

With 2:51 remaining in the second quarter, Orton was intercepted by S Matt Giordano three yards deep in the end zone, and he then returned the pick 62 yards to the Kansas City 41-yard line.

Three plays later, CB Javier Arenas picked off a Palmer pass just before the two-minute warning.

Succop's 49-yard FG attempt on the final play of the first half was blocked, leaving the score deadlocked.

Palmer connected with WR Denarius Moore on a 61-yard touchdown pass with 8:52 left in the third quarter to pull Oakland ahead 10-3. The scoring drive covered seven plays and 79 yards in 3:55.

Succop cut the lead to 10-6 with a 20-yard field goal with 3:30 left in the third quarter. The Chiefs drove 78 yards on nine plays in 5:22. The big play came when Orton found WR Terrance Copper on a 43-yard pass down the middle of the field.

On the first drive of the fourth quarter, Orton was intercepted by Stanford Routt at the Oakland 23-yard line.

The Raiders stopped the Chiefs on fourth-and-1 at the Kansas City 43-yard line to stall a drive with under eight minutes left in the game.

Janikowski increased the lead to 13-6 with a 31-yard field goal with 2:57 left in regulation. The drive lasted eight plays in 30 yards in 4:48.

On the ensuing drive, Orton drove the Chiefs down the field to tie the score at 13-13 with 1:02 left in regulation on a three-yard touchdown pass Bowe, marking Orton's first TD pass as a member of the Chiefs. One play earlier, Orton found RB Dexter McCcluster on a 49-yard screen pass down to the Oakland three-yard line.

Following a three-and-out by the Chiefs defense, Orton completed a 25-yard pass to Bowe and then an 11-yard pass to Copper down to the Raiders 31-yard line, setting up a field goal attempt on the last play of regulation. Succop's 49-yard field goal attempt was then blocked, forcing overtime.

After Palmer connected with Heyward-Bey on the first play of the extra period, RB Michael Bush ran twice before Janikowski came on to score the game's deciding points.

GAME 16

Chiefs 7, Broncos 3

January 1, 2012 • Sports Authority Field at Mile High • 76,005

KANSAS CITY	7	0	0	0	—	7
DENVER	0	0	3	0	—	3

It was a defensive battle at Sports Authority Field at Mile High as the Chiefs topped the Denver Broncos by a final of 7-3 to close out the 2011 campaign.

Both teams opened the game with punts after the offenses stalled. Kansas City moved the ball into Denver territory as QB Kyle Orton found WR Dwayne Bowe for 22 yards to the Denver 30-yard line. Bowe hauled in six receptions for 93 yards in the game to pace all receivers. Kansas City looked to jump on the scoreboard first but K Ryan Succop's 44-yard field goal attempt sailed wide left.

The Chiefs defense again held the Broncos, this time forcing a three-and-out. RB Dexter McCcluster picked up 10 yards and a first down, moving into Denver territory. Facing third-and-seven, McCcluster picked up 16 yards for a first down. On the next play, McCcluster scampered 21 yards to the end zone for his first-career rushing TD, putting the Chiefs up 7-0 with 0:11 left to play in the first quarter.

Denver RB Willis McGahee recorded carries of eight, 11 and 14 yards before QB Tim Tebow found WR Demaryius Thomas for 17 yards at the Kansas City 21-yard line. Two plays later, Tebow carried the ball up the left sideline where S Kendrick Lewis tackled Tebow and dislodged the ball. LB Justin Houston recovered the fumble at the Kansas City 14-yard line.

After the teams traded punts, McGahee gained 19 yards on consecutive rushes and WR Eddie Royal carried the ball 10 yards for a first down. The Chiefs defense tightened up at that point and forced a Broncos punt before time expired in the first half.

Kansas City forced a Denver punt on the opening possession of the second half, but CB Javier Arenas muffed the fair catch and Denver recovered the ball at the Chiefs 20-yard line. Kansas City held Denver on three straight plays. K Matt Prater booted a 38-yard field goal to make the score 7-3 in favor of the Chiefs with 8:11 left to play in the third quarter.

Orton found TE Leonard Pope for 12 yards on third-and-one to give the Chiefs a fresh set of downs, but Kansas City's drive stalled after that. The Chiefs forced another Denver punt on the Broncos ensuing drive.

Denver held Kansas City to a three-and-out on its next possession. As Denver drove the ball into Kansas City territory, DE Wallace Gilberry and Houston combined to sack Tebow for a nine-yard loss, forcing fourth-and-15 and a punt.

Kansas City took over on its own three-yard line after the punt. The Chiefs were unable to pick up a first down. Denver took over on the Chiefs 49-yard line.

The Chiefs forced a Denver three-and-out and took over at their own 11-yard line. Facing third-and-nine, Orton hit WR Jonathan Baldwin for 15 yards to keep the drive moving. Orton hit WR Terrance Copper for 14 yards on first down after a false start penalty. A late hit penalty on Denver moved the Chiefs to the Denver 49-yard line. The Chiefs drive stalled there with P Dustin Colquitt's punt barely rolling into the end zone for a touchback.

On second-and-six, Houston sacked Tebow for a one-yard loss. Denver was forced to punt but Kansas City gave the ball right back after a three-and-out.

Tebow and the Broncos offense took over at their own 16-yard line. A roughing the passer penalty gave Denver 15 yards and an automatic first down. Facing fourth-and-two with 0:19 left in the game, Tebow's pass was intercepted by CB Brandon Carr. Kansas City was able to kneel to run the clock out for the 7-3 AFC West win.

HISTORY

AFL ORIGINS

1958 — Lamar Hunt's efforts to acquire an expansion NFL franchise for his hometown of Dallas were rebuked by the league. However, his desire to secure a professional football franchise was further heightened after watching the historic '58 NFL Championship Game between Baltimore and the N.Y. Giants.

1959 — After another attempt at landing an NFL expansion franchise for Dallas was spurned, NFL officials suggested that Hunt contact the Wolfner family, owners of the Chicago Cardinals franchise. Violet Bidwell Wolfner, mother of current Cardinals owner William Bidwell, and her husband Walter eventually agreed to sell Hunt 20 percent of the Cardinals franchise. Hunt declined the opportunity. He then conceived the concept of forming a second league. "Why wouldn't a second league work?" Hunt recalled. "There was an American and National League in baseball, why not football?" Hunt contacted several other individuals who had expressed interest in the Cardinals franchise — Bud Adams (Houston), Bob Howsam (Denver), Max Winter and Bill Boyer (Minneapolis) — and gauged their interest in forming a second league. Adams quickly signed on and the young league, albeit still very much in its infancy stages, already had its first rivalry.

With four teams in the ranks including Hunt's Dallas franchise, he sought franchises in New York and Los Angeles. Before ownership in those cities was secured, Hunt sought the NFL's blessing for his endeavor, hoping that NFL Commissioner Bert Bell would oversee both leagues. "I told myself I didn't want to go into this if it meant some kind of battle," Hunt remembered. "Of course, this was one of the more naive thoughts in the history of pro sports." Although the NFL wanted no part of Hunt's new league, Hunt gave his blessing for Bell to mention it in the course of his testimony before a Congressional committee on July 28th. "At that point, no one had put up a penny, and I had no commitments from New York or Los Angeles," Hunt continued. "But Bert Bell had announced it. We were in business."

Within weeks, William (Los Angeles) and Harry Wismer (New York) agreed to enter the six-team league. On August 14th, the first meeting of the new league was held in Chicago. Charter memberships were issued to six original cities — Dallas, New York, Houston, Denver, Los Angeles and Minneapolis. The league was officially christened the American Football League on August 22nd. Ralph Wilson (Buffalo) was awarded the league's seventh franchise on October 28th and William Sullivan (Boston) became the league's eighth owner on November 23rd, the date of the inaugural AFL draft, which lasted 33 rounds. All eight original owners agreed to contribute $25,000 and to post a performance bond of $100,000. "Before there was a player, coach or general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," said Sullivan. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL."

In November, the league nearly disbanded before it even played a single game. Winter announced that he was withdrawing from the league to accept an NFL franchise for Minneapolis. The NFL now envisioned an expansion franchise for Dallas, as well, but Hunt declined that offer. "It (the AFL) was so important to me," Hunt said. "I had a lot of money in it, a lot invested in it. Emotionally, I spent a lot of time, effort and energy on it. I felt an obligation. A guy like Billy Sullivan had everything he had in it. It wouldn't have been the right thing to do."

The AFL forged forward as former World War II hero and two-term South Dakota governor Joe Foss was named commissioner on November 30th. A second, 20-round AFL draft was held on December 2nd. Hunt pursued both legendary University of Oklahoma coach Bud Wilkinson and N.Y. Giants defensive assistant Tom Landry to lead his Texans franchise. Wilkinson opted to stay at Oklahoma, while Landry was destined to coach the NFL's franchise in Dallas. Hunt settled on a relatively unknown assistant coach from the University of Miami (Florida), Hank Stram. "One of the biggest reasons I hired Hank was that he really wanted the job," Hunt explained. "It turned out to be a very lucky selection on my part."

THE FOOLISH CLUB

The whole idea of the AFL seemed so far-fetched, the eight team owners were whimsically named "The Foolish Club." Lamar Hunt credited Wayne Valley of the Oakland ownership group for coining that moniker. "I was an amateur photographer and had taken some color pictures of the '64 season," Hunt explained. "I sent out a montage as Christmas gifts one year. At the top was the hand-lettered phrase, The Foolish Club." Both the name and the league would stick.

1960 — Hunt was elected President of the AFL on January 26th. Minneapolis officially withdrew from the AFL on January 27th. An ownership group from Dallas was awarded an expansion NFL franchise on January 28th to begin play that season in direct competition with the Texans. That same day, AFL owners approved the two-point conversion rule which was utilized for the AFL's 10-year existence, a rule that wouldn't resurface in the NFL for 34 more years. On January 30th, Oakland replaced Minneapolis as the eighth AFL outpost. In another ironic twist, the Chicago Cardinals franchise, which Hunt had attempted to purchase a year earlier, received permission from the NFL to transfer to St. Louis on March 13th. Perhaps the most important moment in the AFL's formative years came on June 9th when the league signed a five-year television contract with ABC that paid each club $112,000 during the '60 season.

The Texans set up offices in the Mercantile Securities Building, while Foss headquartered the AFL offices out of Dallas, as well. The Texans shared the Cotton Bowl for three seasons with the NFL's Cowboys. Reserved seats were $4, general admission $2 and high school students paid $.90 that initial season. Don Rossi served as the team's General Manager until November when he was succeeded by Jack Steadman. The Texans conducted their inaugural training camp at the New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell, N.M. The club embarked on a whirlwind preseason barnstorming tour that featured road games in Oakland, Tulsa, Boston, Abilene and Little Rock. An announced crowd of 51,000 at the Cotton Bowl witnessed a 24-3 victory vs. Houston (9/2) as the club concluded a perfect 6-0 preseason record.

The initial regular season victory in team history came by a 34-16 count at Oakland (9/16) thanks to 88 rushing yards, a TD and two FGs from FB Jack Spikes (TCU). In addition to Spikes, the Texans also had a strong home-state identity with QB Cotton Davidson (Baylor), LB Sherrill Headrick (TCU) and RB Abner Haynes (North Texas State). Haynes led the league with 875 rushing yards and nine TDs, as well as combined net yards (2,100) and punt return average (15.4). Haynes' combined net yardage mark remained a franchise record until 2001. Thanks to Haynes, the Texans had a flashy, high-scoring club, which finished the year at 8-6 as three close losses kept the squad from challenging for the division title. The Texans averaged 24,500 for their home games, the highest average in the league.

1961 — Don Klosterman joined the franchise as Director of Player Personnel and a wealth of college talent was infused into the franchise's veins. The Texans and the NFL's Dallas Cowboys both drafted LB E.J. Holub (Texas Tech), described by many scouts as "the best football player in America." Holub decided to play for the Texans, joining three future Chiefs Hall of Famers — DT/DE Jerry Mays (SMU), TE Fred Arbanas (Michigan State) and T Jim Tyrer (Ohio State) — as part of the club's draft class. The club moved its training camp to Hunt's alma mater of SMU and started the regular season at 3-1 before hitting a six-game losing skid, the longest such streak of Stram's tenure with the franchise. One of those losses was a 28-21 decision in a Friday night contest at Boston (11/3) which featured a bizarre ending as a raincoat-clad fan knocked down a potential game-tying TD from Davidson to E Chris Burford on the game's final play. The team rebounded to claim wins in three of its final four contests to finish 6-8, marking the club's second straight finish behind the Chargers in the AFL West standings.

1962 — Stram was named Coach of the Year and RB Curtis McClinton (Kansas) was named the '62 AFL Rookie of the Year. Haynes became the franchise's first 1,000-yard rusher, concluding the season with 1,049 yards and an AFL-high 13 rushing TDs.

The Texans clinched their initial AFL Western Division Championship in November and finished with an 11-3 regular season record. Dallas won the '62 AFL Championship when K Tommy Brooker connected on a 25-yard field goal during the second overtime of the title game, giving the Texans a 20-17 victory at Houston (12/23). Spanning an elapsed time of 77:54, the game still stands as the second-longest contest in pro football history as the franchise claimed its first of three AFL titles.

LENNY THE COOL

A pivotal moment in franchise history took place on July 2, 1962 when Hank Stram signed free agent QB Len Dawson. Dawson entered the NFL as a first-round draft pick of Pittsburgh in '57, but was waived by Cleveland on June 12th. After spending five uneventful years in the NFL with the Steelers and Browns, Dawson received his final shot at pro football redemption from Stram. Convinced that Dawson was the man to lead the franchise on the field, the only trade personally orchestrated by Lamar Hunt in team history occurred after the season's first game when the Chiefs sent QB Cotton Davidson to Oakland in exchange for the Raiders first-round pick in '63, a pick that was used to select Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan with the first overall selection. As for Dawson, he didn't disappoint in '62, throwing 29 TD passes to earn AFL Player of the Year honors.

GOIN' TO KANSAS CITY

1963—Despite the Texans championship season in '62, the Dallas market simply could not sustain two professional football franchises. Kansas City Mayor H. Roe Bartle learned of Hunt's interest in a new home for the Texans and extended an invitation for Hunt and Jack Steadman to move the franchise to Mid-America. After the duo visited Kansas City on an incognito basis, an ambitious campaign took shape to deliver on Bartle's guarantee to Hunt of tripling the season-ticket base the Texans had enjoyed in Dallas. Kansas City's mayor, nicknamed "The Chief," also promised to add 3,000 permanent seats to Municipal Stadium, as well as 11,000 temporary bleacher seats. Along with Bartle, a number of other prominent Kansas Citians stepped forward to aid in the efforts, putting together more than 1,000 workers to sell season tickets. On May 22nd, Hunt announced he was moving the franchise to Kansas City. Hunt and Stram jested at one point about calling the relocated team the Kansas City Texans, but thanks to the insistence of Steadman and a "name-the-team" contest, the Chiefs were officially christened on May 26th, in part to honor the efforts of Bartle. During their inaugural season in Kansas City, the Chiefs charged $7 for box seats and $6 for reserved seats at Municipal Stadium.

Stram

Three highly-touted draft choices began their tenures with the club in '63. Hunt's trade of Davidson landed the number one overall selection in the AFL Draft, which Kansas City used to select Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan (Grambling). Ironically, the Raiders would later draft Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw in '67 for the express purpose of blocking Buchanan. The Chiefs tabbed G Ed Budde (Michigan State) with their own number one selection, while stealing another future Hall of Fame inductee, LB Bobby Bell (Minnesota) in the seventh round. Buchanan, Budde and Bell all became starters on their way to a combined 526 games with the team. The first appearance of the Chiefs in Municipal Stadium attracted just 5,721 fans for a 17-13 preseason victory vs. Buffalo (8/9). Tragedy struck the club when rookie RB Stone Johnson (Grambling), who was a sprinter in the '60 Olympics in Rome, suffered a fractured vertebra in his neck in a preseason game vs. Houston (8/30) in Wichita, Kan. He died 10 days later on September 8th and his jersey number 33 was subsequently retired. Kansas City opened the regular season with a 59-7 victory at Denver (9/7), a contest that remains the highest-scoring effort in team history. On October 1st, the club moved into its new Swope Park practice facility on East 63rd Street, where the team's headquarters remained until the opening of Arrowhead Stadium in '72. The Chiefs managed just one win and two ties in their next nine games before racking up three consecutive wins to close the year at 5-7-2.

BIDDING WARS, MERGER TALKS & GLORY DAYS

1965 — The AFL and NFL had been openly competing for talent for years, but that bidding war for players heated up for the Chiefs in '65. Kansas City made RB Gale Sayers (Kansas) their first-round draft pick, but Sayers eventually signed with the Chicago Bears.

The club suffered a devastating blow when RB Mack Lee Hill suffered torn ligaments in his right knee in the next-to-last regular season game of the year at Buffalo (12/12). Following what was expected to be a routine surgery on December 14th at Menorah Hospital in Kansas City, Hill died from what was termed "a sudden and massive embolism." Hunt called Hill's death "the worst shock possible." Beginning the following year, the club annually bestowed the Mack Lee Hill Award on its top rookie or first-year performer in honor of this fallen young star. Just days after Hill's unexpected death, the mourning Chiefs defeated Denver (12/19) to finish the year with a 7-5-2 record.

1966 — The escalation in player salaries paid by the two leagues eventually led to a series of clandestine meetings between Hunt and Tex Schramm of the Cowboys that began in April at Love Field in Dallas. While merger groundwork was being laid, the Chiefs engaged in more subterfuge during the '66 draft. DE Aaron Brown (Minnesota) was highly coveted by many clubs, including the NFL's Steelers. The Steelers couldn't locate Brown on draft day since he was already aboard a flight with Hunt, who carried out the first mid-air signing in team history. Despite being drafted in the 20th round of the AFL Draft, the Chiefs signed Heisman Trophy RB Mike Garrett (USC) who earned AFL Rookie of the Year honors. Plans for the AFL-NFL merger were officially announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle on June 8th. The Chiefs started the season at 3-0, including a 32-10 win at Oakland (9/18) in the first contest played at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. A crowd of 43,885 attended the Chiefs home opener vs. defending AFC Champion Buffalo (10/2), the largest ever to witness a sports event in Kansas City at the time. The Chiefs dropped a 29-14 decision to the Bills, but after the contest, Stram and Buffalo Head Coach Joe Collier negotiated a trade in the middle of the field. Kansas City got K Mike Mercer for a fifth-round pick, solidifying one of the few weaknesses on the squad. Dawson led the league in passing, while

THE OTIS ACQUISITION

One of the more colorful tales in franchise lore transpired days before the '65 draft. The Cowboys had WR Otis Taylor (Prairie View A&M) sequestered at the Continental Hotel in Dallas. Chiefs scout Lloyd Wells, who was instrumental in the signing of many key players during the '60s, thought he had Taylor's services secured for the Chiefs when he learned of the Cowboys chicanery. After ascertaining the receiver's location from Taylor's mother, Wells posed as a reporter from Ebony magazine and slipped his phone number to Taylor unbeknownst to a Cowboys "bodyguard" watching Taylor's hotel door. At 3:00 AM one of the greatest "escapes" in franchise history was consummated as the receiver climbed out a bathroom window and into an awaiting Cadillac. Taylor and Wells boarded a flight for Kansas City later that morning and Taylor, with a shiny new vehicle in his possession, was subsequently drafted by the Chiefs in the fourth round, beginning an illustrious Kansas City career.

Taylor became the first 1,000-yard receiver in franchise history, registering 1,297 yards. The Chiefs finished three games in front of Oakland to claim an AFL West title with an 11-2-1 record, setting the stage for the franchise's second trip to the AFL Championship Game.

1964 — On January 29th, the AFL and NBC signed a landmark five-year, $36-million television contract beginning with the '65 season. The Chiefs began the year with a 2-1 mark before dropping three consecutive games as several of the team's best players, including LB E.J. Holub, TE Fred Arbanas and S Johnny Robinson, missed numerous games with injuries. Arbanas missed the final two games of the year after undergoing surgery to his left eye, in which he suffered almost total loss of vision. RB Mack Lee Hill (Southern), who signed with the club as a rookie free agent and received a $300 signing bonus, muscled his way into the starting lineup and earned a spot in the AFL All-Star Game. The club finished the season with two consecutive wins to close the season at 7-7, finishing second in the AFL West behind San Diego (8-5-1). An average of 18,126 fans attended each home game at Municipal Stadium, prompting talks at the AFL owners' meeting about the future of the franchise in Kansas City.

1967 — Using a dazzling I-formation offense and a smothering defense, the Chiefs claimed a dominating 31-7 victory in the AFL title game at Buffalo (1/1) on the same day that future Chiefs star Derrick Vincent Thomas was born in Miami, Fla. That victory propelled Kansas City to the first AFL-NFL World Championship Game, later renamed Super Bowl I. The term "Super Bowl" was coined by Hunt during a committee meeting, inspired by a "Super Ball" owned by each of his three children. Although not officially adopted until the third such AFL-NFL World Championship Game, the name Super Bowl was seized upon by the media and quickly became a part of the worldwide sports lexicon. At the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the Chiefs met Vince Lombardi's powerful Green Bay Packers (1/15). The Chiefs played the Packers close for a half, trailing 14-10, but Green Bay took control in the final two quarters, winning the game by a score of 35-10.

The club's special teams got a boost with the addition of K Jan Stenerud (Montana State), who originally enrolled in school on a skiing scholarship, and KR Noland "Super Gnat" Smith (Tennessee State). Interest in the team skyrocketed, forcing an increase in seating capacity at Municipal Stadium from 40,000 to 47,000. In June, Jackson County voters approved a $43 million bond issue for construction of The Truman Sports Complex. The first contest between AFL and NFL teams in Kansas City resulted in a commanding 66-24 Chiefs victory vs. Chicago at Municipal Stadium (8/23). Injuries again hit the club hard during the regular season as the Chiefs clawed their way to a 9-5 record.

1968 — A debate raged in Kansas City whether the club's new stadium should be built downtown or at a "remote" location. A location in Eastern Jackson County was chosen as the site and groundbreaking ceremonies took place in July with plans calling for a unique "rolling roof" design. The '68 Chiefs boasted one of the finest defenses ever assembled by the club, allowing a franchise-low 170 points (12.1 ppg). The nucleus of the defensive unit was clearly in its prime, producing six AFL All-Stars, including all three of the squad's linebackers. Offensively, Dawson led the AFL in passing for the fourth time. The Chiefs began the season with a 7-1 record and rattled off five straight victories to close the regular season at 12-2, sharing the AFL West crown with the Raiders and setting up an AFL Western Division Playoff Game. Kansas City lost a 41-6 decision at Oakland (12/22) in the club's first postseason outing since Super Bowl I as the Raiders advanced to the AFL Championship Game against the N.Y. Jets.

1969 — The Chiefs continued the momentum they built during the '68 campaign by posting a perfect 6-0 record during preseason play. Kansas City began the regular season with four consecutive road games for the only time in team history. After a decisive 27-9 win at San Diego (9/14), the club posted a 31-0 shutout at Boston (9/21), but Dawson sustained a knee injury against the Patriots. The once-optimistic picture for the Chiefs went from bad to worse the following week when backup QB Jacky Lee went down with a broken ankle in a 24-19 loss at Cincinnati (9/28). That injury left the team's most crucial position in the hands of second-year QB Mike Livingston, who took just five snaps as a rookie in '68. However, Livingston engineered a five-game winning streak, while getting plenty of help from the club's defense. The team's home opener at Municipal Stadium was played in a daylong deluge referred to as a "frog-strangler" by Chiefs radio broadcaster Bill Grigsby. The Chiefs and Oilers combined for 14 fumbles in a 24-0 Kansas City victory (10/12). Dawson returned to the starting lineup in a 27-3 win vs. San Diego (11/9) and guided the club to three wins in the season's next four games. Broncos coach Lou Saban was infuriated following the Chiefs 31-17 win vs. Denver (11/27). Trailing 24-17 late in the game, Denver attempted an onside kick that was recovered by LB Bobby Bell, who promptly returned that kick for a 53-yard TD. Livingston started the following week vs. Buffalo (12/7) for an again-injured Dawson, who returned for the regular season finale at Oakland (12/13). A 10-6 loss vs. the Raiders gave the Chiefs an 11-3 record, good for second in the division behind Oakland (12-1-1). In an AFC Divisional Playoff Game at the N.Y.

LEGENDARY LINEBACKERS

The Chiefs found a pair of linebacking gems in the second round of the '67 draft in #51 Jim Lynch (Notre Dame) and #63 Willie Lanier (Morgan State). That duo joined #78 Bobby Bell to form one of the most legendary linebacker trios in pro football annals.

Jets (12/20), Kansas City rode its dominating defense which produced a crucial goal-line stand en route to a 13-6 win over the defending Super Bowl champions to set up a rematch with the Raiders in the final AFL Championship Game.

1970 — In the final game in AFL history, the Chiefs became the league's only three-time champions, defeating the Raiders by a 17-7 count at Oakland (1/4). Making the

THREE-TIME AFL CHAMPIONS

With a 17-7 win over the Oakland Raiders in the '69 AFL Championship Game, Kansas City became the only team in AFL history to claim three league titles. The club also won AFL Championships in '62 and in '66. During the AFL's 10-year existence, the Chiefs compiled a league-best 87-48-5 (.639) regular season record under head coach Hank Stram.

Hunt and Stram

victory even more satisfying for the Chiefs was the fact that the Raiders players had to sheepishly walk out of the stadium with the luggage they had packed for New Orleans and Super Bowl IV. During the days preceding Kansas City's clash with the heavily-favored Vikings, unsubstantiated media reports associating Dawson with a known gambler hounded the Chiefs quarterback. The night before the game, Ed Sabol of NFL Films approached Vikings coach Bud Grant about being miked for the game. Grant declined, but Stram accepted. As both the Chiefs and the cameras rolled, Stram clamored for his team to run "65 toss power trap" and to "keep matriculating the ball down the field." The Chiefs used the game as a crusade for the American Football League and wore "AFL-10" patches which referred to the league's 10-year existence. The Chiefs used three Stenerud FGs and a Garrett TD run to take a 16-0 halftime lead. A dynamic 46-yard TD pass from Dawson to Taylor in the third quarter sealed the victory as Dawson was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Perhaps the grittiest performance of the day came from S Johnny Robinson, who registered two interceptions and a fumble recovery despite playing with three broken ribs. At approximately 5:20 p.m., the final seconds ticked off the clock at Tulane Stadium as the biggest moment in Kansas City sports history came to a peak as the Chiefs were crowned World Champions by claiming a 23-7 victory in Super Bowl IV (1/11). A victory parade ensued upon the club's triumphant return to Kansas City the following day.

Replicating the success of '69 proved a difficult task for Stram and company. RB Mike Garrett, who was the club's all-time leading rusher at the time, was traded to San Diego and replaced in the lineup by RB Ed Podolak. Despite a 44-24 win at Baltimore (9/28) in just the second-ever telecast of ABC's Monday Night Football package, the Chiefs owned a 3-3-1 record at the season's midpoint. One of the season's pivotal junctures came in a 17-17 tie vs. Oakland (11/1). The Chiefs were ahead 17-14 when Dawson apparently sealed the win, running for a first down which would have allowed Kansas City to run out the clock. While on the ground, Dawson was speared by Raiders DE Ben Davidson in an infamous incident that cost the Chiefs a victory and further inflamed the already heated Chiefs-Raiders rivalry. WR Otis Taylor retaliated and a bench-clearing brawl ensued. Offsetting penalties were called, nullifying Dawson's first down. The Chiefs were forced to punt and Raiders K George Blanda eventually booted a game-tying FG with 0:08 remaining. That tie ultimately cost the Chiefs a tie with Oakland for the division crown as Kansas City finished the year with a 7-5-2 record, while the Raiders went 8-4-2.

1971 — The '71 Chiefs were regarded by many as the finest squad ever assembled by the franchise, including Lamar Hunt. "I always thought that was the peak of our best team, our '71 squad," Hunt recalled. The '71 Chiefs fielded perhaps the most complete squad in franchise history, featuring a team-record 11 Pro Bowl performers. Offensively, WR Otis Taylor led the league with 1,110 receiving yards. The longstanding linebacking trio of Willie Lanier, Bobby Bell and Jim Lynch was the league's best. The offensive line was headlined by G Ed Budde and T Jim Tyrer, while the defensive front featured a pair of Pro Bowlers in DTs Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp. Both K Jan Stenerud and P Jerrel Wilson represented the squad in the Pro Bowl, as well. The '71 squad became the first in team annals to register two Monday Night Football wins. After bolting to a 5-1-1 start, the club went 5-2 during the second half of the season to finish the year at 10-3-1. A 16-14 home victory vs. Oakland (12/12) gave the franchise its initial AFC West title.

The great promise of the '71 campaign ended dramatically in the longest game in NFL history, an AFC Divisional Playoff Game played on Christmas Day. It took 82:40, but a 37-yard FG from Dolphins K Garo Yepremian finally ended the game as Miami claimed a 27-24 double OT win in the final football contest played at Municipal Stadium. Podolak accounted for an incredible 350 combined net yards, a figure that remains an NFL postseason record. The baton of power in the AFC was officially passed to the Dolphins, who went on to appear in three consecutive Super Bowls. It would be the Chiefs last playoff appearance for 15 years, effectively signaling the conclusion of the franchise's original glory days.

FOND FAREWELLS

1972 — The last original member of the '60 Dallas Texans departed on July 12th when S Johnny Robinson announced his retirement at training camp. Meanwhile, QB Len Dawson ended speculation about his retirement by signing a two-year contract. Hunt became the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29th.

ARROWHEAD OPENS

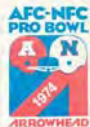

After two different construction strikes and a myriad of other delays, Arrowhead Stadium was officially dedicated on August 12, 1972 when the Chiefs registered a 24-14 victory vs. the St. Louis Cardinals. RB Ed Podolak scored the first TD in the facility. "It was supposed to be finished on July 1st and it wasn't even close," recalled Jack Steadman. In fact, seats weren't even installed yet in some areas of the stadium, including Hunt's private suite, where guests sat on folding chairs that inaugural year. Regular season ticket prices for the team's first season in Arrowhead were $8 for box seats and $7 for reserved seating. Mayor H. Roe Bartle is shown at right trying out the first seat installed in Arrowhead.

The Chiefs lost a 20-10 decision vs. Miami (9/17) on Opening Day at Arrowhead in front of a crowd of 79,829. Municipal Stadium hosted its final pro sporting event as the Royals defeated the Rangers by a 4-0 count (10/4). A standing-room-only crowd of 82,094 fans was in attendance for a 27-14 victory vs. Oakland (11/5), the largest "in-house" attendance total for an NFL contest in Arrowhead's history. After a 5-3 start, a three-game losing streak effectively eliminated the club from playoff contention. An 8-6 record was good enough for only a second-place finish in the AFC West behind Oakland. LB Willie Lanier became the first Chiefs player to receive the prestigious NFL Man of the Year Award.

1973 — The defense kept the club in virtually every game thanks to a nucleus that still included the bulk of the squad's Super Bowl IV starters. QB Mike Livingston started in a 23-13 Opening Day loss vs. Los Angeles (9/16), but Dawson returned to rally the club for three consecutive wins to get the club off to a 3-1 start for a third straight year. Inconsistency and injuries took their toll down the stretch, though. Dawson made his final start of the year in a 23-14 loss at Buffalo (10/29) and was replaced for the remainder of the year by Livingston, beginning a string of three straight seasons in which both players split time at the position. Livingston led the club to three straight wins, putting the team in first place in mid-November with a 6-3-1 record. A 1-2-1 ledger over the season's final month ended the club's postseason aspirations as the team finished the year in a second-place tie with Denver at 7-5-2. Dawson became the second Chiefs player in as many years to win the NFL Man of the Year Award.

1974 — The AFC-NFC Pro Bowl was held at Arrowhead on January 20th with the AFC claiming a 15-13 win thanks to five FGs from Miami K Garo Yepremian. While the club's sparkling new facility was drawing rave reviews, the Chiefs roster was beginning to show its age. The result was the team's first losing season in 11 years as the club was unable to string together consecutive victories during the year, a first in Chiefs franchise history. Many of the club's key players were entering the twilight of their careers: Dawson was 39, T Jim Tyrer was 35, LB Bobby Bell, DT Buck Buchanan and G Ed Budde were 34, T Dave Hill was 33 and WR Otis Taylor was 32. One of the year's few bright spots in the 5-9 season was CB Emmitt Thomas, who led the league with a franchise-record 12 INTs. The final game of the '74 campaign marked the final time all six of Kansas City's Pro Football Hall of Fame players from the club's Super Bowl era took the field together with Stram. Including Lamar Hunt and five future Vikings Hall of Famers, an amazing total of 13 Hall of Fame inductees were involved in that '74 game. That 35-15 loss vs. Minnesota (12/14) provided an anti-climatic conclusion to Stram's illustrious coaching career in Kansas City and was also the final game in a Chiefs uniform for eight-time All-Pro LB Bobby Bell. Three days later, the only head coach in franchise history was relieved of his duties on December 27th after compiling a 124-76-10 regular season record with the club.

1975 — San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator Paul Wiggin was named the second head coach in franchise history on January 23rd. A former Pro Bowl defensive end for the Cleveland Browns, Wiggin inherited the unenviable task of rebuilding a squad whose pool of talent had been largely depleted due to age and a number of ill-fated trades that had left the club devoid of first-round draft choices in '73 and '75. After an 0-3 start to the season, Wiggin directed the Chiefs to three straight wins, beginning with a convincing 42-10 victory vs. Oakland (10/12). The highlight of the season was a 34-31 upset win at Dallas (11/10) on Monday Night Football. But the club could not maintain that success. Owning a 5-5 record heading into the homestretch of the season, injuries to a number of key players crippled the team. The team dropped its final four contests of the year to finish at 5-9 for the second consecutive season. The regular season finale at Oakland (12/21) marked the final games in the Hall of Fame careers of Dawson and Buchanan.

1976 — Buck Buchanan officially hung up his spikes in February, while Dawson announced his retirement on May 1st. Off the field, Jack Steadman was promoted to President and Jim Schaaf was named General Manager in August. On the field, Kansas City's fortunes didn't improve in the second year of the Wiggin regime. The club dropped three straight home games before suffering a 50-17 setback at Buffalo (10/3), opening the season at 0-4 for the first time in team history. The team registered a 3-1 record during a successful midseason stretch but could not maintain that momentum. After lingering in Dawson's shadow for eight seasons, QB Mike Livingston was firmly entrenched as the team's starter, becoming the first signal-caller to start every regular season game since Dawson in '68. Even though he played well and rallied the squad for wins in two of the season's final three games, the Chiefs still ended the year with their third consecutive 5-9 record. RB Ed Podolak surpassed RB Abner Haynes as the all-time leading ground gainer in team history in the final game of the year vs. Cleveland (12/12). RB MacArthur Lane was another offensive threat, becoming the first player in franchise history to lead the league in receptions (66). One of the club's final ties to its glory days was severed when the dismantling of Municipal Stadium began on April 13th. A portion of the site was later developed into a community garden.

1977 — On the field, the Chiefs suffered their worst season to date, winning just twice and undergoing a midseason coaching change. An 0-5 start doomed the squad with a 44-7 loss at Cleveland (10/30) effectively sealing Wiggin's fate. Despite the club's record Wiggin was still a popular figure in Kansas City, but was nonetheless relieved of his duties on Halloween, marking the first in-season coaching switch in team history. Wiggin concluded his tenure with an 11-24 record. Defensive backs coach Tom Bettis was named interim coach and claimed a 20-10 victory vs. Green Bay (11/6) in the club's initial contest under his direction, but it was the only victory of his brief head coaching tenure. The team endured a six-game losing streak to conclude the season at 2-12. Bettis and the remainder of the coaching staff assembled by Wiggin were released on December 19th one day after a 21-20 loss at Oakland (12/18) in the regular season finale. Marv Levy, the former head coach of the CFL's Montreal Alouettes, was named the fourth head coach in franchise history on December 20th. The heart and soul of the Chiefs once-vaunted defense departed when roommates Lanier and Lynch, who both joined the club together as second-round draft picks in '67, retired following the '77 campaign. Baltimore later acquired Lanier's rights in a trade, but failed to lure him out of retirement.

THE LEVY ERA

1978 — Levy's systematic restocking of a relatively barren defensive roster began with a '78 draft class that included a pair of future Chiefs Hall of Fame enshrines in DE Art Still (Kentucky) and LB Gary Spani (Kansas State). Another tie to the club's Super Bowl IV team was cut when RB Ed Podolak, who was the club's all-time leading rusher at the time, retired on June 15th. Perhaps Levy's most unconventional tactic in rebuilding the Chiefs was installing the Wing-T offense. "It was a situation where we took over a team that had the worst defensive record in the history of the National Football League," he later explained. "We wanted to keep that defense off the field, so we ran the ball 60 times a game." The '78 Chiefs ran and ran often, posting franchise records with 663 rushing attempts and 2,986 ground yards. Levy's squad ran the ball a staggering 69 times in a 24-23 Opening Day win at Cincinnati (9/3), the most rushing attempts in an NFL contest since '48.

Five different players had 100-yard rushing games during the year, including RB Tony Reed who finished the season with 1,053 yards to become the team's first 1,000-yard back since '67. Despite the squad's Opening Day success, the club lost 10 of its next 11 games, including a pair of OT decisions. However, the team showed signs of improvement with the defense recording a 23-0 shutout vs. San Diego (11/26) as the club concluded its first 16-game schedule with a 4-12 mark.

"GIVE A CHEER FOR KANSAS CITY"

by Marv Levy

*Give a cheer for Kansas City,
Loud and clear for the Red and Gold,
As the Chiefs march on to victory
Like our mighty teams of old.*

(Refrain)

*Rah, Rah, Rah, for Kansas City
Rah, Rah, Rah for Red and Gold
As the Chiefs march on to victory
Like our mighty teams of old*

*Beat the drum, here they come
Warriors, brave and strong.
In the stands, loyal fans
Cheer our team along*

1979 — Kansas City owned a pair of picks in the first round of the draft, selecting DE Mike Bell (Colorado State) and QB Steve Fuller (Clemson). By the season's third game, Fuller had supplanted QB Mike Livingston as the club's starter. With Fuller at the helm, the Chiefs owned a 4-2 record after six games, but a five-game midseason losing stretch sullied that effort. Despite finishing fifth in the AFC West for a second straight season, Kansas City's 7-9 record was a notable accomplishment considering the fact that the division's other four clubs all posted winning records for a second consecutive season. The Chiefs lost a 3-0 decision at Tampa Bay (12/16) in one of the most water-logged contests in franchise annals. As both clubs struggled to move the ball under monsoon-like conditions, a late fourth-quarter FG by the Buccaneers averted the NFL's first scoreless tie since '43.

1980 — An infusion of new talent continued at Arrowhead. G Brad Budde (USC), the son of Chiefs Hall of Fame G Ed Budde, was selected as the club's first-round draft choice, making the Buddes the first father-son combination to become first-round draftees of the same team in NFL history. In a then-controversial move on August 26th, the Chiefs released K Jan Stenerud, who at the time was the club's all-time leading scorer. He was replaced by journeyman K Nick Lowery, who had been cut 11 times by eight different teams himself. He finished his career with the club in '93 as the franchise's all-time leading scorer with 1,466 points. After enduring an 0-4 start, the club rebounded to post a four-game victory streak. After Fuller was sidelined with a knee injury late in the season, former Miami 12th-round draft choice QB Bill Kenney entered the lineup. He was so anonymous that when he appeared in that contest, the name on the back of his jersey was inadvertently misspelled "Kenney." Kenney went on to lead the club to a 31-14 victory vs. Denver (12/7) in his initial NFL start. The defense continued to evolve as DE Art Still and S Gary Barbaro became the first Chiefs defensive players to be elected to the Pro Bowl in five seasons. The Chiefs finished the year at 8-8, the club's highest victory tally since '72.

1981 — Kenney supplanted Fuller as the club's starting quarterback and directed the Chiefs to a 6-2 start, including a 37-33 win over the defending Super Bowl champion Steelers at Pittsburgh (9/6) on Opening Day. Second-round draft choice RB Joe Delaney (NW Louisiana) electrified the club's offense by rushing for 1,121 yards, a team single-season record at the time. He was named the AFC's Rookie of the Year and became the first running back to represent the franchise in the Pro Bowl. Delaney registered a 193-yard performance in a 23-10 win vs. Houston (11/15), the best single-game total ever amassed by a Kansas City rookie. "I've played against the best — O.J. Simpson, Gale Sayers, Walter Payton and (Delaney) ranks right up there with them," remarked Oilers Hall of Fame DE Elvin Bethea. "He is great with a capital 'G.'" Owning an 8-4 record with four games remaining, the Chiefs were poised to make the playoffs for the first time in 10 years before hitting a three-game losing skid. Kenney missed the club's final three contests due to injury. Fuller guided the club to a 10-6 win at Minnesota (12/20) in the final contest played at Metropolitan Stadium as Vikings fans began dismembering the stadium in the second half, taking seats, pieces of the scoreboard and even chunks of sod as souvenirs.

The victory assured the Chiefs of a 9-7 record, the club's first winning mark since '73 as Levy increased the club's victory total for a third consecutive year. Inspired by Washington's "Hail to the Redskins," Levy penned a fight song for the Chiefs, but much like the Wing-T offense, the concept never really caught on.

1982 — RB Joe Delaney underwent surgery in May to repair a detached retina in his eye, a radical procedure at the time. Optimism abounded at Arrowhead thanks to the club's promising 9-7 record from '81, but swelling labor unrest spelled doom for both the Chiefs and Levy in '82. The Chiefs split their first two games of the year before a 57-day strike by the NFL Players Association began at midnight on September 20th. The strike concluded on November 17th after six games were cancelled and one was rescheduled, but the Chiefs would never recover, dropping four straight games after their return to the field. C Jack Rudnay, who had been one of the franchise's most durable and decorated offensive performers over the past decade, announced on December 20th that the '82 campaign would be his last. Despite wins in two of the season's final three games, the Levy era concluded as the club finished the strike-shortened campaign at 3-6.

TRAGEDY, TRIUMPHS AND TRANSITIONS

1983 — Marv Levy was released as the club's head coach on January 4th. Dallas Cowboys QBs coach John Mackovic was named the fifth head coach in Kansas City history on February 2nd. The 39-year-old Mackovic became the youngest individual ever to hold that post for the club. The Chiefs held the seventh overall pick in the quarterback-laden '83 NFL Draft and selected QB Todd Blackledge (Penn State). The five other signal-callers selected in the first round that year included John Elway (1st — Baltimore), Jim Kelly (Buffalo — 14th), Tony Eason (New England — 15th), Ken O'Brien (N.Y. Jets — 24th) and Dan Marino (Miami — 27th). LB Bobby Bell became the first Chiefs player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 30th, providing some solace to the franchise which was still mourning the death of RB Joe Delaney.

With Kenney and Blackledge both on the roster, QB Steve Fuller was traded to the L.A. Rams on August 19th. Kenney earned a Pro Bowl berth after racking up a franchise-record 4,348 passing yards, while WR Carlos Carson hauled in 80 passes for 1,351 yards. Despite the team's high-flying aerial game, Mackovic had trouble finding a suitable replacement for Delaney on the ground. The highest scoring contest in franchise history took place as the Chiefs and Seahawks combined for 99 points in a wild, 51-48 OT loss at Seattle (11/27). A meager crowd of 11,377 attended the club's season-ending 48-17 win vs. Denver (12/18), the smallest attendance ever for a Chiefs game at Arrowhead as the club finished at 6-10.

JOE DELANEY (1958-1983)

Tragedy struck the club on June 29, 1983 when Delaney drowned trying to save the lives of three youngsters in Monroe, Louisiana. An overflow crowd that included the Hunt family, prominent members of the Chiefs administration and head coach John Mackovic attended a memorial service held in Delaney's high school gymnasium in Haughton, Louisiana on July 4th. Delaney was posthumously awarded the Presidential Citizen's Medal by Ronald Reagan on July 13th.

1985 — The Chiefs got off to a flying start with a 47-27 win at New Orleans (9/8), while Cherry tied an NFL record by registering four interceptions in a 28-7 win vs. Seattle (9/29) as the club boasted a 3-1 record four games into the season. The club was then confronted with a seven-game losing streak that was not snapped until Blackledge was installed as the starter vs. Indianapolis (11/24). The team rebounded to win three of its final five contests of the season with Blackledge under center, further inflaming a quarterback controversy that continued into the '86 campaign. One of the few remaining bright spots in a disappointing 6-10 season came in the regular season finale vs. San Diego (12/22) when WR Stephone Paige set an NFL record with 309 receiving yards in a 38-34 win, breaking the previous mark of 303 yards set by Jim Benton (Cleveland) in '45. Paige's mark was subsequently surpassed by a 336-yard effort by WR Willie Anderson (L.A. Rams) in '89.

1984 — Wayne Rudy, the only head trainer the team had ever known, retired and passed the reins to his assistant Dave Kendall in February. Pro Bowl S Gary Barbaro became the most notable Chiefs player to defect to the rival USFL, signing with the New Jersey Generals on February 2nd after sitting out the entire '83 campaign in a contract dispute. All-America NT Bill Maas (Pitt) and T John Alt (Iowa) were both tabbed in the first round of the draft. Maas was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, while Alt eventually became the cornerstone of the club's offensive line later in the decade. Kansas City's defense registered a team-record 11.0 sacks in a 10-6 win vs. Cleveland (9/30), coming 1.0 sack shy of the NFL single-game record. Kenney suffered a broken thumb during the preseason and was sidelined until the season's seventh week. Blackledge opened the first six contests of the season and had the club at 3-3. Kenney returned to the starting lineup at the N.Y. Jets (10/21), but the club dropped four of its first five contests after his return. However, the team rattled off three consecutive wins to conclude the year at 8-8.

THE INTERCEPTORS

S Gary Barbaro's departure and the trade of Pro Bowl CB Gary Green in '84 began a youth movement that produced the most vaunted secondary in team history. CB Kevin Ross (#31), S Deron Cherry (#20), CB Albert Lewis (#29) and S Lloyd Burruss (#34) accounted for a combined 13 Pro Bowl appearances with the Chiefs.

1986 — LB Willie Lanier was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2nd. On the field, the pieces started coming together for Mackovic. His offense displayed plenty of scoring punch, while the club's defense and special teams became increasingly effective. With the team sitting at 3-3, Kenney replaced Blackledge for the second half vs. San Diego (10/19), guiding the club to a 42-41 victory. That win was the first of four consecutive triumphs with Kenney at the helm, the club's longest winning streak since '80. Poised with a 7-3 record after 10 games, three straight losses in November put the Chiefs playoff chances in jeopardy. Two December wins gave Kansas City a 9-6 mark, putting the Chiefs tantalizingly close to their first postseason berth in 15 years.

The defining moment of the '86 campaign came in the regular season finale at Pittsburgh (12/21). Despite being outgained in total yardage by a 515-to-171-yard margin, the Chiefs were able to notch a 24-19 victory as all of the team's points came via special teams on a blocked punt return, a FG, a kickoff return and a blocked FG return. With a 10-6 record the Chiefs earned an AFC Wild Card berth, winning a tiebreaker with Seattle. Kenney was injured in the fourth quarter of the Steelers contest, meaning Blackledge would draw the starting assignment for the club's first playoff contest since '71, a 35-15 loss at the N.Y. Jets (12/28). Little did anyone know at the time that it would be the final contest of the Mackovic era.

1987 — One of the most tumultuous weeks in franchise history took place following the club's playoff loss vs. the Jets. Assistant head coach and special teams coach Frank Ganzs, who had been an integral figure in the club's remarkable '86 campaign, resigned his position on January 7th in order to pursue opportunities as an NFL offensive coordinator. It was announced in an impromptu press conference that Mackovic was relieved of his duties on January 8th. A popular figure among Chiefs players, Ganzs was reinstated on January 10th and was named the sixth head coach in franchise history.

QB Len Dawson became the third Chiefs player inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 8th, while injuries forced the retirement of the club's all-time leading tackler LB Gary Spani. A duo of rookies made a splash in a 20-13 win on Opening Day vs. San Diego (9/13) as RB Paul Palmer returned a kickoff for a TD and RB Christian Okoye dashed for 105 yards. A 24-day NFLPA strike began on September 22nd. The club's contest vs. Minnesota (9/27) was cancelled before replacement games were conducted the next three weeks. Much like Marv Levy five years earlier, Gansz's grip on the club's coaching reins was crippled by the labor unrest.

The Kansas City replacement squad was constructed primarily of players cut in training camp. One of the few bright spots was RB Jitter Fields, who remained on the active roster following the strike. The Chiefs strike squad received an ominous welcome in Los Angeles when in the early morning hours prior to a contest vs. the Raiders (10/4), an earthquake rattled Southern California. The visibly shaken Chiefs lost a 35-17 decision later that day. The low point of the year came the following week at Miami (10/11) in the first regular season game played at what then was known as Joe Robbie Stadium. Chiefs QB Matt Stevens was injured early in the contest, forcing into duty QB Alex Espinoza, a player who had never taken an NFL snap. The result was a 42-0 Dolphins victory, setting the stage for an 0-3 performance by Kansas City's replacement unit, giving the Chiefs a 1-4 record before the club's regular roster returned at San Diego (10/25). Five straight losses followed, giving the Chiefs a team-record nine-game losing skid. For the only time in team history, five different players started games at quarterback for the club. Behind Kenney, Kansas City won two of its last three games to conclude the strike-shortened 4-11 campaign.

1988 — The spring was marked by several notable trades as the club jockeyed to improve on its 4-11 finish in '87. Blackledge was traded to Pittsburgh on March 29th and 12-year veteran QB Steve DeBerg was acquired from Tampa Bay on March 31st. The Chiefs moved up one spot in the first round of the draft to select DE Neil Smith (Nebraska) with the third overall pick. Kenney opened the team's initial two games, but was replaced by DeBerg at halftime at Seattle (9/11). In his initial start as a member of the Chiefs, DeBerg guided the team to a 20-13 win vs. Denver (9/18). However, six losses and a tie ensued as Kenney and DeBerg jostled for the QB job. As the season drew to a close, it became apparent the winds of change were blowing across the organization. President Jack Steadman resigned on December 8th, while General Manager Jim Schaaf was relieved of his duties the same day. Steadman was later named Chairman of the Board. On the field, the Chiefs finished the year at 4-11-1 as questions swirled regarding Gansz's future and who would fill the club's leadership void. Those winds of change became a full-fledged gale one day after the season's conclusion when former Philadelphia Eagles and USFL executive Carl Peterson was named the club's President/General Manager and Chief Operating Officer on December 19th.

A RETURN TO PROMINENCE: CARL PETERSON AND MARTYBALL

1989 — After compiling an 8-22-1 record in two seasons, Gansz was relieved of his duties as head coach on January 5th. Peterson's selection as Gansz's successor was former Cleveland Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer, who was named the seventh head coach in Chiefs history on January 24th. The first draft choice of the Peterson era set the tone for the next decade as the club selected Hall of Fame LB Derrick Thomas (Alabama) with the fourth overall selection. Thomas paired with Smith to form one of the most feared pass-rushing duos in NFL history, compiling a combined 212.5 sacks during their illustrious Chiefs careers. The Peterson-Schottenheimer era got off to an inauspicious start in a 34-20 loss at Denver (9/10) as DeBerg's first pass attempt was intercepted and returned for a TD. The club won just four times in its next 10 games as former Eagles QB Ron Jaworski and QB Steve Pelluer, who was acquired in a trade from Dallas, each opened three games apiece during that span. DeBerg regained the starting job for the final five weeks of the season, generating four wins that put the Chiefs just out of postseason qualification at 8-7-1. A 34-0 shutout win vs. Houston (11/26) highlighted the club's stretch run. RB Christian Okoye became the first Chief to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,480 yards, while Thomas won consensus NFL Rookie of the Year honors.

1990 — The foundation for the club's formidable offensive line of the '90s gathered two key ingredients when C Tim Grunhard (Notre Dame) and G Dave Stott (Penn State) were acquired in the draft. Construction began on the club's indoor practice facility at the Truman Sports Complex, giving the Chiefs an 80-yard indoor field and weight room facilities upon its completion. DT Buck Buchanan was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 4th. The Chiefs made their initial overseas appearance, losing a 19-3 American Bowl decision vs. the L.A. Rams at Olympic Stadium in Berlin, Germany (8/11). Schottenheimer's club got out of the starting gate quickly, winning three of their first four games. The club then struggled, splitting its next six contests.

Free agent RB Barry Word produced a 200-yard rushing outburst in a 43-24 victory vs. Detroit (10/14), becoming the first player in team history to top the 200-yard plateau. Kansas City led the NFL with a franchise-record 60.0 sacks, including a team-record 20.0 by LB Derrick Thomas. Thomas established an NFL single-game record with 7.0 sacks in an inspiring Veterans Day performance vs. Seattle (11/11), a game the Seahawks miraculously won, 17-16, on a last-second, 25-yard TD pass to WR Paul Skansi by future Chiefs QB Dave Krieg. That loss brought on the furious stretch run which saw the club record victories in six of its last seven outings. Behind DeBerg's offensive leadership (23 TD passes with just four INTs) Kansas City finished the year with a franchise-best +26 turnover differential. The Chiefs clinched their first postseason berth since '86 with a 24-21 win at San Diego (12/23) and finished the year at 11-5, marking the franchise's best finish since '69.

1991 — The Chiefs suffered a heart-breaking, 17-16 loss at Miami (1/5) in an AFC Wild Card Game as K Nick Lowery's potential game-winning 52-yard FG fell short with 0:56 remaining. On July 27th, K Jan Stenerud became the first pure placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The Chiefs became members of Wisconsin's "Cheese League," moving their training camp to the University of Wisconsin - River Falls after spending the previous 28 summers at William Jewell College in Liberty, Mo. The club's 14-3 win vs. Atlanta (9/1) on Opening Day initiated the 141-game sellout streak at Arrowhead that carried into the 2008 campaign. The Chiefs were featured on Monday Night Football three times, including a 33-6 victory over the defending AFC Champion Buffalo Bills before a raucous crowd of 76,120 fans at Arrowhead (10/7), marking the club's first home MNF contest in eight years. The club finished the regular season at 10-6, marking the first time since '68-69 that the franchise had qualified for the playoffs in consecutive seasons. A 27-21 victory at the L.A. Raiders (12/22) in the regular season finale gave the Chiefs the right to host the Silver and Black just six days later in the inaugural postseason game in Arrowhead's history. Thanks to six takeaways, the Chiefs registered their first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV with a 10-6 win in an AFC Wild Card Game vs. the L.A. Raiders (12/28).

1992 — The Chiefs lost a 37-14 decision at Buffalo (1/5) in an AFC Divisional Playoff matchup as the Bills dynamic offense proved to be too much for the Chiefs. A longtime nemesis with Seattle, "Plan B" free agent QB Dave Krieg was signed as the club's starter on March 19th. A melancholy offseason awaited the Chiefs, who mourned the passing of Player Personnel Director Whitey Dovell on May 11th and Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan on July 16th. Both Dovell and Buchanan lost courageous battles with cancer. Six-time Pro Bowl S Deron Cherry who originally joined the club as a free agent punter, announced his retirement in July after registering 50 interceptions in 11 seasons with the franchise. The Chiefs retired the jerseys of Buchanan (86), LB Willie Lanier (63) and K Jan Stenerud (3) in a ceremony prior to a preseason contest vs. Buffalo (8/24).

First-round draft pick CB Dale Carter (Tennessee) won the Bert Bell Trophy as the NFL's Rookie of the Year. The very first time Carter touched the ball in an NFL contest, he registered a 46-yard punt return TD in a 24-10 win at San Diego (9/6). RB Christian Okoye surpassed RB Ed Podolak as the all-time leading rusher in team history vs. Seattle (9/13). Injuries eventually made the '92 campaign Okoye's last with the Chiefs after he compiled 4,897 rushing yards with the franchise. The club got off to a 3-1 start, but was faced with a 4-4 record at the season's midpoint. Despite four consecutive victories, the club's postseason hopes still came down to the season's final contest. Owning a 9-6 record and needing one more victory to secure a playoff berth, the Chiefs defense tallied three TDs, while Krieg tossed a pair of scoring passes as Kansas City claimed a 42-20 win vs. Denver (12/27) to finish the season with a 10-6 record.

1993 — The Chiefs made a quick exit from the playoffs as Krieg was sacked 7.0 times in a 17-0 AFC Wild Card loss at San Diego (1/2). The Chiefs spent the off-season installing the "West Coast" offense under the direction of new offensive coordinator Paul Hackett, who at one time served as QBs coach to Joe Montana in San Francisco. On April 20th, the Chiefs traded for Montana, who directed the 49ers to four Super Bowl victories. G Will Shields (Nebraska) was selected with the club's third-round draft choice, rounding out the "law firm" of Grunhard, Szott and Shields which anchored the interior of Chiefs offensive line for most of the decade. On June 9th the club signed another future Canton enshrinee, inking unrestricted free agent RB Marcus Allen, who had spent 11 seasons tormenting the Chiefs as a member of the Raiders. Montana and Allen made their debuts in a 27-3 win at Tampa Bay (9/5), marking Montana's first Opening Day appearance since '90. Shields initiated a franchise-record streak of 223 consecutive starts the following week at Houston (9/12). Thanks to a pair of Monday Night Football wins at Arrowhead, the club owned a 6-2 midseason mark. Before taking the field in a Sunday night contest at Minnesota (12/26), the team learned it had clinched its first AFC West title since '71 thanks to a Raiders loss earlier in the day. The team finished the season with an 11-5 regular season record, marking the club's fourth consecutive year with a double-digit victory tally. LB Derrick Thomas was named the NFL's Man of the Year following the season. Thomas, who founded "The Third and Long Foundation," received the honor in large part due to his efforts in promoting children's literacy.

1994 — Kansas City got its first true taste of "Montana Magic" as the Hall of Fame passer engineered a brilliant comeback in a 27-24 OT win in an AFC Wild Card thriller vs. Pittsburgh (1/8). Next up was a red-hot Oilers squad that had won 11 straight games to conclude the regular season. Heavily-favored Houston opened up a 13-7 lead in the fourth quarter, but once again, Montana had a comeback in mind, guiding the club to a 28-20 victory at Houston (1/16). The Chiefs playoff journey ended in their initial AFC Championship Game appearance at Buffalo (1/23). Montana was knocked out of the contest early in the second half as Buffalo claimed its fourth straight AFC title by a score of 30-13.

While the previous off-season saw the Chiefs stockpile several key free agents, a number of familiar faces departed following the '93 season, most notably CBs Albert Lewis (Raiders) and Kevin Ross (Falcons), as well as K Nick Lowery (Jets). QB Steve Bono was acquired in a trade with San Francisco on May 2nd to serve as Montana's backup. The most dramatic change in Arrowhead's appearance occurred as a grass playing field was also installed, replacing the previous AstroTurf surface. The club made its second American Bowl appearance, meeting Minnesota in Tokyo, Japan (8/7).

The Chiefs home opener was one of the most ballyhooed regular season contests in team history as Montana made his only career appearance vs. San Francisco (9/11). The Chiefs prevailed over the 49ers and Montana's replacement, QB Steve Young, by a 24-17 count before a crowd of 79,907, the second-largest "in-house" attendance in Arrowhead history. After starting the season 3-0, the Chiefs dropped back-to-back games before snapping an 11-game losing streak at Denver's Mile High Stadium (10/17) in a memorable Monday night contest. Montana orchestrated a masterful comeback, connecting with WR Willie Davis for a five-yard TD with 0:08 remaining to give the Chiefs a 31-28 triumph. A late-season, three-game losing skid put the club's playoff hopes in jeopardy. The Chiefs found themselves at 8-7 faced with a do-or-die regular season finale vs. the L.A. Raiders (12/24) in the final NFL contest ever played at the L.A. Coliseum. Allen had his finest game in a Chiefs uniform, rushing 33 times for 132 yards en route to a 19-9 win. At 9-7, Kansas City qualified for the playoffs for a fifth straight season. However, the Chiefs made a rapid departure from the playoffs in Montana's final professional contest at Miami (12/31). Montana and Dolphins QB Dan Marino conducted a masterful first-half duel that ended deadlocked at 17-17, but Miami eventually prevailed by a 27-17 count.

1995 — Montana announced his retirement from football after 16 years in the NFL on April 18th and Bono was promoted to the starting job. Immediately, so-called media experts predicted much gloom and doom for the '95 Chiefs, leading Schottenheimer to quip during training camp that his club had been picked "sixth in a five-team division." Led by Bono, who merited a Pro Bowl berth, Kansas City posted an NFL-best 13-3 record with unblemished 8-0 marks in the AFC West and at Arrowhead. The Chiefs led the NFL in rushing offense (138.9 ypg), scoring defense (15.1 ppg) and turnover ratio (+12). A 24-3 win at Arizona (10/1) featured a surreal 76-yard TD run on a bootleg by Bono as the Chiefs initiated a seven-game winning streak, the franchise's longest since '69. In a Monday Night Football classic vs. San Diego (10/9), WR Tamarick Vanover returned a punt for an 86-yard TD to provide the winning points in a 29-23 victory, the team's third straight home win in overtime. The club's defense began to flex its muscle, beginning with a 21-7 win at Denver (10/22). The contest, played in a Rocky Mountain snowstorm, featured the 100th rushing TD of Marcus Allen's career. The Chiefs won a home game for the third time on a last-second return score that concluded in Arrowhead's west end zone when CB Mark Collins scooped up a fumble for a 20-13

HALLELUJAH CORNER

The term "Hallelujah Corner" was coined in '95 after Kansas City won three separate contests via return scores culminating in Arrowhead's West end zone. The first of those hallowed victories was a 23-17 OT decision vs. Oakland (9/17) that culminated when CB James Hasty returned an interception for a 64-yard TD, prompting head coach Marty Schottenheimer to plant a celebratory postgame kiss on the cornerback.

win vs. Houston (11/19). Kansas City clinched a division title with a 29-23 victory at Oakland (12/3) en route to a 13-3 regular season record and a team-record sixth consecutive postseason berth. The Chiefs were represented by seven players in the Pro Bowl, more than any other AFC team.

1996 — The Chiefs dropped an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/7) on a blustery afternoon with the temperature at 11 degrees and a wind chill of -9. Three INTs and a trio of missed FGs contributed to the 10-7 loss at Arrowhead. The Chiefs entered the '96 campaign with essentially the same lineup as the club boasted in '95 and were featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated along with Green Bay as preseason Super Bowl favorites. Kansas City made its third American Bowl appearance, this time vs. Dallas in Monterrey, Mexico (8/5). The club started the season with a 4-0 record for the first time in team history, but the season's lofty expectations came crashing down as the squad lost three of its next four games. A three-game winning streak, including a victory over the eventual Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers, put the club back in postseason contention at 8-3.

That rosy picture quickly crumbled in a 28-14 loss vs. San Diego (11/24) as Bono was relieved in the second half by QB Rich Gannon. Gannon assumed the starting reins for a 28-24 win in a Thanksgiving Day game at Detroit (11/28) as Allen registered his 111th career rushing TD to surpass Walter Payton as the NFL's all-time leader in that department, a mark that was later broken by Emmitt Smith. Needing just one more win to qualify for the playoffs, the Chiefs dropped their next two games as an injury-hampered Gannon was sidelined for good in the second quarter of a 24-19 loss vs. Indianapolis (12/15). Faced with a must-win situation in a frigid regular season finale at Buffalo (12/22), the club's postseason hopes hinged on Bono. Despite a 20-9 loss to the Bills, the Chiefs still had a shot to slip into the playoffs if Atlanta could secure a win at Jacksonville. However, Atlanta K Morten Andersen's 30-yard FG attempt went wide left with 0:04 remaining, preserving a 19-17 win and the AFC's final Wild Card spot for the Jaguars, who won a tiebreaker with Kansas City.

The Chiefs finished with a 9-7 record, missing the postseason for the first time since '89.

1997 — Kansas City dramatically retooled its roster in '97, beginning with free agent QB Elvis Grbac, who signed with the club on March 17th. In addition to Grbac, the Chiefs lineup featured 11 new starters, including WR Andre Rison, who won team MVP honors after becoming the club's first Pro Bowl receiver in a decade. On defense, the club's top four picks from the '96 Draft, S Jerome Woods, S Reggie Tongue, DE John Browning and LB Donnie Edwards, all emerged as starters. T John Alt announced his retirement at training camp in River Falls, Wis. on July 21st. All the new faces quickly formed a cohesive unit as the Chiefs posted a 13-3 record, an 8-0 Arrowhead mark and their second AFC West title in three years. The club engineered several dramatic finishes, the first of which came in a Monday Night Football thriller at Oakland (9/8) when Grbac connected with Rison on an improbable 32-yard TD pass with just 0:03 remaining to cap a 28-27 win. Six days later, Kansas City's defense produced a remarkable goal-line stand to preserve a 22-16 victory at Arrowhead vs. Buffalo (9/14).

After posting a 6-2 record during the season's first half, Kansas City's good fortune appeared to run out vs. Pittsburgh (11/3) when Grbac suffered a broken clavicle. However, Gannon led the team to a 5-1 mark in their next six outings.

K Pete Stoyanovich provided one of the year's most memorable moments, connecting on a line-drive 54-yard FG as time expired to give Kansas City a 24-22 win vs. Denver (11/16). San Francisco entered Arrowhead boasting an 11-game winning streak and departed after suffering a 44-9 defeat (11/30), while the Chiefs vaunted defensive unit pitched a 30-0 shutout vs. Oakland (12/7). The Chiefs led the NFL in scoring defense, allowing a mere 14.5 points per game. The 232 total points permitted by the Chiefs in '97 were the lowest tally ever allowed in a 16-game season in team history. Kansas City also broke a 63-year-old mark owned by the '34 Detroit Lions by not permitting a second-half TD in 10 consecutive games. Grbac returned for the regular season finale vs. New Orleans (12/21) as the squad finished the year with six consecutive victories, a first in team history.

1998 — The two teams with the AFC's top records squared off when Denver (12-4) visited Kansas City (13-3) for an AFC Divisional Playoff Game (1/4). Grbac started the contest for Kansas City and despite holding an edge in total yardage, the Chiefs could not convert on several key scoring opportunities, dropping a 14-10 decision to their division foe. On April 9th, RB Marcus Allen announced his retirement, concluding a brilliant 16-year NFL career. A whirlwind preseason saw the Chiefs play another American Bowl contest, this time vs. Green Bay in Tokyo, Japan (8/1), as well as a preseason game vs. Tampa Bay in Norman, Okla. (8/8).

A '98 campaign which began with much promise had its high hopes dashed as the Chiefs suffered several major injuries beginning in a season-opening victory vs. Oakland (9/6) that featured 6.0 sacks from LB Derrick Thomas. Grbac was lost for four games due to a shoulder injury, while All-Pro G Dave Szott's year came to an end with a biceps tear. In total, 11 different starters missed a total of 45 games due to injuries. Gannon led the team to a 4-1 start that included a water-logged, 17-6 Sunday night win vs. Seattle (10/4), a contest that was delayed for 54 minutes due to torrential rains. However, the club would never recover from an ensuing six-game losing streak, the longest of Schottenheimer's tenure. The low point of that stretch came in a penalty-marred 30-7 loss vs. Denver (11/16) on Monday Night Football. The club was hampered by crucial penalties throughout the season, setting dubious NFL records for penalties (158) and penalty yardage (1,304). Despite registering wins in three of the season's final five games, the club finished the year at 7-9, snapping a string of nine consecutive winning seasons.

GUN'S RUN & A FALLEN HERO

1999 — On January 11th, Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer announced his retirement after 10 seasons. His 101-58-1 (.634) record gave him the best winning percentage of any coach in franchise history. During his tenure, the Chiefs captured three AFC West titles and qualified for the playoffs seven times. Schottenheimer also produced a remarkable 18-3 (.857) record against the Raiders. Gunther Cunningham was appointed the eighth head coach in franchise history on January 22nd. During his four seasons ('95-98) as the Chiefs defensive coordinator, Kansas City's defense allowed a league-low 16.4 points per game. Cunningham produced a 9-7 record, the best mark of any rookie head coach in franchise history and the best mark of any first-year head coach in '99. The club became the sixth team in NFL history to record 100 regular season wins in a decade with a 16-10 triumph at Denver (12/5). Only Buffalo (103-57) finished the decade with a better record than Kansas City's 102-58 mark. Under Cunningham, Kansas City led the NFL with a +21 turnover ratio and won the NFL's turnover triple crown in the '90s with a remarkable +128 turnover ratio, a league-high 365 takeaways and an NFL-low 237 giveaways. The Chiefs also recorded 11 return TDs on the season, including a franchise-best nine on defense. The Chiefs ran the ball more times (521) than any other team in the league and ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing (130.1 ypg). After a three-game midseason losing streak put the club at 5-5 and on the brink of playoff elimination, the team rallied for a four-game winning string, setting up a make-or-break game in the regular season finale vs. Oakland.

2000 — The Chiefs needed a win vs. Oakland at Arrowhead (1/2) in the regular season finale to seal the AFC West title, while a loss would mean postseason elimination. Kansas City leapt out to a 17-0 lead, but a blocked punt turned the momentum in the game which was eventually won by Oakland 41-38 in OT. That loss

DERRICK VINCENT THOMAS (1967-2000)

On January 23, 2000 nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in a one-vehicle accident just east of the Kansas City International Airport on I-435. Ten other individuals were killed in a separate, 24-vehicle accident that same day just north of KCI on I-29. Thomas was moved to Jackson Memorial Hospital in his hometown of Miami the following day. Although confined to a wheelchair, Thomas had made substantial progress and was in good spirits when he was visited by Chiefs President Carl Peterson in Miami on February 7th. The next day, Thomas' condition took a shocking turn and at 10:10 AM (ET) on February 8th, he was pronounced dead after suffering cardiac arrest. February 11th was declared "Derrick Thomas Red Friday" in Kansas City and on February 14th nearly 23,000 mourners paid their final respects to their fallen hero at Arrowhead Stadium, where Thomas' body lay in state and a B-2 Stealth bomber from Whiteman Air Force Base flew over at 12:01 PM. On February 15th at Kemper Arena, over 6,000 individuals attended a public memorial service for Thomas. On February 19th, Derrick Vincent Thomas was buried in Miami following a memorial service at the Mt. Calvary Church. On March 4th, Peterson announced at the annual 101 Banquet that at the suggestion of Clark Hunt, the Chiefs Most Valuable Player Award would hence be known as the Derrick Thomas Award. Thomas was honored prior to the club's 2000 season opener vs. Indianapolis (9/3). A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2009, Thomas also had his #58 officially retired by the Chiefs in 2009.

provided an ominous start to a year which turned tragic on January 23rd when nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in an auto accident.

Despite an 0-2 start, Kansas City bounced back to win its next three contests. Despite trailing 22-14 midway through the fourth quarter, Cunningham's squad rallied for a 23-22 victory at Denver (9/24), giving the Chiefs a win in their final visit to Mile High Stadium. The Chiefs faced Seattle (10/2) in a Monday Night Football contest which was simulcast to 4,391 fans in Kauffman Stadium. The 82,893 fans assembled at Arrowhead and Kauffman Stadiums marked the largest on-site attendance figure in team history. The 24-17 win against the Seahawks marked Kansas City's third victory in a row.

The club's early-season success was also highlighted by a 54-34 win over the defending Super Bowl champion St. Louis (10/22), a contest which featured the most points ever scored at Arrowhead. Combined with a 24-19 victory at Seattle (10/29) in a game played at Husky Stadium, the Chiefs record stood at 5-3 at the season's midway point.

However, a stretch of five road games over a six-week span took its toll on the club as the Chiefs dropped five straight contests to fall out of playoff contention, finishing the year at 7-9.

THE VERMEIL YEARS

2001 — After compiling a 16-16 record in two seasons, Cunningham was relieved of his duties on January 5th. Dick Vermeil, who guided St. Louis to a win in Super Bowl XXXIV following the '99 season, was named the ninth head coach in franchise history on January 12th. On April 20th, the club acquired QB Trent Green in a trade with St. Louis and also signed unrestricted free agent RB Priest Holmes.

SEPTEMBER 11TH

On September 11, 2001 Americans watched with horror as terrorist attacks shocked the nation. Commissioner Paul Tagliabue suspended play for the weekend of September 16th. The Chiefs game at Seattle scheduled for that date was postponed until January 6th. The NFL made a patriotic return in Kansas City when the Chiefs hosted the N.Y. Giants (9/23). Tagliabue delivered a pregame address to the Arrowhead crowd, which greeted the Giants with a rousing ovation. Via a fireman's boot collection that was matched by the Chiefs and the Hunt family, a total donation of $451,413.88 was raised for relief efforts in New York City, an amount believed to be the largest single-day outpouring of spontaneous support by a group of fans and a pro sports team.

The initial regular season victory of the Vermeil era came in convincing fashion at Washington (9/30) when the Chiefs defeated their former head coach Marty Schottenheimer and the Redskins by a 45-13 margin. Although the club finished its initial campaign under Vermeil at 6-10, the team began to take shape down the stretch, winning three of its final four games. Holmes provided a spark to the offense, becoming just the second player in franchise history to lead the NFL in rushing, amassing 1,555 yards to break Christian Okoye's previous single-season record of 1,480.

2002 — The club initiated a season-long series to commemorate the franchise's 40th Anniversary Season in Kansas City in 2002. On April 15th, the Chiefs Honor Grove of over 40 stately Giant Redwoods was established in the southeast corner of the Truman Sports Complex to epitomize the deep and lasting roots the organization has developed in Mid-America. Hunt's inspiration for the honor grove was a quote from Vikings QB Joe Kapp, who was knocked out of Super Bowl IV. "The Chiefs defensive line was very active and looked like a Redwood Forest," Kapp said after the game. On April 25th, members of the Chiefs coaches, players, staff and cheerleaders visited numerous locations throughout the greater Kansas City community, thanking them for their support of the franchise.

In a season filled with wild comebacks and fantastic finishes, the Chiefs pulled out a remarkable 40-39 Opening Day win at Cleveland (9/8). Starting with that contest, virtually every game was a nail-biter with all but one of the club's eight losses being decided by seven points or less. But despite leading the NFL in scoring for the first time in team history with 467 points and setting a franchise record with 6,000 yards of total offense, the club finished 8-8 to miss the postseason in Vermeil's second season. The team remained in playoff contention until the season's final game thanks to its explosive offense that broke nine team records. The Chiefs also set NFL records by fumbling just seven times and losing just two of those loose balls. Holmes continued the torrid pace he began in 2001, earning NFL Offensive Player of the Year honors from the AP and surpassing his own team record with 1,615 rushing yards. The club's special teams were bolstered by WR Dante Hall, who produced three kick returns for TDs and became the first Chiefs return man to earn a Pro Bowl berth since J.T. Smith following the '80 season.

2003 — Hank Stram and RB Marcus Allen were enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2nd. "Voice of the Chiefs" Mitch Holthus broadcast his 151st game as the club's play-by-play announcer at Houston (9/21), breaking Kevin Harlan's previous record (150). The Chiefs started the regular season with a 9-0 record for the first time in team history, becoming just the ninth team since the AFL-NFL merger to accomplish that feat. That hot start to the season was sparked by Hall, who tied an NFL single-season record by registering four kick return TDs over that span. Hall also became the first player in league annals to accomplish that feat in four consecutive games. The Chiefs overcame a 17-point fourth-quarter deficit for the first time in team history, pulling out an improbable 40-34 OT win at Green Bay (10/12). Kansas City's winning streak came to an end in a 24-19 loss at Cincinnati (11/16).

The Chiefs clinched their first AFC West title since '97 with a 45-17 win vs. Detroit (12/14) as QB Trent Green became the first player in team history to register a "perfect" 158.3 passer rating in a game. Kansas City concluded its 13-3 regular season with a 31-3 victory vs. Chicago (12/28), marking a perfect 8-0 record at home and the club's 13th consecutive regular season victory at Arrowhead Stadium. In that win, Holmes set a trio of TD records. He finished the season with 27 rushing scores, establishing NFL single-season records for both rushing TDs and total TDs. Holmes (61) also bypassed WR Otis Taylor (60) for the most career TDs scored by a player in Chiefs history. The Chiefs five-game improvement in the win column from the previous season tied as the best mark in franchise history. Kansas City became the first AFC team to lead the NFL in scoring in consecutive seasons since San Diego in '81-'82 as the club produced a franchise-best 484 points. The team also led the NFL with a +19 turnover differential. Nine Chiefs players received Pro Bowl recognition, the third-highest total in team history, while the club's six offensive Pro Bowlers marked the most in club annals.

2004 — The Chiefs hosted an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/11) in which neither team was forced to punt. Sensational performances by Holmes (176 rushing yards, two TDs) and Hall (208 kickoff return yards, 1 TD) weren't enough as the Colts recorded a 38-31 victory. Defensive Coordinator Greg Robinson resigned on January 13th. Vermeil agreed to a two-year contract extension on January 16th. On January 20th, Vermeil hired Gunther Cunningham, who returned to Kansas City as the club's defensive coordinator. On January 30th, G Will Shields was named the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year.

The Chiefs got into the victory column with a 27-24 win on Monday Night Football at Baltimore (10/4) after an 0-3 start quickly dampened the club's high expectations. Kansas City's offensive line emerged as one of the NFL's finest units, producing a trio of Pro Bowl performers in Shields, T Willie Roaf and G Brian Waters. Thanks to that offensive front, the Chiefs registered an NFL-record eight rushing TDs in a 56-10 win vs. Atlanta (10/24). The following week Kansas City continued its offensive onslaught with a convincing 45-35 victory vs. Indianapolis (10/31), snapping a seven-game losing streak to the Colts. After surpassing RB Christian Okoye as the all-time leading rusher in franchise history vs. Houston (9/26), Holmes' year came to an abrupt halt when he suffered a season-ending knee injury at Tampa Bay (11/7).

A four-game winning streak in December included a wild 49-38 Monday Night Football road triumph at Tennessee (12/13). That late-season surge was sparked by second-year RB Larry Johnson who accounted for 11 TDs and produced three straight 100-yard rushing efforts in the season's final six contests. Offensively, the Chiefs established a league record with 398 first downs. Kansas City also led the NFL in total offense for the first time in franchise history, averaging 418.4 yards per game. That offense was triggered by Green, who set single-season team marks for passing yards (4,591) and 300-yard games (8). The Chiefs were also the first team in NFL history to have three different RBs boast a 150-yard rushing game in the same season – Holmes, Johnson and Derrick Blaylock. Defensively, fourth-round draft choice DE Jared Allen provided a bright spot with 9.0 sacks, the second-highest total by a rookie in team history.

2005 — TE Tony Gonzalez earned his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl berth and finished the season with a flourish, setting a single-game franchise record with a 14-catch performance in the regular season finale at San Diego (1/2). Gonzalez led the league in receptions (102), the highest total ever amassed by a member of the Chiefs. Despite Gonzalez's record-setting performance, a 24-17 loss to the Chargers brought a disappointing 7-9 campaign to a close.

A daunting early-season 2005 schedule featured a pair of prime-time road contests in the season's first four weeks. Kansas City finished that stretch at 2-2 after claiming a 27-7 home win vs. the N.Y. Jets (9/11) and winning a 23-17 decision at Oakland (9/18). However, the club would suffer a 30-10 loss at Denver (10/26) and was handed a 37-31 loss vs. Philadelphia (10/2) as the Eagles erased an 18-point Chiefs lead.

Hurricane Wilma forced the Chiefs to play their first regular season Friday night game since '64 as a game originally slated for October 23rd was hastily rescheduled. Kansas City actually flew to Miami on the day of the game and defeated the Dolphins by a 30-20 margin. Two weeks later, trailing by three points with only five seconds left and the ball on the one-yard line, Head Coach Dick Vermeil eschewed a potential game-tying FG attempt and went for broke, putting the game in the hands of RB Larry Johnson vs. Oakland (11/6). Johnson burst into the end zone to give the Chiefs a memorable 27-23 win as Kansas City's record stood at 5-3 at the season's midway point.

The Raiders contest marked the initial start of the season for Johnson, who opened the final nine games of the year in place of RB Priest Holmes, who was lost for the year following a head/neck injury at San Diego (10/30). Johnson topped the 100-yard barrier in the season's final nine contests and finished the season with 1,750 rushing yards, a franchise record at the time.

Shields continued his assault on the record book, as well. The club's contest at Buffalo (11/13) marked the 200th consecutive start of Shields' career, making him just the fourth player since the AFL-NFL merger to accomplish such a feat. In addition to pushing his string of consecutive starts to 207 games by season's end, he was also rewarded with his 11th consecutive Pro Bowl berth, extending another franchise record.

A three-game late-season winning streak boosted the club's postseason hopes, beginning with a 45-17 win at Houston (11/20). Johnson established a franchise record of his own with 211 rushing yards against the Texans en route to earning his initial Pro Bowl berth. Kansas City then registered convincing home victories against a pair of playoff-bound teams with wins vs. New England (11/27) and vs. Denver (12/4), putting the club at 8-4 with four games remaining. However, a pair of road losses put the club's postseason hopes in peril. A 20-7 win in a Christmas Eve quagmire vs. San Diego (12/24) meant the club would need a win in its regular season finale and some help in order to qualify for the AFC playoff field.

A FAREWELL TO THE FOUNDER

2006 — After registering a convincing 37-3 win vs. Cincinnati in the club's first-ever regular season New Year's Day contest, the winds of change blew into Kansas City. Head Coach Dick Vermeil publicly announced his retirement following the win over the Bengals, ending season-long speculation about his future. Kansas City finished the season at 10-6, becoming just the fourth team since '90 to miss the postseason with a double-digit victory total.

Vermeil conducted a final farewell press conference on January 3rd. He concluded his five-year run as Kansas City's head coach with a 44-36 (.550) record, giving him the third-highest victory tally in team history. Under his guidance, the Chiefs established 34 single-season team records and 14 single-game team records, leading the NFL in total offense by averaging 380.9 yards per game from 2001-05.

On January 9th, Herm Edwards was appointed the 10th head coach in franchise history. Edwards returned to Kansas City after serving as both a scout and an assistant coach with the Chiefs during the '90s. He rejoined the Chiefs organization after a five-year stint as head coach of the N.Y. Jets, leading that franchise to five postseason game appearances. He initially left the Chiefs to serve with former Kansas City assistant coach Tony Dungy in Tampa Bay, where that duo helped restore the Buccaneers franchise to NFL prominence.

On January 24th, the Chiefs and Royals both signed 25-year leases with Jackson County officials to keep both clubs at the Truman Sports Complex. On April 4th, Jackson County voters approved a 3/8 cent tax measure that was anticipated to raise $425 million in improvements to the Sports Complex, including $212.5 million for Arrowhead while the State of Missouri contributed $37.5 million. Those renovation plans also included a new practice facility and office complex for the Chiefs, thanks to contributions from the Hunt family.

The Edwards era got off to an inauspicious start on Opening Day vs. Cincinnati (9/10). QB Trent Green suffered a severe head trauma in the third quarter when he scrambled and went into a hook slide. Bengals DE Robert Geathers delivered a blow to the Chiefs signal caller, whose head violently bounced off the turf. Green lay motionless on the field for several minutes before he was taken to a local hospital. The Chiefs would lose the contest by a 23-10 count.

For the first time since 2000, a quarterback other than Green started a contest for Kansas City as backup QB Damon Huard served as field general the following week at Denver (9/17). Kansas City would drop a tough 9-6 OT decision to the Broncos as the club fell to 0-2.

After an early bye week, Kansas City got its initial victory of the Edwards era in convincing fashion with a 41-0 win at Arrowhead vs. San Francisco (10/1). Huard guided the club to a 23-20 comeback win the following week at Arizona (10/8), but a 45-7 drubbing at Pittsburgh (10/15) left the club's record at 2-3 entering a pivotal two-game homestand.

K Lawrence Tynes drilled a game-winning 53-yard FG to give Kansas City a 30-27 victory vs. San Diego (10/22). That triumph sparked a three-game winning streak to put the club's record at 5-3 at the season's halfway point.

Huard compiled a 5-3 record as a starter in Green's absence, throwing 10 TDs and just one INT over that eight-game span. After several weeks of practice and countless medical tests, Green finally made his return to the lineup in a 17-13 home win vs. Oakland (11/19) in what would be the final game witnessed in person by Founder Lamar Hunt, who was admitted to Presbyterian Hospital in Dallas on November 22nd.

Hunt had long lobbied the NFL for a third game on Thanksgiving and those persistent efforts were rewarded as the fifth-largest paid crowd in Arrowhead history (79,484) packed the stadium for a holiday spectacle. Kansas City won its second contest at Arrowhead in five days as the Chiefs defense turned in a masterful performance in a 19-10 primetime win vs. Denver (11/23), a contest that also marked the initial live game telecast by the NFL Network.

Owning a 7-4 record, Kansas City appeared poised to make a serious run at the postseason, but a three-game losing streak that began with an unlikely 31-28 OT loss at Cleveland (12/3) put those hopes in serious jeopardy. The month of December proved particularly gloomy for the Chiefs as the health of the franchise's patriarch steadily declined.

After originally being diagnosed with prostate cancer in '98, Hunt quietly and bravely underwent many treatments and surgeries in the ensuing years without complaint. On December 13th, he peacefully passed away in Dallas, surrounded by his family. Memorial services celebrating the life of Hunt were conducted on the SMU campus in Dallas on December 16th and at the Community of Christ Auditorium in Independence, Mo. on December 19th.

REMEMBERING OUR FOUNDER

On December 19, 2006 over 2,500 individuals gathered at the Community of Christ Auditorium in Independence, Missouri to pay their final respects to Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. Pastor Paul Brooks presided over a two-hour service that was attended by the entire Chiefs team and administrative staff, as well as countless dignitaries and fans. Three of the Hunt children – Clark (above), Daniel and Sharron Munson – shared remembrances of their father, while Lamar Hunt, Jr. paid a special musical tribute to the patriarch of the Chiefs family. Other eulogists included Carl Peterson, Rev. Emanuel Cleaver, Len Dawson, Bobby Bell, Willie Lanier, Trent Green and head coach Herm Edwards. Four former Chiefs head coaches were also in attendance – Dick Vermeil, Gunther Cunningham, Marty Schottenheimer and Paul Wiggins. A moving video tribute celebrating Hunt's vibrant life was also shown during the ceremony.

A mourning team would return to the field the following Sunday and capture a 20-9 win at Oakland (12/23) to keep the Chiefs playoff hopes afloat entering the regular season finale vs. Jacksonville (12/31). The Chiefs prevailed by a 35-30 count against the Jaguars as RB Larry Johnson established an NFL record with 416 rushing attempts on the season and broke his own franchise single-season record with 1,789 rushing yards. After Cincinnati and Tennessee lost earlier in the day, the Chiefs officially got their ticket to the postseason punched when San Francisco won an unlikely 26-23 OT decision at Denver (12/31).

2007 — The Chiefs made their first postseason appearance on the road since '94 in an AFC Wild Card Game at Indianapolis (1/6). Despite enjoying the support of a throng of Kansas City fans who made the trek to the RCA Dome and a valiant first-half performance from the Chiefs defense, Kansas City lost a 23-8 decision.

An artist's rendering for the club's new office complex and practice facility was unveiled in March, while design work and plans for Arrowhead's rehabilitation continued. On June 2nd, the club announced that it was partnering with HBO Sports and NFL Films to produce Hard Knocks: Training Camp with the Kansas City Chiefs - a five-hour documentary series. On June 6th, QB Trent Green was traded to Miami. Green concluded his successful six-year run with the franchise owning a team-record 87.3 passer rating.

The summer months were highlighted by a pair of groundbreaking ceremonies at the Truman Sports Complex. A private, staff-only groundbreaking session for the Chiefs new office and practice headquarters was conducted by Clark Hunt on July 25th. In addition, the Hunt family, Chiefs officials, Senator Kit Bond, Jackson County Executive Mike Sanders and other county legislators participated in a groundbreaking ceremony for the "New Arrowhead" on August 22nd.

On the field, Kansas City overcame an 0-2 start to register a 4-3 record at the bye week, securing sole possession of first place in the AFC West standings. That early-season turnaround was highlighted by a 30-16 comeback win at San Diego (9/30). WR Dwayne Bowe set a Chiefs single-game rookie record with 164 receiving yards in that contest, including a 51-yard TD catch. Bowe would shatter the franchise's single-season rookie receiving records with 70 catches for 995 yards, figures that led all NFL rookies. Meanwhile, TE Tony Gonzalez became the NFL's all-time TD catch leader among tight ends in a 27-20 win vs. Cincinnati (10/14).

However, Kansas City could not maintain any of that positive momentum after the bye week. The downward spiral began when RB Larry Johnson suffered a season-ending right foot injury in a 33-22 loss vs. Green Bay (11/4). That setback began a nine-game losing streak to conclude the regular season. Second-year QB Brodie Croyle supplanted QB Damon Huard in the second half the following week vs. Denver (11/11).

Croyle enjoyed a solid debut in his initial NFL start in the club's next contest at Indianapolis (11/18). That game would mark the final chapter in the illustrious career of RB Priest Holmes, who announced his retirement on November 21st. The all-time leading rusher in franchise history with 6,070 yards made a remarkable comeback after missing almost a season-and-a-half of action. He returned to play four games in 2007, including two starts, before eventually hanging up his cleats for good. DE Jared Allen was a defensive bright spot, leading the league with 15.5 sacks.

After suffering a thumb injury at Detroit (12/23), Croyle returned for the season finale at the N.Y. Jets (12/30) as Kansas City suffered a 13-10 OT setback. Gonzalez recorded his 820th career reception in the game, the most catches of any tight end in NFL history. Gonzalez earned his ninth straight Pro Bowl berth and finished the year with 1,172 receiving yards.

2008 — Head Coach Herm Edwards named Chan Gailey his offensive coordinator on January 16th. CB Emmitt Thomas was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on February 2nd and was officially enshrined in Canton on August 3rd.

Kansas City and Minnesota orchestrated a major trade on April 23rd as the Chiefs sent Pro Bowl DE Jared Allen and a sixth-round pick to the Vikings. In exchange, Kansas City received a first-round selection, two third-round picks and a sixth-round selection. Upon the team's return from training camp in August, the club's football operations moved into the organization's new practice facility. The rest of the franchise's administrative staff completed the move from Arrowhead by season's end.

On the field, the Chiefs owned the dubious distinction of becoming just the fourth team since the AFL-NFL merger to start three different quarterbacks in the season's first three weeks in a non-strike season. TE Tony Gonzalez surpassed TE Shannon Sharpe (10,060) for the most receiving yards by a tight end in NFL history at Carolina (10/5).

After QBs Brodie Croyle and Damon Huard both suffered season-ending injuries vs. Tennessee (10/19), the club eventually turned to QB Tyler Thigpen for good for the season's final nine games. The Coastal Carolina product showed flashes of promise and set a single-season franchise record for QBs with 386 rushing yards. Thigpen outplayed QB Brett Favre, but the Jets signal caller rallied his club as the Chiefs dropped a 28-24 decision at the N.Y. Jets (10/26).

That Jets contest marked the first in a series of excruciating losses. Kansas City squandered a 21-point lead in a 30-27 OT loss vs. Tampa Bay (11/2) and lost a 20-19 decision at San Diego (11/9) as a botched PAT and a failed two-point try doomed the club.

Thigpen's lone victory of the season was a 20-13 win at Oakland (11/30), but the losses continued to mount, including a second one-point setback vs. San Diego (12/14) as the Chargers overcame an 18-point deficit, scoring the game's final 19 points.

On December 15th, President/General Manager and CEO Carl Peterson announced his resignation, effective at the end of the season. The Chiefs dropped a 38-31 decision vs. Miami (12/21). Based on wind chill of -12 at kickoff, it was the second-coldest contest in Arrowhead history. A four-game losing streak to end the season closed out with a 16-6 loss at Cincinnati (12/28) as the Chiefs finished the year at 2-14.

A NEW ERA AT ARROWHEAD

2009 — Peterson officially concluded his 20-year tenure with the franchise on January 6th with a farewell press conference. Under Peterson's tenure, Kansas City amassed a 176-143-1 (.552) regular season record, made nine playoff appearances, won the AFC West four times and reached the AFC Championship Game in '93.

On January 13th, longtime New England Patriots executive Scott Pioli was named by Chairman of the Board Clark Hunt as the fifth General Manager in franchise history. During his tenure in New England, the Patriots won Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX, claimed the Lamar Hunt Trophy four times as the AFC Champion and won six AFC East titles. During Pioli's tenure from 2000-08, the Patriots compiled an NFL-best 102-42 (.708) regular season record.

On January 23rd, Herm Edwards was relieved of his duties as head coach. He produced a 15-33 regular season record in three seasons guiding the franchise. The late LB Derrick Thomas was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2009 on January 31st. Thomas became the 10th member of the Chiefs to be enshrined in Canton. He joined LBs Bobby Bell (Class of '82) and Willie Lanier (Class of '86) as the third linebacker in that esteemed group.

Hunt and Pioli introduced former Arizona Cardinals offensive coordinator Todd Haley as the 11th head coach in franchise history on February 6th. He helped the Cardinals reach Super Bowl XLIII, marking the franchise's first NFL title game since '47. The son of longtime NFL personnel executive Dick Haley, the younger Haley oversaw an Arizona offense that registered a franchise-record 427 points in 2008. The first major move of the Chiefs new leadership team came on February 28th when the club acquired QB Matt Cassel and LB Mike Vrabel in a trade with New England.

The club unveiled its 50th anniversary logo on April 14th as the team began a year-long commemoration of the franchise's 50th season, as well as the 50th anniversary of the creation of the American Football League by Lamar Hunt. On April 23rd, the Chiefs traded 10-time Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez to Atlanta. Gonzalez finished his Chiefs career with the most receptions (916), receiving yards (10,940) and TD catches (76) in franchise history.

On May 8th, Hunt named Denny Thum as the fourth President of the Chiefs. Thum owned the distinction of being one of just three employees in team history to serve the club during the tenure of every head coach in franchise history. On May 21st, Mark Donovan was hired as Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer after spending six seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles.

On June 18th, the Chiefs announced the return of training camp to the state of Missouri, beginning in 2010. The Chiefs and Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Missouri agreed to the university's plans for a training facility including a climate-controlled, 120-yard indoor field, as well as two 120-yard grass fields. The Chiefs officially ended their 19-year training camp tenure at the University of Wisconsin - River Falls, conducting their final practice at that facility on August 20th.

The Chiefs began the regular season on the road at Baltimore (9/13) with QB Brodie Croyle at the helm after QB Matt Cassel was injured vs. Seattle (8/29). Kansas City tied the game at 24-24 with 5:21 left to play in Head Coach Todd Haley's regular season debut, but couldn't pull out the victory.

For the first time since the '62 AFL Championship Game, the club wore its Dallas Texans uniforms in a contest billed as "The Game That Never Was" vs. Dallas (10/11). Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt had longed for a head-to-head duel between his AFL squad and the NFL's Cowboys during their three-year co-existence in Dallas, and that contest finally came to fruition. However, the Cowboys would prevail by a 26-20 margin in OT, sending the Chiefs record to 0-5.

Haley recorded his initial NFL win the following week, as Kansas City produced a 14-6 victory at Washington (10/18). It would be one of three road wins for the Chiefs on the season, tying for the most by a first-year coach in franchise annals.

On October 23rd, a major section of I-435 near the Truman Sports Complex was designated as "Lamar Hunt Memorial Highway" by the Missouri General Assembly and the Missouri Department of Transportation. In October, the club also mourned the death of longtime assistant coach Darvin Wallis, whose 19-year tenure with the Chiefs ranked as the second-longest stint in franchise history, trailing only Tom Pratt (21 years).

The Chiefs improved in 25 different statistical categories during the season's final eight games, including total points, total offense, passing yards per game, rushing yards per game, third-down percentage and sacks allowed. Kansas City began that eight-game stretch with a 16-10 win at Oakland (11/15) as the Chiefs became the first NFL club to register seven straight road wins against the Raiders. The Chiefs followed that up with a thrilling 27-24 OT victory vs. Pittsburgh (11/22) as Haley exacted some retribution against a Steelers squad that defeated his Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

RB Jamaal Charles helped spearhead the Chiefs second-half resurgence. Only Tennessee RB Chris Johnson (1,047) rushed for more yards over the final eight games of the year than Charles (968). Charles finished the season with 1,120 yards on 190 carries, becoming the first player in league annals to top the 1,100-yard plateau on less than 200 carries. He also was the youngest player to ever win the Derrick Thomas Award as the club's MVP.

2010 — The Chiefs saved their best performance of the season for the regular season finale at Denver (1/3). Charles racked up a franchise-record 259 rushing yards, while LB Derrick Johnson became just the third linebacker in NFL history to return two INTs for TDs in a single game. Kansas City registered a 44-24 win, marking the club's first-ever win at INVESCO Field and the most points scored by the Chiefs in Denver since '72.

Despite finishing the year with a 4-12 record, the Chiefs led the NFL in Red Zone scoring percentage (89.5%) and improved in 30 categories compared to 2008. Only three clubs made more dramatic jumps in the comprehensive special teams rankings compiled by the Dallas Morning News, as the Chiefs went from 29th to 12th.

Haley began reshaping his coaching staff almost immediately after the season. Charlie Weis was named offensive coordinator on January 8th, while Romeo Crennel was hired as defensive coordinator on January 14th. Haley also added a number of coaches with playing experience, included Hall of Fame CB Emmitt Thomas, who returned to the Chiefs as defensive backs coach on February 1st after registering a franchise-record 58 INTs from '66-78.

Commissioner Roger Goodell introduced four-time Pro Bowl G Brian Waters as the winner of Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award prior to the kickoff of Super Bowl XLIV on February 6th. Waters became the fifth member of the Chiefs to win that prestigious accolade. Super Bowl IV MVP QB Len Dawson — winner of the '73 Man of the Year Award — was on hand to present the Lombardi Trophy to the victorious New Orleans Saints.

On February 12th, Ann Roach announced her retirement after 44 seasons with the club. The second-longest tenured employee in Chiefs history, Roach served as an assistant to the first 10 head coaches in franchise annals. Roach and longtime Chiefs broadcaster Bill Grigsby were both acknowledged at the 40th annual 101 Awards on March 6th. Grigsby announced his retirement after a distinguished 63-year career in broadcasting.

The National Football League announced on April 20th that Monday Night Football would return to Kansas City on September 13th as the Chiefs officially celebrate the grand opening of the New Arrowhead vs. San Diego.

Chairman Clark Hunt led dozens of media members on an exclusive tour of the New Arrowhead on July 23rd, giving a behind the scenes look that the stadium and all its amenities before the first event was open to the public.

In an event reminiscent of Lamar Hunt's founding of the MLS and the Kansas City Wizards, the Wizards hosted English Premier League powerhouse Manchester United in a friendly match on July 25th, marking the first event held inside the New Arrowhead.

Clark Hunt was joined by the entire Hunt family and NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell on July 30th for the unveiling of Founder's Plaza, an engaging outdoor area that serves as a tribute to Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt and recognizes his contributions to the founding of the American Football League.

That afternoon, Chiefs Training Camp made it's debut on the campus of Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, marking the first time in 20 years that the Chiefs held their summer practices in the state of Missouri.

Upon returning to the Arrowhead Training Facility, Kansas City held a free night practice on August 25th that was open to the public at Arrowhead Stadium, giving 22,142 Chiefs fan the opportunity to see the newly renovated stadium and watch the team practice before the start of the regular season. In conjunction with the open practice, the Chiefs dedicated the Chiefs Hall of Honor, presented by Time Warner Cable on the Lower Concourse of the stadium.

On September 13th, Kansas City celebrated the grand opening of the New Arrowhead with a 21-14 rain-soaked victory over the AFC West rival San Diego Chargers on ESPN's Monday Night Football. The victory signaled the culmination of the three-year, $375 million renovation project.

Hunt assumed the title of Chairman and CEO of the Kansas City Chiefs on Tuesday, September 14th.

The Chiefs started the season 3-0 for the first time since 2003 on their way to a 10-6 record and the club's first AFC West title since 2003 and first playoff appearance since following the 2006 season. Kansas City registered a 7-1 record at home, restoring the Arrowhead advantage. The Chiefs went 4-0 against the NFC West, the second straight time they've swept the NFC West (2006). WR Dwayne Bowe tallied 15 TD receptions to pace the league in scoring catches. RB Jamaal Charles gained 1,467 yards on 230 carries, finishing second behind Houston RB Arian Foster for the NFL's individual rushing title. LB Tamba Hali led all AFC defenders and was second in the NFL with 14.5 sacks on the season.

2011 — On January 9th, Kansas City hosted it's first NFL playoff game since 2003 when the Chiefs fell to the Baltimore Ravens by a 30-7 final. Five Chiefs players were selected to the 2011 Pro Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii: S Eric Berry, WR Dwayne Bowe, QB Matt Cassel, RB Jamaal Charles and G Brian Waters, marking the most Pro Bowl performers for the Chiefs since KC sent six players to the NFL's version of the all-star game in 2006.

Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt named Mark Donovan president of the Kansas City Chiefs on January 20th.

Head Coach Todd Haley made two moves related to his coaching staff, naming Bill Muir offensive coordinator/offensive line coach on February 3rd and hiring Jim Zorn as quarterbacks coach on February 15th. Haley garnered two post-season coaching awards for leading the Chiefs to a 10-6 record in only his second year at the helm, earning the NFL Alumni Coach of the Year award and also the AFC Coach of the Year award from the Committee of 101.

The Chiefs were saddened at the loss of a pair of treasured Kansas City icons in 2011 as longtime trumpeter and TD Pack Band leader Tony DiPardo passed away in February at the age of 98. Only a few weeks later, longtime voice of the Chiefs Bill Grigsby passed away at the age of 89. Thousands of Kansas Citians helped celebrate the lives of these two Chiefs legends at open memorial services.

During the offseason, Arrowhead Stadium returned to prominence as a Midwest entertainment destination as country music star Kenny Chesney played the venue as a stop on his 'Goin' Coastal Tour' along with the Zac Brown Band, Billy Currington and Uncle Kracker. Taylor Swift's 'Speak Now Tour' also made a stop at Arrowhead.

For the second year in a row, the Chiefs held training camp at Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Mo. After returning to their Kansas City facility for the home portion of training camp, the Chiefs hosted a free practice for fans at Arrowhead Stadium as part of the team's Back to Football Bash.

After dropping three straight contests to open the season, Kansas City rebounded with four straight victories. That stretch of four straight wins included a 28-24 victory at Indianapolis (10/9) in which the Chiefs tied a club record by overcoming a 17-point deficit and a 28-0 shutout at Oakland (10/23) in which Kansas City recorded six interceptions.

Kansas City appeared in three primetime contests in 2011, including two at Arrowhead Stadium. For the second year in a row, the Chiefs topped AFC West rival San Diego (10/31) at home on ESPN's Monday Night Football, this time, using a 30-yard K Ryan Succop field goal in overtime for the win.

QB Matt Cassel was placed on injured reserve with a hand injury suffered vs. Denver (11/13). Kansas City claimed QB Kyle Orton off waivers from Denver on Nov. 23. Kansas City was one of two teams to have three different starting quarterbacks open an eventual victory in 2011, with Houston being the other team to accomplish that feat.

With a 5-8 record after 13 games, Todd Haley became the second coach in team history to be relieved of his duties during the season. Defensive Coordinator Romeo Crennel assumed the head coaching duties. The Chiefs upset the previously undefeated Green Bay Packers by a 19-14 final at Arrowhead (12/18) in Crennel's first game at the helm.

In the final three contests with Crennel serving as both head coach and defensive coordinator, the Chiefs defense ranked third in the NFL in total yards per game allowed, second in net passing yards per game allowed and second in points per game allowed.

The final game of the 2011 season marked the 227th career game for C Casey Wiegmann and was his 200th career start. Dating back to a contest vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23/01), Wiegmann had started 175 consecutive games at center and played 11,162 straight offensive snaps, marking the longest streak by any NFL offensive lineman. Dating back to a contest vs. Carolina (11/20/05), RB Thomas Jones had appeared in 102 consecutive games.

2012 — Crennel was named the 12th head coach in franchise history by Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt and General Manager Scott Pioli on Jan. 9, 2012.

Although the team finished with a 7-9 record, the Chiefs finished one win shy of repeating as the AFC West Division champions and earning an automatic berth in the playoffs.

Crennel started making changes to his coaching staff in the weeks following the regular season. Tom McMahon was named special teams coach on Jan. 30 while Brian Daboll was named offensive coordinator on Feb. 6. On Feb. 14, Nick Sirianni was promoted to wide receivers coach, while Jack Bicknell was named offensive line coach, Jim Bob Cooter was hired as offensive quality control coach and Darius Swinton was named special teams quality control coach. Crennel rounded out his coaching staff by hiring Steven Smith as assistant offensive line coach on March 9.

Former Chiefs T Willie Roaf was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame as part of the class of 2012, announced Saturday, Feb. 4, the day before Super Bowl XLVI in Indianapolis.

On April 14, the Kansas City Chiefs announced that every Chiefs Season Ticket Account Holder would receive one personalized Chiefs Nike jersey as a thank you in celebration of the club's 50 years in Kansas City. On May 15, Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt further outlined multiple plans and initiatives to thank Chiefs fans and the Kansas City community for their support through the years in a special press conference at Union Station in downtown Kansas City.

CHIEFS LOGO HISTORY

An Inspiration

Texans Helmet

During the team's three-year stint as the American Football League's Dallas Texans from 1960-62, the club's helmet logo featured the state of Texas in white with a gold star situated on the club's home base in Dallas. Founder Lamar Hunt "borrowed" that concept from the '52 Dallas Texans, a totally-unrelated NFL franchise that spent one undistinguished season playing in the Lone Star State before resurfacing as the Baltimore Colts in '53.

Prior to the inaugural AFL season in '60, Hunt's Texans were represented by a whirling, spur-clad, 10-gallon-hat-wearing character that was featured on various promotional items. That logo eventually gave way to a more polished football-toting gunslinger set over the state of Texas, a design created by Bob Taylor, a cartoonist for the now-defunct Dallas Times-Herald. Although never part of the club's uniform, Taylor's updated Texans logo adorned everything from the club's stationery to the billboard outside the team's offices.

When the franchise moved to Kansas City in '63, Taylor was commissioned to produce a new logo that remained strikingly similar to his original incarnation. Taylor's new rendition featured a Native American figure running with the same stride and holding the pigskin in the same manner as the gunslinger with the states of Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Iowa and Arkansas serving as his backdrop. This logo was utilized prominently during the '60s and was affixed to the club's Swope Park headquarters on 63rd Street before the club moved to Arrowhead in '72.

A new design for the Chiefs helmet logo was also in order upon the franchise's move to Mid-America. Hunt went back to the drawing board, seeking to give his franchise a logo that would once again provide an easily-recognizable link to its home locale. Hunt's initial sketches, some of which were done on a napkin on a flight from Dallas to Kansas City, began with an interlocking "KC" inside a circle or an oval. That look was eventually refined to feature those intertwined letters inside an arrowhead. The resulting finished product remains one of the most distinctive logos in all of sports and has been proudly utilized by the team for over 40 years.

1963-present

1959 — At one of the initial organizational meetings of the American Football League in late '59 — before the teams even had any players or coaches — the AFL owners choose their team colors. Lamar Hunt desires Columbia Blue and Orange for his Dallas Texans franchise. But before Hunt or any other owner can make a selection, Houston's Bud Adams claims Columbia Blue for his Oilers franchise. Hunt reverts to Red and Gold for the Texans, which remains the primary color scheme for the Chiefs to this day.

Lamar Hunt greets Bud Adams — sporting a "Columbia Blue" blazer — prior to the '62 AFL Championship Game. Hunt would lose the battle for "Columbia Blue," but his Texans would beat the Oilers in double OT for the '62 AFL title.

1960-62 — The Texans take the field for the AFL's inaugural season in '60 sporting red helmets with gray facemasks. The helmet features the state of Texas in white with a gold star situated on Dallas. Home jerseys are solid red featuring white numerals, white "TV" numerals on the sleeves and white lettering, all trimmed in gold. Road jerseys are white with red numerals, red "TV" numerals on the sleeves and red lettering, all of which are bordered by thin gold trim. Both jerseys are a cloth design, featuring three-quarter sleeves with stitched "tackle twill" numerals and letters. The team wears white pants featuring vertical stripes of red, gold and red. Socks are red on top, white on the bottom with alternating stripes at the calf of white, red, gold, red and white. Although several minor changes are made to the stripe width over the years, the primary sock design remains relatively consistent to the present day.

Texans Helmet

1963-67 — The Texans move to Kansas City in '63. Hunt and Head Coach Hank Stram initially plan on calling the relocated team the "Kansas City Texans." However, General Manager Jack Steadman wisely convinces the duo to change the franchise's nickname to "Chiefs." The club's uniform remains virtually unchanged, with the exception of the helmet logo. The state of Texas is replaced on the headgear by a design originally sketched by Hunt on a napkin. Hunt's inspiration for the interlocking "KC" design was the "SF" inside of an oval on San Francisco's helmets. Kansas City's overlapping initials appear inside a white arrowhead instead of an oval and are surrounded by a thin black outline. The result is one of the most distinctive helmets in all of football.

1968 — The most dramatic changes to the Chiefs uniform come in '68. Head Coach Hank Stram prefers more red in the club's road attire and orders red pants to go with the team's white road jerseys. Stram asserts that the red pants will match the red numerals on the white road jerseys. While Stram's fashion sense is never in question, some in the organization theorize that the superstitious Stram really wants to part ways with the white pants because the club lost Super Bowl I while wearing them. No matter the logic, the white pants are not seen again during the Stram era. The club's new red pants feature alternating vertical stripes of white, red, gold, red and white and are paired with predominantly white socks that feature striping of red, gold and red at the calf. Alterations are also made to the club's jerseys at this time. Sleeves are shortened from three-quarter length to their present-day short-sleeve status. Stripes are also introduced on the bottom of the sleeves, where they still reside. Red jerseys feature white, gold and white stripes on the sleeves, while the club's white jerseys receive red, gold and red stripes.

Texans DT Jerry Mays (75) and QB Len Dawson (16) pose along with head coach Hank Stram in '65 sporting the home jerseys the club wore from '60-67. Note the rolled-up sleeves and the barely visible gold trim.

1969 — Following a victory in the AFL Championship Game, Stram orders new red jerseys to be worn in Super Bowl IV and they are delivered just days before the game. Stram also directs Equipment Manager Bobby Yarborough to have all the helmets repainted before the Super Bowl but relents after players insist on wearing their "battle-scarred" headgear. The "AFL-10" patch worn on the left shoulder of Kansas City's jerseys in Super Bowl IV is the collaborative effort of AFL President Milt Woodard and longtime AFL fan Angelo Coniglio. During the entire '69 season, all NFL teams wear an "NFL-50" patch which commemorates the NFL's 50th Anniversary season. At the suggestion of Coniglio, Woodard counters by designing and implementing a patch of his own to celebrate the 10-year existence of the AFL, which is proudly worn by the Chiefs on behalf of the entire AFL in their 23-7 victory vs. Minnesota (1/11/70).

AFL-10 Patch

1970 — Following Super Bowl IV, the team's cloth jerseys dating back to the franchise's days in Dallas give way to a more breathable mesh fabric. Heat-transfer numerals and letters replace sewn-on "tackle twill" characters. The style of the numerals and letters changes slightly. The characters decrease in size, while the gold trim around both the numerals and letters expands to become more visible. Jersey numerals remain this size before eventually returning to larger proportions in the early '80s.

1974 — The club's facemask changes from gray to white. A change in manufacturers results in a slightly smaller arrowhead logo on the helmet with a thicker black border compared to the design of the '60s.

DT Buck Buchanan displays the club's road uniform of the '70s. Note the white facemask, red pants and heat-transfer numerals.

1979-80 — During the Marv Levy era, the club experiments with white jerseys and red pants at home. Several other NFL teams - most notably Dallas - had adopted the practice of wearing white at home. The fact that Lamar Hunt's hometown team had popularized the practice may have led the Chiefs Founder to depart from the club's traditional home uniform configuration. However, the trial is short-lived and by '81, the club reverts back to its traditional red jersey, white pants arrangement at Arrowhead.

QB Steve Fuller was part of a Chiefs squad that wore white jerseys at home for a brief stretch during the Marv Levy era.

1983 — The Chiefs wear a circular patch on their left upper chest bearing a gold eagle and the number 37 in memory of RB Joe Delaney who drowned on June 29th in Monroe, La. after trying to save the lives of three youngsters.

Joe Delaney Patch

1984 — The original eight American Football League teams all wear circular "Silver Anniversary" patches on the upper left chest of their jerseys commemorating the 25th anniversary of the AFL and their respective franchises. Kansas City's patch features the Chiefs helmet and the AFL logo.

Silver Anniversary Patch

1989 — The arrival of Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer signals the club's most dramatic uniform change in over 20 years. Schottenheimer asks and receives permission from Hunt to revert back to white pants on the road, a "white-on-white" look that had not been utilized by the Chiefs since '67. White belts also return to the club's pants after using red belts at various periods of the '70s and '80s. Kansas City reintroduces the white pants at Denver (9/10/89) and maintains this look on the road through the '99 season.

1991 — A sticker bearing the American Flag adorns the back of all NFL helmets to honor troops fighting in the Gulf War. The NFL Shield becomes a standard part of all NFL uniforms, appearing on the back of helmets, on the "v" of jerseys and on the left hip of pants.

WWD Patch

1992 — The club wears a black panel with the white initials "WWD" on the upper left chest of its jersey in memory of Director of Player Personnel Whitely Dovell, who passed away on May 11th. The team also paints the number "86" on the field at Arrowhead Stadium to honor the memory of Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan, who passed away on July 16th.

1994 — Solid fabric jerseys complete with "tackle twill" numerals and letters return, taking the place of mesh jerseys and heat-transfer characters. All NFL teams wear "NFL Diamond Anniversary" patches on their left upper chest in honor of the league's 75th season. The Chiefs also wear a "35th Anniversary" patch on their right upper chest in celebration of the franchise's 35th season. The patch features the AFL, Texans and Chiefs logos. It marks the first time in team history the club has worn two different patches in the same season. Kansas City also wears "Throwback" uniforms - replicas of the club's '63 attire - for games at Atlanta (9/18/94) and vs. St. Louis (9/25/94).

35th Anniversary Patch

1999 — The club wears a "40th Anniversary" patch in honor of the franchise's 40th season. The patch features the AFL and Chiefs logos.

75th Anniversary Patch

2000 — The Chiefs wear a circular sticker bearing the number "58" on the back of their helmets in memory of LB Derrick Thomas.

RB Marcus Allen (32), DE Neil Smith (90), T John Alt (76), QB Joe Montana (19) and LB Derrick Thomas (58) represented the Chiefs in the Pro Bowl following the '93 season. These '94 jerseys were the first uniforms in team history to feature a pair of commemorative patches. Note that Smith, Alt and Thomas have made their own "fashion statements" by rolling up their sleeves. Three members of this quintet (Allen, Montana and Thomas) are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, while Alt and Smith are all enshrined in the Chiefs Hall of Fame.

who passed away on February 8th. Ever mindful of Stram's legacy and the franchise's glory days, Head Coach Gunther Cunningham receives Hunt's blessing to revert back to the red pants on the road. The resurrected red pants debut in a 23-22 win at Denver (9/24/00) and remain part of the club's road attire.

40th Anniversary Patch

58 Sticker

2001 — A sticker bearing the American Flag returns to the back of all NFL helmets following the terrorist attacks of September 11th. The flag reappears on Chiefs helmets vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23/01) and remains there to this day.

2002 — The Chiefs wear a "40th Anniversary in Kansas City" patch vs. Oakland (10/27/02), commemorating the franchise's 40th season in Mid-America. "The Scout"

- Kansas City's most recognizable civic icon - is prominently featured on the patch along with Kansas City's downtown skyline. The NFL Equipment Shield replaces the NFL Shield on jerseys and pants.

U.S. Flag Sticker

40th Anniversary in KC Patch

2004 — The Chiefs wear a "40" decal on their helmets vs. Carolina (9/19/04) in honor of former Arizona Cardinals S Pat Tillman. Tillman left the Cardinals prior to the 2002 season and became a member of the elite Army Ranger unit. He was killed in the line of duty serving his country in Afghanistan on April 22, 2004.

Pat Tillman Sticker

2005 — The Chiefs wear a circular sticker on their helmets all season bearing the initials "HS" in honor of Hall of Fame Head Coach Hank Stram who passed away on July 4th. Stram compiled a 124-76-10 regular season record as the head coach of the Dallas Texans and the Kansas City Chiefs from '60-74. He guided the franchise to four AFL titles, two Super Bowl appearances and a victory in Super Bowl IV. One of the most distinguished gentlemen and unique personalities in pro football history, Stram's legacy was remembered all season with the "HS" decal. All NFL teams wear a "Fútbol Americano" decal on their helmets on the weekend of October 2nd to mark the NFL's first regular season game played outside of the United States. Arizona defeated San Francisco by a 31-14 margin in that contest played at Mexico City's Estadio Azteca.

and white pants on Opening Day vs. Cincinnati (9/10) in an effort to make the Bengals wear their dark uniforms on a potentially hot and muggy day. It marks the first time that even Founder Lamar Hunt can recall the club wearing the white-on-white uniform combination at home. The most recent time the club had dressed in such attire was in a road contest at Seattle (12/26/99). It was also the first time that the Chiefs had donned white jerseys at home since '80. While the premise is sound, the weather conditions aren't a factor in the contest with a kickoff temperature of 67 degrees under cloudy skies.

After the passing of Hunt on December 13th, the Chiefs utilize a helmet decal for the remainder of the season bearing the initials "LH" to honor the franchise's Founder. Kansas City first wears the helmet decal at San Diego (12/17). The club also reverts to the white jersey/white pants combination for its final two regular season road games and its postseason contest at Indianapolis (1/6/07). The move is in part to honor Hunt, who appreciated the "classic" look of that uniform combination.

2007 — Clark Hunt commissions a patch that the Chiefs wore on their uniforms in 2007 to honor his father's memory. The design of the patch is historically significant. The patch prominently features the American Football League logo to serve as a reminder of Hunt's formation of the AFL and the lasting impact the American Football League has made on the game of professional football. True to Hunt's humble spirit, the letters "LH" are subtly displayed on the patch, symbolizing the fact that the Chiefs Founder always put the best interests of the league ahead of his own. The patch is affixed on the left chest of both Kansas City's home and away jerseys, meaning this piece of woven symbolism will always be over the heart of every Chiefs player. Beginning with a game vs. San Diego (12/2/07), the Chiefs and other NFL teams wear a #21 decal on their helmets for the final five games of the season to honor Washington Redskins S Sean Taylor. Taylor, who was coming off a Pro Bowl season in 2006 was killed in his home in Miami on November 26th.

2008 — On January 31st, Clark Hunt announces that the Lamar Hunt patch will become a permanent part of the Chiefs uniform, beginning with the 2008 NFL season. All NFL teams wear a patch to honor the late Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw on Kickoff Weekend. The former Executive Director of the NFL Players Association passed away on August 20th. Beginning with the Chiefs contest the following week vs. Oakland (9/14), a decal bearing Upshaw's initials is worn on all helmets for the remainder of the season.

2009 — On April 14th, the Chiefs unveil their "50th Anniversary" patch that was worn on the club's jerseys for 13 games in 2009. The patch features a gold 50, as well as a Chiefs logo and an outline of the State of Texas, representing the only two logos that have ever appeared on the franchise's helmets. Kansas City wears replicas of the club's '62 Dallas Texans attire for AFL Legacy Games vs. Dallas (10/11), vs. San Diego (10/25) and at Oakland (11/15). The look is completed with replica Texans helmets that feature gray facemasks and a Texas-shaped decal with a gold star on Dallas. Jerseys for these three AFL Rivalry games feature a special "AFL 50th Anniversary" patch, featuring the original American Football League logo.

2012 — On April 3rd, Nike became the National Football League's exclusive maker of licensed on-field apparel. With the transition to Nike, the club made a few changes to the looks of the traditional Chiefs uniforms. The numbers on the new uniforms moved from the jersey sleeve to the top of the shoulder while the traditional stripe on the sleeve increased in thickness,

Lamar Hunt left an indelible mark on professional football. While Hunt made many lasting contributions to the game, part of his legacy will be his "accidental" naming of pro football's most important contest, the Super Bowl. As the story has been told and retold over the years, some of the facts have gotten lost along the way. Here are some of the most important elements of the tale in how the Super Bowl got its name...

- After the AFL-NFL merger was announced in June of 1966, Commissioner Pete Rozelle appointed a committee consisting of himself, Lamar Hunt (Kansas City), Tex Schramm (Dallas) and two other owners from each league (AFL & NFL) to firm up the details of the merger agreement.

Pete Rozelle and Lamar Hunt both played pivotal roles in shaping professional football.

- At one of those initial merger meetings, there was a discussion about the date of the game. As the committee discussed the championship game (which ultimately became referenced as the Super Bowl), there was some confusion on whether the parties were discussing the respective AFL and NFL title games or the game between the two leagues. It was then that Hunt first recalled saying, "You know, the last game, the final game . . . the Super Bowl."
- The "inspiration" for Hunt's whimsical suggestion was the high-bouncing "Super Ball" produced by the Wham-O company. Lamar's wife, Norma, had previously purchased one for each of the Hunt children (Lamar, Jr., Clark and Sharron) and the toy had become somewhat of a craze in the Hunt household and many other homes across the country.
- Hunt was later quoted as saying, "Nobody ever said let's make that the name of the game. Far from it, we all agreed it was far too corny to be the name of the new title game."
- In a letter from Hunt to Rozelle on July 25, 1966, Hunt urged the commissioner to "coin a phrase" for the title game between the two leagues. In the letter, Hunt said, "I have kiddingly called it the Super Bowl, which can obviously be improved upon."
- Rozelle agreed with Hunt's suggestion since he had a particular disdain for the term "super." According to longtime NFL executive Don Weiss, Rozelle was a former PR man who had a keen appreciation of grammar. In Rozelle's book, "super" was the equivalent of "gee whiz" or "neat." He believed that the term "Super Bowl" had no sophistication whatsoever.

- Rozelle was initially inclined to call the game the "Pro Bowl," but that moniker was already assigned to the NFL's annual all-star contest.
- In the years leading up to the merger, many members of the media had billed a possible championship match-up between the two rival leagues as a "World Series of Football," but Rozelle clearly did not want to have his game associated with baseball.
- After much consternation and debate, Rozelle eventually dubbed the title contest between the two leagues as "The AFL-NFL World Championship Game." However, Hunt's whimsical, off-the-cuff comment had taken root. In the weeks leading up to the game, headline writers had already adapted Hunt's two-word title over the much more verbose official moniker for the game. The TV networks billed the game as "Super Sunday" and even NFL Films tagged their film reels as being designated for the "Super Bowl."
- After the first two "AFL-NFL World Championship Games," the term "Super Bowl" was officially adopted by Commissioner Rozelle and the NFL. The first game to officially be designated as the Super Bowl at the time it was played was Super Bowl III between the AFL's Jets and the NFL's Colts. The first two championship games were retroactively named Super Bowls I & II.

Hank Stram and Vince Lombardi exchange pleasantries prior to Super Bowl I.

The second-ever regular season telecast of ABC's Monday Night Football featured the defending World Champion Kansas City Chiefs at Baltimore (9/28/70). While Don McCafferty's Colts eventually go on to defeat the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl V, the Chiefs would get a convincing 44-24 win in this prime-time showdown. Four of QB Len Dawson's pass attempts on the night went for TDs. The Chiefs forced seven Baltimore turnovers including three interceptions by S Johnny Robinson and two by CB Emmitt Thomas, allowing RB Ed Podolak to grind out the game.

GOVERNOR'S CUP SERIES

Dating back to the '68 preseason, the Chiefs have faced their in-state rivals from St. Louis in 43 "Governor's Cup" contests. From '68-87, Kansas City faced the St. Louis Cardinals every preseason and also met the Cardinals in regular season play four times while that franchise was stationed on Missouri's "Eastern Shore" before it moved to Arizona for the start of the '88 campaign. After the Rams moved to St. Louis in '95, the "Governor's Cup" series was renewed during the '96 preseason. Since the Rams relocation to the "Show-Me State," Kansas City owns a perfect 5-0 regular season record against their in-state, I-70 foes.

THANKSGIVING DAY GAMES

Lamar Hunt's longtime efforts to secure a Thanksgiving Day game at Arrowhead Stadium became a reality when the club defeated Denver 19-10 in Arrowhead's first-ever Thanksgiving contest (11/23/06). The holiday match-up between two longtime AFC West rivals marked the NFL Network's first live regular season game broadcast and drew a paid attendance of 79,484, the fifth-largest crowd in Arrowhead history. Kansas City hosted a trio of Thanksgiving Day games at Municipal Stadium, including a 31-17 victory vs. Denver (11/27/69) that included a 53-yard return of an onside kick for a TD by LB Bobby Bell. On Thanksgiving Day at Detroit (11/28/96), Hall of Fame RB Marcus Allen became the NFL's all-time leader in rushing TDs, registering his 111th ground score on a one-yard run to bypass RB Walter Payton's previous record, a mark that was later bypassed by RB Emmitt Smith.

ARROWHEAD STADIUM 1972-PRESENT FULLY RENOVATED-2010

Arrowhead Stadium underwent a $375 million renovation project that was fully completed in 2010. It is part of the Harry S Truman Sports Complex, which also includes 42,000-seat Kauffman Stadium, home of the Kansas City Royals baseball club. Since its dedication on August 12, 1972, for a preseason game vs. the St. Louis Cardinals, 23,784,162 spectators have passed through Arrowhead's turnstiles. After 23 seasons of artificial turf, Arrowhead sported a grass playing surface for the first time in '94.

Municipal Stadium served as the Chiefs original home in Kansas City after previously housing two short-lived NFL franchises, the Kansas City Blues (1924) and the Kansas City Cowboys (1925-26). The Chiefs and the Kansas City Athletics baseball club shared the facility until the A's departed for Oakland following the '67 season. Kansas City went undefeated (7-0) at home during the '71 regular season, but the final contest (and only playoff game) in Municipal Stadium's history will live in infamy for Chiefs fans, a devastating double overtime 27-24 playoff loss to the Miami Dolphins on Christmas Day of '71, a contest which remains the NFL's longest game at 82 minutes, 40 seconds.

The Cotton Bowl served as the home of the American Football League's Dallas Texans from 1960-62 before the franchise moved to Kansas City in '63 and became known as the Chiefs. The Texans shared the stadium with the NFL's expansion Dallas Cowboys. The facility served until '99 as a home field for SMU, the alma mater of Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. The Texans final contest in the Cotton Bowl was a 26-17 win over the San Diego Chargers on December 16, 1962, before a sparse crowd of 18,384 fans. The Texans would win a 20-17 double-overtime thriller the next week at Houston to capture the first of three AFL titles.

THE ARROWHEAD STADIUM STORY

The Kansas City Chiefs and St. Louis Cardinals played the inaugural game at Arrowhead Stadium on Aug. 12, 1972. Since that initial contest, much has changed at the Truman Sports Complex. On April 4, 2006 Jackson County, Missouri taxpayers approved a 3/8 cent sales tax that was expected to raise $425 million for improvements to the Sports Complex, including $212.5 million for Arrowhead. The State of Missouri also contributed $37.5 million. In addition, the Hunt family contributed $125 million to the project which officially commenced with a groundbreaking ceremony on Aug. 22, 2007. These improvements will maintain Arrowhead's longstanding status as one of the nation's top venues for fans to experience the excitement of NFL and collegiate football.

Fans can enjoy numerous new areas including Founder's Plaza, the Ford Fan Zone, the Chiefs Sports Lab powered by Blue KC, the Chiefs Hall of Honor presented by Time Warner Cable, the Founder's Club, the Scout Investments Club Level and a new team store. Other improvements include an upgraded sound and scoreboard system, a 360-degree video ribbon board, concourses that are doubled in size and an upgraded variety of food and beverage options.

While other venues of a similar vintage have long since been termed obsolete, thanks to the foresight and vision of the leadership of Jackson County, the Hunt family, the Chiefs and the taxpayers who made it a reality, Arrowhead has stood the test of time.

At the time of its dedication in 1972, the legendary founder of the Chicago Bears, George Halas, called Arrowhead "the most revolutionary, futuristic, sports complex I have ever seen." Hal Lebovitz, Sports Editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer added, "It took courage to sell the citizens of Kansas City on the twin park plan. But they bought it because they want the best."

In the late 1960s, after design and seating capacity concerns caused plans for a single, multi-purpose domed stadium to be scrapped, Kansas City opted to construct two separate stadiums, one for football and one for baseball. Voters approved the Sports Complex bond issue in 1967, which included plans for a revolutionary concept – the world's first rolling stadium roof (pictured below). Construction cost overruns and project delays caused by a lengthy strike eventually forced the roof concept to be put on hold, but Arrowhead was completed in time for the 1972 season.

In 1984, the Jackson County Sports Authority again investigated the feasibility of a dome - this time made of fabric - but that concept too was shelved as being unnecessary and financially impractical.

A decade later, in 1994, under Arrowhead's continued open-air arrangement, a natural playing surface was installed in the facility for the first time, just one of numerous improvements which were made prior to the current renovation. In 1999, all 33,975 seats in the upper level of the stadium were replaced, while all 35,277 lower level seats and all 10,199 club level seats were replaced for the 2000 season.

Undoubtedly one of the finest facilities in the NFL, Arrowhead and the fans who consistently fill it have helped produce a homefield advantage for the Chiefs. It's been 40 years since the first plans were being devised for Kansas City's two stadium setup, which is now the norm for professional football and baseball venues across the country.

During the 30th Anniversary season of Arrowhead in 2001, Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt expressed the organization's thanks to Colorado-based architect, the late Charles Deaton, who conceived the two-stadium concept. Hunt praised the governmental bodies who took the initiative, and the workers who built Arrowhead, as well as the support of the Jackson County taxpayers who financed this futuristic venture. Hunt also wished to extend on behalf of the entire Chiefs organization a hearty salute to all who have unquestionably made Arrowhead Stadium - The Home of the ... CHIEFS!

ARROWHEAD'S FOOTBALL TRADITION

Arrowhead Stadium has been a destination for football aficionados since it opened in 1972. In addition to serving as the "Home of the Chiefs," Arrowhead has hosted or is scheduled to host a number different college football contests. The first college game played at the facility was a SWAC contest on October 14, 1972 in which Grambling defeated Mississippi Valley State in front of a crowd of 9,833. The Dr Pepper Big 12 Championship, an annual Missouri vs. Kansas "Border Showdown" and "The Fall Classic" between Division II powers Northwest Missouri State and Pittsburg State have all been past regular events at Arrowhead. The facility also served as the site of the '74 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

In conditions that were described as cold, but humid, coaches Tom Landry of Dallas (NFC) and John Madden of Oakland (AFC) watched their teams combine for 15 fumbles and four interceptions in the 1974 Pro Bowl at Arrowhead Stadium.

K Garo Yepremian of the Dolphins kicked a Pro Bowl-record five field goals, accounting for all 15 of the AFC's points en route to earning MVP honors. Yepremian's fourth field goal gave the AFC a 12-10 fourth-quarter lead, but RB O.J. Simpson's fumble minutes later would set up a 21-yard field goal for a 13-12 NFC lead with less than two minutes to play. Miami QB Bob Griese answered by driving the AFC into position for the winning score. Yepremian would split the uprights with just 0:21 remaining to give the AFC a 15-13 win.

THE DR PEPPER BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP

Since 2000, Arrowhead Stadium has played host to the Dr Pepper Big 12 Football Championship Game five times. Oklahoma has claimed four of the five contests played in Kansas City, including a 62-21 win over Missouri in the most recent affair on 12/6/08.

THE BORDER SHOWDOWN

Missouri vs. Kansas

The Missouri-Kansas football series is the second-most played rivalry in college football history. This football rivalry originated in Kansas City on October 31, 1891 with a 22-10 Kansas win. Missouri leads the all-time series 57-54-9. A total of 26 contests in this 120-year rivalry have been played in Kansas City, including 19 of the first 20 games. In 2007, the clash once again called Kansas City home as Arrowhead Stadium played host to the storied traditions of MU and KU.

CHIEFS IN THE AMERICAN BOWL

1990 American Bowl

Rams 19, Chiefs 3

August 11, 1990 • 55,429

Olympic Stadium • Berlin, West Germany

KANSAS CITY.....	0	0	3	0	—	3
L.A. RAMS.....	7	3	0	9	—	19

RB James Saxon (21) and TE Jonathan Hayes (85) are on hand as the Berlin Wall begins crumbling down in Berlin, West Germany.

Kansas City's initial American Bowl expedition featured heavy doses of culture but little offense as the Rams prevailed by a 19-3 margin. RB Barry Word made his first appearance in a Kansas City uniform, pairing with the league's leading rusher in '89, RB Christian Okoye to form the quintessential "Martyball" backfield. However, the Chiefs only points would come on a 19-yard FG by K Bjorn Nittmo.

The Chiefs players and staff receive an indoctrination in the art of sumo wrestling at practice in Tokyo.

1994 American Bowl

Vikings 17, Chiefs 9

August 7, 1994 • 49,555

Tokyo Dome • Tokyo, Japan

KANSAS CITY.....	0	9	0	0	—	9
MINNESOTA.....	7	10	0	0	—	17

Kansas City's first appearance on Japanese soil was a rematch of Super Bowl IV, but Minnesota prevailed in this contest thanks to a pair of interceptions. Chiefs QB Matt Blundin accounted for the club's only TD when he connected with rookie WR Lake Dawson for a 40-yard score. Kansas City then attempted a two-point conversion for the first time since '69 as the NFL finally implemented the old AFL two-point rule in '94.

1996 American Bowl

Chiefs 32, Cowboys 6

August 5, 1996 • 45,128

Estadio Universitario • Monterrey, Mexico

KANSAS CITY.....	3	10	6	13	—	32
DALLAS.....	3	0	3	0	—	6

DE Neil Smith does his best matador impersonation and tries his hand at "bull-fighting" while in Monterrey, Mexico.

The Chiefs defense stifles the defending Super Bowl champions, allowing the Cowboys just five first downs. Kansas City's offense piles up 514 yards of total offense, including 173 rushing yards, while Dallas manages 214 total yards on the day as the Chiefs convert the partisan crowd of Cowboys fans into supporters of the "Jefes de Kansas City" or Kansas City Chiefs.

WR Masato "The Magnet" Itai (13) and TE Nachi Abe (47) join Chiefs President Carl Peterson in pregame ceremonies at the Tokyo Dome.

1998 American Bowl

Packers 27, Chiefs 24 OT

August 2, 1998 • 42,018

Tokyo Dome • Tokyo, Japan

GREEN BAY.....	0	14	7	3	3	—	27
KANSAS CITY.....	14	0	10	0	0	—	24

Green Bay K Ryan Longwell misses a potential game-winning 45-yard FG attempt at the end of regulation, while both Green Bay K Brett Conway and Kansas City K Pete Stoyanovich miss field goals in OT before Longwell makes the 27-yard game winner with 5:03 left in the extra session. Kansas City's roster features Japanese national players TE Nachi Abe and WR Masato "The Magnet" Itai.

1962 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Texans 20, Oilers 17 (2 OT)

December 23, 1962 • Jeppesen Stadium • 37,981

DALLAS.....	3	14	0	0	0	3	—	20
HOUSTON.....	0	0	7	10	0	0	—	17

A contest that moved the infant American Football League into the national consciousness proved to be the first of three AFL titles for Hank Stram's charges as the Dallas Texans claimed a 20-17 double-overtime victory over the Houston Oilers. The game still ranks as the second-longest pro contest ever played, coming in at a lengthy 77:54, but is best remembered for RB Abner Haynes' choice to "kick to the clock" at the beginning of the initial overtime session.

Following second-place finishes in each of the league's first two seasons, the Texans ran away with the AFL West title in '62. Dallas (11-3) was then matched in this title bout with Houston (11-3), which had won the first two AFL titles in '60 and '61 over the Chargers.

The Texans grabbed the game's first break when LB E.J. Holub picked off QB/K George Blanda at the goal line and returned the ball 43 yards, sparking a drive that resulted in a 16-yard FG by K Tommy Brooker. Blanda would miss a 47-yard kick on the Oilers next possession and Haynes scored on a 28-yard pass from QB Len Dawson. An INT by CB Dave Grayson would set up Haynes' second TD of the half, this time on a two-yard run to give the Texans a 17-0 halftime advantage.

But the momentum quickly shifted to the Oilers in the second half. George Blanda — then a "young" 35 years old — passed 15 yards to TE Willard Dewveall for a touchdown and kicked a 31-yard field goal before RB Charley Tolar burst over from the one to tie the game at 17-17 in the fourth quarter. Houston had a shot to win the game late in regulation, but LB Sherrill Headrick blocked a 42-yard Blanda field goal to leave the score deadlocked.

The two teams then went into the first sudden death overtime in AFL annals. The Texans won the toss and Stram elected to kick off, maintaining his defense could hold the Oilers long enough for Dawson to get the ball in good field position. Herein came the famous "kick-to-the-clock" episode in which Texans captain Haynes inadvertently elected for his team to kick into the wind instead of having it as the consolation for not receiving the football.

Neither club mounted a serious challenge in the early stages of overtime, but as the fifth quarter was drawing to a close, DE Bill Hull intercepted a Blanda pass and returned it to midfield. Dawson passed to RB Jack Spikes for 10 yards. Spikes — the game's Most Valuable Player — then ran for 19 yards and the Texans were in field goal range.

At the 2:54 mark of the sixth quarter, Brooker kicked a 25-yard field goal to give the Texans a 20-17 victory and the American Football League championship. The game lasted 77 minutes and 54 seconds and would be the longest in pro football history until the Chiefs and Dolphins played over 82 minutes nearly a decade later in '71.

1966 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 31, Bills 7

January 1, 1967 • War Memorial Stadium • 42,080

KANSAS CITY.....	7	10	0	14	—	31
BUFFALO.....	7	0	0	0	—	7

With a berth in Super Bowl I as the prize, the Chiefs visited ancient War Memorial Stadium for a New Year's Day clash with the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills. Kansas City's defense had stifled opponents all season long and didn't disappoint in this contest, forcing four turnovers, while limiting Buffalo to just nine first downs and 40 rushing yards as the Chiefs rolled to a 31-7 victory and their second AFL title.

The game, played in frigid, sub-freezing temperatures, produced its first break on the opening kickoff when P Jerrel Wilson recovered a fumble by DE Dudley Meredith on the Buffalo 31-yard line. Three plays later, QB Len Dawson found TE Fred Arbanas for a 29-yard touchdown, giving Kansas City an early 7-0 lead.

After the two teams exchanged punts, Buffalo tied the game in the opening period when All-Star QB Jack Kemp hit WR Elbert Dubenion on a 69-yard pass play to tie the score at 7-7. Few thought it would be the Bills last score of the day, but Kansas City would eventually outscore Buffalo 24-0 in the final three quarters.

While the Chiefs defense clamped down on the Bills, Dawson led the Kansas City offense to 10 second-quarter points. A 28-yard punt return by RB Mike Garrett set the Chiefs up at the Buffalo 45-yard line and six plays later the KC signal-caller found WR Otis Taylor for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

The game's decisive play then came just before halftime. Kemp had marched the Bills to the Chiefs eight-yard line, but was picked off at the goal line by S Johnny Robinson, who raced 72 yards with the interception before being brought down at the Buffalo 28-yard line. K Mike Mercer then hit a 32-yard FG with 0:03 left in the half to give the Chiefs a 17-7 lead heading into the locker room.

The third quarter proved to be a defensive tussle as the two teams each exchanged a pair of punts. Kansas City would get to the Buffalo 42-yard line late in the period, but a 49-yard kick by Mercer fell short leaving the score at 17-7 with 15 minutes remaining.

Kansas City then broke the game wide open as Garrett the coup de grace for the Chiefs, scoring on runs of one and 18 yards to make the count 31-7. A 47-yard Dawson pass to E Chris Burford set up Garrett's first TD which came on fourth-and-goal. Buffalo fumbled on its next offensive snap and S Bobby Hunt fell on the loose ball at the Bills 21. Three plays later Garrett started left and then reversed his field to get into the end zone for a second time.

Kemp couldn't move the Bills on their next possession and was picked off by CB Emmitt Thomas on Buffalo's final drive of the day as Kansas City won its second AFL title in four years and awaited the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I.

SUPER BOWL I

Packers 35, Chiefs 10

January 15, 1967 • Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum • 63,036

KANSAS CITY.....	0	10	0	0	—	10
GREEN BAY	7	7	14	7	—	35

Representing themselves and the American Football League in the first championship match with the National Football League, the Chiefs played well for one half before bowing to the supremacy of the Green Bay Packers. Vince Lombardi's Packers — one of the great pro football teams of all time — won Super Bowl I by a 35-10 score. The Packers held a slim 14-10 advantage at the half before the game turned on one play in the third quarter.

Green Bay opened the scoring on its second possession when the game's Most Valuable Player, QB Bart Starr, passed 37 yards to TE Max McGee, who made a remarkable one-handed catch for a touchdown. McGee, who had caught just four passes during the regular season, became an unlikely hero for the Packers after starter Boyd Dowler was injured on the game's opening series. McGee finished the game with seven catches for 138 yards and two TDs.

Behind QB Len Dawson, the Chiefs marched into Green Bay territory on their next drive, but K Mike Mercer misfired on a 40-yard FG to leave the score 7-0 after one quarter. However, Kansas City would tie the game on its next possession after a 31-yard completion to WR Otis Taylor set up a seven-yard scoring pass to RB Curtis McClinton.

Green Bay would go right back on top when RB Jim Taylor scored from 14 yards out on the Packers vaunted sweep. Kansas City's next drive featured a 27-yard completion to E Chris Burford and culminated with a 31-yard Mercer FG as the Chiefs narrowed Green Bay's lead to a 14-10 margin.

The Chiefs momentum carried over to the third quarter as Kansas City moved to a first down on its initial possession. But then the game's key play — one that doomed the underdog Chiefs — unfolded when S Willie Wood intercepted a Dawson pass intended for TE Fred Arbanas at midfield. Wood returned it all the way to the Chiefs five-yard line, where RB Elijah Pitts ran for the first of his two touchdowns as Green Bay would establish a 21-10 lead.

The Packers defense forced Kansas City to punt on its next two possessions, setting up another Starr-to-McGee touchdown pass. That duo would connect on completions of 11 and 16 yards on a 10-play, 56-yard drive before McGee hauled in a 13-yard score to up the Packer advantage to 28-10.

Kansas City dodged a scoring threat when CB Willie Mitchell picked off a Starr pass at the Chiefs 11-yard line in the fourth quarter, but it would be Green Bay's only miscue of the day. The Packers defense would stifle the AFL Champions for the remainder of the game as the Chiefs crossed midfield just once in the fourth quarter.

A 37-yard pass to McGee would set up the Packers final score, a one-yard Pitts TD run. That score put the finishing touch on a 35-10 victory as Green Bay claimed the first of two straight Super Bowl titles, while Kansas City would have to wait until Super Bowl IV for redemption on football's biggest stage.

1968 AFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Raiders 41, Chiefs 6

December 22, 1968 • Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum • 54,444

KANSAS CITY.....	0	6	0	0	—	6
OAKLAND	21	7	0	13	—	41

Oakland jumped out to an early 21-0 lead and picked off QB Len Dawson four times, posting a convincing 41-6 victory in the initial postseason meeting between the Chiefs and Raiders. The two teams had both finished 12-2 and split a pair of regular season contests, setting up this playoff meeting for the right to advance to the AFL Championship Game.

The Chiefs defense had allowed a franchise-record 170 points during the regular season, but QB Daryle Lamonica and WR Fred Biletnikoff made play after play against Kansas City. Lamonica finished the day with 345 passing yards and five TD passes, the highest postseason totals ever amassed against Kansas City. Biletnikoff also had a record-setting day, registering 180 receiving yards and three scores, the best individual receiving day produced versus the Chiefs in the playoffs.

The Lamonica-Biletnikoff connection clicked early and often, accounting for three plays and 60 yards on Oakland's opening possession, including a 24-yard TD pass to put the Raiders ahead 7-0.

With the Chiefs backed up at their own two-yard line, P Jerrel Wilson's punt would go off the side of his foot, giving the Raiders the ball at the Kansas City 25-yard line. Three plays later, a 23-yard scoring grab by WR Warren Wells made the score 14-0. The two teams would exchange punts before Lamonica lofted a 44-yard aerial to Biletnikoff to make the score 21-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Kansas City's offense showed some life to open the second quarter. Dawson hit WR Otis Taylor for a 55-yard gain to put the Chiefs in scoring position, but KC could not crack the end zone on three tries from inside the five-yard line as the club would settle for a 10-yard K Jan Stenerud FG to make the count 21-3.

Two possessions later, the Chiefs got excellent field position at the Oakland 38. A 31-yard pass to WR Ron Pitts moved KC to the seven-yard line, but again the offense couldn't cross the goal line, resulting in an eight-yard Stenerud FG. The Raiders responded with a 54-yard Lamonica-to-Biletnikoff TD to close the first half, giving Oakland a commanding 28-6 lead.

The Chiefs defense forced a punt on Oakland's first drive of the second half and then held the Raiders out of the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the one on their next possession to keep the contest within reach. But Kansas City's offense couldn't put points on the board despite getting deep into Oakland territory twice as a missed 37-yard FG and an interception halted those drives.

The Raiders slammed the door shut in the fourth quarter as Wells caught his second TD of the day and K George Blanda tacked on a pair of FGs to up the Oakland lead to 41-6. Dawson was unable to rally the Chiefs as each of the club's final three possessions ended with interceptions and Oakland advanced to its second straight AFL Championship Game.

1969 AFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Chiefs 13, Jets 6

December 20, 1969 • Shea Stadium • 62,977

KANSAS CITY.....	0	3	3	7	—	13
NEW YORK	3	0	0	3	—	6

Kansas City had throttled the Jets in the regular season, but getting a playoff victory against the reigning World Champions would prove much more difficult. The Chiefs defense would rise up for a monumental goal line stand, while the offense would get into the end zone when it mattered most as Kansas City claimed a 13-6 victory.

New York was led by QB Joe Namath, but throwing the ball accurately in the swirling winds of Shea Stadium would prove difficult for the charismatic MVP of Super Bowl III. The Jets passer connected on just 14 of 40 attempts for 164 yards and was picked off three times.

New York got on the board first with a 27-yard K Jim Turner field goal to go up 3-0. QB Len Dawson then started KC's next drive with a 13-yard pass to WR Otis Arbanas, a 12-yard connection to TE Fred Arbanas and a 17-yard screen to RB Wendell Hayes. After missing a 47-yard FG on KC's first drive, this time K Jan Stenerud connected on a 23-yard FG to knot the score at 3-3.

Neither club could muster much offense for the remainder of the first half. Stenerud would misfire on a 44-yard kick on KC's only other legitimate scoring shot, leaving the score deadlocked at intermission.

Kansas City's defense would turn up the pressure in the third quarter. CB Emmitt Thomas would register the Chiefs first INT of the day, setting up a 47-yard FG attempt that sailed wide left in the blustery conditions. New York's next possession would be terminated by the first of two interceptions on the day by CB Jim Marsalis. After the Jets were penalized for running into P Jerrel Wilson, a 27-yard pass to Arbanas put KC in New York territory. A 25-yard Stenerud FG then gave the Chiefs a slim, 6-3 advantage.

Namath responded by moving the Jets into scoring position early in the fourth quarter. A pass interference call in the end zone would give the home squad first-and-goal at the one, setting the stage for the biggest goal-line stand in Chiefs history.

RB Matt Snell gained half a yard off right tackle on first down before S Johnny Robinson arrived on the scene, while RB Bill Mathis was stuffed for no gain by LB Willie Lanier on second down. Namath attempted a bootleg on third down, but was hit by LB Jim Lynch and threw the ball away, forcing the Jets to settle for a seven-yard Turner field goal to tie the contest at 6-6.

Dawson and the Chiefs would immediately strike back. A 61-yard bomb to Taylor would set up the game's only TD. WR Gloster Richardson made the biggest grab of his career, hauling in a 19-yard scoring strike from Dawson on the next play. Marsalis would then record his second INT of Namath on the Jets final possession to ensure a tightly-contested 13-6 playoff win, sending Kansas City to the AFL's final title game at Oakland.

1969 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 17, Raiders 7

January 4, 1970 • Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum • 54,444

KANSAS CITY.....	0	7	7	3	—	17
OAKLAND	7	0	0	0	—	7

On the day the American Football League played the final game of its 10-year history, the Kansas City Chiefs became the AFL's only three-time champion. The Chiefs, through a curious playoff system, played Oakland for the league's last title. The Raiders had won the AFL West and owned a pair of regular season wins over the Chiefs, including a slim 10-6 victory in the regular season finale.

The Raiders, who arrived at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum already packed for a potential trip to Super Bowl IV, suffered the indignity of carrying those suitcases out of the stadium past the Chiefs busses after a 17-7 defeat.

The two clubs managed one first-half touchdown apiece with Oakland's coming on a three-yard run by RB Charlie Smith. Kansas City responded with a one-yard plunge by RB Wendell Hayes after QB Len Dawson had hit on passes of 14 yards to WR Otis Taylor and 41 yards to WR Frank Pitts.

In the third quarter, QB/K George Blanda was wide right on field goals of 39 and 40 yards, attempts that would have moved Oakland in front. Midway through the period, Kansas City began its second TD drive from its own six-yard line. A potential disaster was averted when the Chiefs fell on a fumble at their own two-yard line. On the next play, Dawson and Taylor pulled Kansas City out of the hole with a 35-yard pass play. FB Robert Holmes added 23 more on a flare pass, while a 25-yard pass interference call gave the Chiefs first-and-goal at the three. Holmes plowed in for the go-ahead TD from five yards out on third down, giving the Chiefs a 14-7 advantage.

The game then became a defensive struggle, which played right into Kansas City's hand. Led by defensive charges from the entire front four of DEs Aaron Brown and Jerry Mays and DTs Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp, the Chiefs continually harassed Raiders QB Daryle Lamonica, forcing the Oakland signal caller to throw a trifecta of fourth-quarter interceptions.

K Jan Stenerud came up short on a 52-yard FG to begin the final frame, which would be marked by a myriad of turnovers. S Jim Kearney registered KC's first INT of Lamonica at the Chiefs 18-yard line. Two plays later a Chiefs fumble would put the ball back in the hands of the "Mad Bomber," who was subsequently picked off by CB Jim Marsalis on Oakland's very next snap.

Inexplicably, Kansas City would fumble again two plays later, setting Lamonica up deep in Chiefs territory. But three snaps later CB Emmitt Thomas recorded his second pickoff of the day, ending a third straight Oakland possession with an INT. Thomas returned the ball 62 yards to the Oakland 18-yard line, setting up a 22-yard field goal that provided a 17-7 lead with 4:48 remaining.

Kansas City would actually fumble one more time, but the Silver and Black could not capitalize as the victorious Chiefs would return home to pack bags of their own for New Orleans and Super Bowl IV.

SUPER BOWL IV Chiefs 23, Vikings 7

January 11, 1970 • Tulane Stadium • 80,562

MINNESOTA	0	0	7	0	—	7
KANSAS CITY.....	3	13	7	0	—	23

Kansas City's finest sports hour concluded at 5:20 in the afternoon of Sunday, January 11, 1970, when the Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 23-7, for the World Championship of pro football.

The Chiefs, who finished 11-3 on the season and defeated the N.Y. Jets and Oakland Raiders in the playoffs, closed out their first decade as the winningest team in the American Football League, which, with Super Bowl IV, came to an end. Beginning in '70, the two leagues merged, with the AFL becoming the American Football Conference of the NFL.

Minnesota, a prohibitive favorite, was 12-2 during the regular season and at one point had won 12 games in succession behind a fearsome defense that had allowed an average of just 9.5 points per game. But behind QB Len Dawson — who would earn the game's Most Valuable Player Award — the Chiefs would amass more than enough offense to carry the day.

The Chiefs took an early lead when K Jan Stenerud booted a 48-yard first quarter field goal, a kick that remains as the longest field goal in Chiefs postseason history. He would later follow with field goals of 32 and 25 yards to give Kansas City a 9-0 lead.

Kansas City received the first break in the game when Vikings S Charlie West fumbled a kickoff and G Remi Prudhomme recovered at the Minnesota 19-yard line. After an eight-yard loss, Dawson handed off to RB Wendell Hayes, who rambled for 13 yards up the middle on a draw play. A 10-yard pass to WR Otis Taylor gave the Chiefs a first down at the four. Three plays later, RB Mike Garrett burst off-tackle for a five-yard touchdown, giving Kansas City a 16-0 halftime lead and stunning the Vikings and a nationwide television audience.

Minnesota mounted a mild third-quarter comeback when RB Dave Osborn scored from four yards out to cut the margin to 16-7. But any hopes the Vikings had of getting closer were dashed by Taylor, who lived up to his big-play reputation repeatedly through that season. Dawson hit the Chiefs wideout on a short hitch pattern, and when CB Earsell Mackbee missed the initial tackle, Taylor was loose down the right sideline, high-stepping his way to a 46-yard TD to give the Chiefs a 23-7 lead after three quarters.

As was so often the case in '69, the defense came to the fore. Minnesota had the ball three times in the final period and, as in the Oakland game the previous week, the Chiefs snuffed out all three chances with interceptions. LB Willie Lanier picked off a QB Joe Kapp pass to halt a rally at the Chiefs 34-yard line. Later on, S Johnny Robinson, playing with what turned out to be three broken ribs, grabbed another errant Kapp throw. Following the game, Kapp would pay tribute to Kansas City's massive defensive front: "The Chiefs defensive line was very active and looked like a Redwood Forest."

QB Gary Cuozzo would replace Kapp, but suffered similar results. In the game's closing minutes, CB Emmitt Thomas intercepted his fourth pass of the playoffs. The Chiefs then ran out the clock to capture the AFL's second consecutive Super Bowl triumph.

1971 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Dolphins 27, Chiefs 24 (2 OT)

December 25, 1971 • Municipal Stadium • 50,374

MIAMI..... 0 10 7 7 0 3 — 27
KANSAS CITY..... 10 0 7 7 0 0 — 24

The longest game in NFL history signaled the end of a glorious era in Chiefs history as Kansas City and Miami dueled for 82:40 in a double-overtime epic on Christmas Day '71. The final game ever played at Municipal Stadium featured 11 future Hall of Fame players, Hall of Fame head coaches Hank Stram and Don Shula, as well as one of the greatest individual efforts in NFL postseason annals by RB Ed Podolak. But in the end it was the Dolphins who prevailed when K Garo Yepremian's 37-yard FG at 7:40 of the second OT gave Miami a 27-24 victory.

Widely regarded as the finest Chiefs team ever assembled — the '69 Super Bowl IV squad included — Kansas City took a 10-0 lead after the first quarter thanks to a 24-yard FG and a seven-yard TD catch by Podolak. But Miami countered with 10 unanswered points to leave the score deadlocked at halftime.

The unquestioned star of the contest was Podolak, who accounted for an NFL-playoff record 350 combined net yards (85 rushing yards, 110 receiving yards and 153 on kick returns). With the score knotted at 17-17 after three quarters, Podolak capped a 91-yard drive with a three-yard TD run to give the Chiefs a 24-17 lead with 6:46 left in regulation. However, a five-yard pass from QB Bob Griese to TE Marv Fleming put the count at 24-24 with 1:25 remaining in regulation.

Podolak almost ended the game with a 78-yard return on the ensuing kickoff, but Miami CB Curtis Johnson maintained his angle to make a touchdown-saving tackle at the 22-yard line. With 35 seconds left, K Jan Stenerud's would-be, game-winning 31-yard FG attempt sailed wide right. Miami could not move the ball on its final possession of regulation, sending the game to its first overtime session.

Kansas City won the toss and after taking a lateral from DT Buck Buchanan, Podolak returned the kickoff to the Chiefs 46-yard line. Four plays later, KC was at the Miami 35-yard line as Stenerud lined up for another attempt at a game-winning kick, this time from 42 yards out. But Stenerud's attempt was blocked by LB Nick Buoniconti, giving the Dolphins new life.

Both teams would exchange punts before a 52-yard FG attempt by Yepremian came up short. The first overtime session would come to a close when Dawson was intercepted by Miami S Jake Scott. The Dolphins took over at their own 46 to start overtime number two, but were smothered by Kansas City's fierce defense.

Miami's defense forced the Chiefs to punt, setting up Griese and the Dolphins for one final drive. RB Larry Csonka broke off a 29-yard run to move Miami into KC territory. Four plays later Yepremian ended the NFL's longest day with his 37-yard game-winner. The Dolphins would eventually advance to Super Bowl VI, while the Chiefs would have to wait 15 years before their next postseason appearance after falling in one of the most storied battles in pro football history.

1986 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Jets 35, Chiefs 15

December 28, 1986 • Giants Stadium • 69,307

KANSAS CITY.....	6	0	0	9	—	15
NEW YORK	7	14	7	7	—	35

Kansas City finished the regular season with a 10-6 record to earn the club's first playoff berth in 15 years, but that adulation would be short-lived. After taking an early lead against the N.Y. Jets, three KC turnovers combined with 135 rushing yards and two scores from New York RB Freeman McNeil led to 28 unanswered points and a 35-15 Jets victory.

The Chiefs only offensive scoring drive of the day came on Kansas City's initial possession when QB Todd Blackledge led Kansas City to paydirt. A pass interference call in the end zone set the stage for a one-yard scoring plunge by RB Jeff Smith. But a missed PAT would begin a downward spiral for the Chiefs, who took a brief 6-0 lead.

Jets head coach Joe Walton then made the biggest call of the game on New York's next drive. Facing fourth-and-six at the Chiefs 33-yard line, Walton kept his offense on the field. QB Pat Ryan faked a pitch to McNeil and took the ball up the gut for a 24-yard gain. Two plays later, McNeil was in the end zone, giving the Jets a lead they would not relinquish.

Disaster would strike on Kansas City's next offensive snap when RB Larry Moriarity had the ball jarred loose after catching a swing pass. LB Kyle Clifton recovered for the Jets. Twelve plays later, a one-yard TD toss to McNeil put the Jets ahead 14-6.

After Kansas City failed to gain a first down on its next two possessions, a 30-yard pass to WR Al Toon put New York in Chiefs territory. Ryan then found Toon kneeling in the end zone for an 11-yard TD on third down to give the Jets a commanding 21-6 advantage with 0:59 left in the second quarter.

New York outgained the Chiefs 191 to 58 after 30 minutes and Kansas City's situation would go from bad to worse on the opening snap of the second half. Blackledge was intercepted by LB Kevin McArthur, who raced down the sideline for a 21-yard score, putting the Jets ahead 28-6 just 13 seconds into the third quarter.

Blackledge would guide the Chiefs to the Jets 15-yard line on Kansas City's next possession, but the club's comeback hopes were effectively over when RB Boyce Green was stuffed on fourth-and-one in the third quarter, turning the ball back over to the Jets.

Kansas City's special teams would account for the club's only touchdown of the second half as CB Albert Lewis blocked a Dave Jennings punt and recovered it in the end zone to close the gap to 28-13. A six-yard Ryan TD pass to TE Billy Griggs made it 35-13 before QB Bill Kenney replaced Blackledge in the fourth quarter. Kenney guided Kansas City inside the Jets 10-yard line twice to no avail.

The Chiefs final points of the afternoon came when Jennings stepped out of the end zone for a self-imposed safety to make the final score 35-15 as Kansas City's hopes expired.

1990 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Dolphins 17, Chiefs 16

January 5, 1991 • Joe Robbie Stadium • 67,276

KANSAS CITY.....	3	7	6	0	—	16
MIAMI.....	0	3	0	14	—	17

The Chiefs were in control for the majority of their first playoff game since '86, but could not answer a late comeback bid by QB Dan Marino as the Dolphins pulled out a 17-16 victory. Chiefs QB Steve DeBerg — who had guided KC to an 11-5 regular season record — had the club in scoring position, but a 52-yard FG attempt by K Nick Lowery fell just inches short with 0:56 remaining.

Had Kansas City fully capitalized on a number of scoring opportunities earlier in the game, the outcome may have been different. CB Charles Washington blocked a punt on Miami's first possession, setting the Chiefs up at the Dolphins 37-yard line. However, Kansas City would be forced to settle for a 27-yard FG. Miami would answer on its next possession as K Pete Stoyanovich nailed an NFL postseason-record 58-yard FG to even to count at 3-3.

However, Stoyanovich would come up short on a 57-yard attempt later in the second quarter, setting the Chiefs up with good field position. KC capitalized as DeBerg floated a 26-yard scoring aerial to WR Stephone Paige putting the Chiefs ahead 10-7 with 1:54 left in the half. Paige would finish the day with 142 receiving yards, the highest postseason total in team history. Meanwhile, DE Neil Smith — who had 1.5 sacks on the day — preserved the lead by stripping Marino on Miami's next possession.

Kansas City dominated the third quarter, but only managed to extend its lead to 16-3. Poised with second-and-goal at the Miami three-yard line, DeBerg was flagged for intentional grounding and the club settled for a 25-yard FG. S Deron Cherry blasted the ball loose from WR Mark Duper on Miami's next play, giving KC the ball at the Dolphins 29-yard line. But once again, the Chiefs could not strike paydirt and would leave Miami territory with only a 38-yard Lowery FG to show for their efforts.

Marino then began his comeback bid. A 10-play, 66-yard march culminated with a one-yard TD toss to FB Tony Paige as the Dolphins moved the count to 16-10. After a 33-yard connection between DeBerg and WR Emile Harry moved KC back into Miami territory, the Chiefs were forced to punt, setting up the Dolphins go-ahead drive which began with a key, 37-yard pass over the middle to TE Ferrell Edmunds. Marino then capped the march with a six-yard TD pass to WR Mark Clayton that was nearly intercepted by CB Albert Lewis as the Dolphins took their first lead of the game at 17-16 with 3:28 remaining in the fourth quarter.

A 20-yard pass to Paige and a 26-yard run by RB Christian Okoye helped put the Chiefs at the Miami 26-yard at the 2:00 warning. A controversial holding call on G Dave Szott nullified a 12-yard Okoye run on the next play, halting the club's momentum and setting the stage for Lowery's final field goal attempt, which came tantalizingly close to the crossbar.

1991 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Chiefs 10, Raiders 6

December 28, 1991 • Arrowhead Stadium • 75,827

LOS ANGELES	0	3	3	0	—	6
KANSAS CITY	0	7	0	3	—	10

It took 19 years, but the Chiefs finally had an opportunity to officially christen Arrowhead Stadium with a playoff game. And fittingly, that contest came against Kansas City's most heated rival, the Raiders. The Chiefs had defeated the Raiders 27-21 just six days earlier at the L.A. Coliseum in the season's final regular season game for the right to play at home in the first week of the postseason. Kansas City made the most of that opportunity by recording a 10-6 win over the Raiders, marking the club's first playoff victory since Super Bowl IV.

The Chiefs imparted a familiar recipe for success — solid defense and a bruising ground game. Kansas City's defense forced six turnovers and limited the Silver and Black to just two field goals, while RB Barry Word pummeled the Raiders with 33 carries for a team postseason-record 130 yards.

Word pounded away at the Raiders all day, a trend that began early. Kansas City won the toss and consumed 11:56 off the clock, thanks to a drive that featured 12 runs by Word. The Chiefs drove as deep as the 15-yard line, but K Nick Lowery's 33-yard FG was wide left, leaving the scoreboard empty.

S Deron Cherry registered the first of his two INTs on the game on the Raiders first possession. QB Todd Marinovich would be picked off four times by the KC defense and his first errant throw would give Kansas City possession at the Raiders 24-yard line. But again, Lowery would misfire, this time on a 47-yard FG attempt.

A wild barrage of turnovers then ensued. Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas stripped Marinovich, but QB Steve DeBerg promptly threw an INT on KC's next possession. After a Raiders punt, RB Harvey Williams put the ball on the ground for Kansas City, but Cherry registered another INT which he returned to the 11-yard line. DeBerg would hit WR Fred Jones for the game's only touchdown on the next play as the Chiefs took a 7-0 lead.

Raiders RB Nick Bell finished the game with 107 ground yards and was the club's primary weapon on a 10-play, 65-yard drive that ended with a 32-yard K Jeff Jaeger FG that closed the gap to 7-3 just before intermission.

The first half passing numbers for both squads were equally unimpressive. Marinovich completed just three passes for 47 yards, while DeBerg hit on seven passes for 71 yards. Wisely, both clubs turned to the ground game in the second half. The Raiders gave the ball to Bell eight times on their initial possession of the third quarter, but would have to settle for a 26-yard FG to close the gap to 7-6.

Kansas City then capitalized on a Raiders fumble by handing the ball to Word nine times on a 13-play drive that netted an 18-yard FG to make the score 10-6 early in the fourth quarter. The Chiefs would pick off Marinovich on each of the Raiders final two drives to seal the franchise's first-ever home playoff victory.

Bills 37, Chiefs 14

January 5, 1992 • Rich Stadium • 80,182

KANSAS CITY.....	0	0	7	7	—	14
BUFFALO.....	7	10	7	13	—	37

Kansas City was coming off its first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV, but that triumph proved quite irrelevant as Buffalo pounded the Chiefs into submission early in a 37-14 win. The Bills raced out to a 17-0 halftime lead and salted the game away behind RBs Thurman Thomas and Kenneth Davis who combined for 41 carries and 175 rushing yards. Defensively, Buffalo picked off back-up QB Marc Vlasic four times and held the Chiefs to just 213 yards of total offense as the Bills marched to their second straight AFC Championship Game.

After both teams traded a pair of punts to open the game, QB Jim Kelly hit a pair of completions to WR Don Beebe to put the Bills in scoring position and then fired a 25-yard pass to WR Andre Reed to give Buffalo a 7-0 advantage. Kansas City caught the game's first break when CB Eric Everett picked off Kelly early in the second quarter. But the Chiefs offense would go three-and-out. Four plays later, Kelly found Reed for a 53-yard scoring strike to make the count 14-0. Despite throwing three INTs himself, Kelly would finish the contest with 273 passing yards and three TDs.

S Deron Cherry picked off Kelly on Buffalo's next possession, but again, the Chiefs could not capitalize. The Bills would tack on a 33-yard K Scott Norwood field goal to end the first half with a 17-0 lead.

The second half wouldn't start much better for Kansas City. RB Harvey Williams fumbled on the club's first snap of the third quarter, but TE Jonathan Hayes would recover. The Chiefs wouldn't be as fortunate on the next play as Vlasic — who entered the game in the second quarter when starting QB Steve DeBerg was knocked out of the game with a hand injury — suffered the first of four second-half interceptions. Buffalo took over on the Chiefs 36-yard line and six plays later Kelly had the Bills ahead 24-0 after finding WR James Lofton for a 10-yard TD.

Vlasic would be picked off again on the Chiefs next drive, but LB Lonnie Marts returned the favor with an interception of his own to give Kansas City a ray of hope late in the third quarter. This time the Chiefs would get on the board as RB Barry Word bulled into the end zone from three yards out to cut the Buffalo margin to 24-7.

Thomas and Davis took it from there as the Bills methodically began grinding down the clock. After a Buffalo FG made it 27-7, Vlasic was picked off twice on his next three attempts. The Bills would turn those two miscues into 10 points as Buffalo took a commanding 37-7 lead with 4:57 left in the game.

Vlasic would hit WR Fred Jones on a 20-yard TD with 2:07 remaining to make it 37-14, but it was too little, too late as Buffalo recovered KC's onside kick attempt and ran out the clock, ending the Chiefs postseason aspirations.

1992 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Chargers 17, Chiefs 0

January 2, 1993 • Jack Murphy Stadium • 58,278

SAN DIEGO	0	0	10	7	—	17

Kansas City had defeated San Diego twice during the '92 regular season. However, that mattered little to the Chargers, who promptly dispatched the Chiefs from the playoffs by a 17-0 margin, marking the only shutout KC has ever suffered in postseason play.

The two sides bludgeoned one another throughout a scoreless first half, but early on it appeared the game may feature its share of offensive fireworks. San Diego QB Stan Humphries hit WR Nate Lewis for a 39-yard gain on the game's first play from scrimmage. Then, after a pair of penalties, the Chargers were knocking on the door. But DE Neil Smith fell on a San Diego fumble at the 13-yard line to halt the scoring threat.

The Chiefs couldn't mount a serious scoring threat in the first half and couldn't move past the San Diego 40-yard line on their first five possessions. The Chargers didn't fare much better with only a fumble, a punt and a missed 52-yard FG to show on three trips into Kansas City territory. Still, San Diego did hold a slight 130-to-122 edge in total yardage heading into the locker room.

Kansas City's offensive struggles continued in the second half, as the club punted on its first two possessions. San Diego then broke the stalemate midway through the third quarter when the team's battering ram — RB Marion Butts — burst into the secondary en route to a 54-yard score, giving the Chargers a 7-0 lead. Butts finished the game with 15 carries for 119 yards.

Things went downhill from there for the Chiefs. On Kansas City's next offensive play, QB Dave Krieg had a pass tipped by DE Blaise Winter. Fellow DE Leslie O'Neal picked off the ball at the Kansas City 29-yard line, setting up a 34-yard FG from K John Carney to give San Diego a 10-0 advantage with 3:33 left in the third quarter.

While Kansas City's defense was good, forcing 5.0 sacks — including 1.5 by LB Derrick Thomas — San Diego's defense was even better, harassing Krieg all day and finishing the game with 7.0 sacks. Krieg got the Chiefs into Chargers territory on each of the next two drives, but was sacked 3.0 times on those two series, stifling any scoring possibilities.

San Diego then delivered an offensive blow on its next possession. Behind a steady diet of RB Eric Bieniemy, the Chargers mounted an 11-play, 91-yard drive that ate 5:32 off the clock. H-back Steve Hendrickson got a rare carry and bulled his way into the end zone from five yards out to give the home team a 17-0 lead with 4:57 left in the fourth quarter.

The knockout punch quickly followed when Chargers DT Shawn Lee stripped Krieg on Kansas City's next possession. San Diego recovered and took over with 3:52 remaining. The Chiefs would get the ball back one last time, but the results were the same as they had been all day as San Diego sacked Krieg one last time and secured a 17-0 victory.

Chiefs 27, Steelers 24 (OT)

January 8, 1994 • Arrowhead Stadium • 74,515

PITTSBURGH	7	10	0	7	0	—	24
KANSAS CITY	7	0	3	14	3	—	27

It took an extra session to settle the score in the initial postseason match-up between Kansas City and Pittsburgh, but the Chiefs would eventually prevail, 27-24. A blocked punt and the last-minute heroics of QB Joe Montana – who was making his first playoff appearance with Kansas City – helped the Chiefs send the game to overtime where K Nick Lowery's 32-yard FG was the difference in the franchise's first OT playoff contest since the '62 AFL Championship Game.

Pittsburgh head coach Bill Cowher had previously served as both a player and assistant coach under Marty Schottenheimer before taking over the fortunes of the Steelers. Early on, the pupil appeared to have the upper hand as Pittsburgh held a 17-7 halftime lead thanks to a pair of TD passes from QB Neil O'Donnell. WR Andre Cooper hauled one in from 10 yards out and WR Ernie Mills caught a 26-yarder with just 0:18 left in the first half.

Kansas City's lone score of the first half came when QB Dave Krieg – who made a brief appearance for an injured Montana – delivered a 23-yard TD completion to WR J.J. Birden in the first quarter. A 23-yard FG in the third quarter would cut the Pittsburgh lead to 17-10, setting the stage for a fantastic finish.

Montana guided the squad on a nine-play, 80-yard drive to open the quarter, culminating with a two-yard TD trot by RB Marcus Allen, who was also making his initial postseason appearance with the Red and Gold. With the score tied at 17-17, O'Donnell answered with a nine-play, 74-yard drive, hitting TE Eric Green for a 22-yard score to put Pittsburgh back ahead with 4:11 left in regulation.

After KC went three-and-out on its next possession, the Steelers had a chance to run out the clock when they got the ball back with 3:00 remaining. However, the Chiefs defense would hold, setting the stage for Kansas City's special teams to swing the momentum back in favor of the home squad. TE Keith Cash swatted down P Mark Royals' punt, which was recovered by WR Fred Jones who returned the ball to the Pittsburgh nine-yard line.

Facing fourth-and-goal from the seven with 1:48 left, the ever-cool Montana found WR Tim Barnett in the back of the end zone to even the count at 24-24. KC's defense would force Pittsburgh three-and-out once again, giving Montana and the Chiefs one final shot in regulation, but a 43-yard FG attempt from Lowery sailed wide right with 0:13 remaining, sending the game to overtime.

Kansas City won the toss, but was unable to move the ball. Pittsburgh got to midfield before it was forced to punt, setting up one final drive by Montana. After starting on their own 20-yard line, KC moved to midfield and was deep in Pittsburgh territory after Montana hit Cash on an 18-yard strike. Five plays later, Lowery took the field on third down and drove the game-winning 32-yard FG through the uprights with 3:57 showing on the clock.

1993 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Chiefs 28, Oilers 20

January 16, 1994 • Astrodome • 64,011

KANSAS CITY	0	0	7	21	—	28
HOUSTON	10	0	0	10	—	20

Kansas City pulled a huge upset over heavily-favored Houston to advance to its first-ever AFC Championship Game with a 28-20 victory at the Astrodome. The contest marked the Chiefs first road playoff win since claiming a 17-7 triumph at Oakland in the '69 AFL Championship Game.

Houston was the NFL's hottest team heading into the playoffs, owning 11 consecutive wins to close the regular season and showed no signs of cooling down after jumping out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter over the Chiefs. An interception by CB Steve Jackson on KC's first drive set up a 49-yard FG by K Al Del Greco, while an 11-play, 80-yard Oilers scoring march was capped by a two-yard RB Gary Brown TD run.

Houston's defense had proclaimed the Astrodome as "The House of Pain," but it was Kansas City's defense which began to inflict some damage, registering three sacks and forcing three fumbles in the second quarter alone. While the Chiefs offense couldn't capitalize, it would be a sign of things to come. Kansas City finished the game with a team playoff-record 9.0 sacks and seven forced fumbles, including a pair of sacks apiece by CB Albert Lewis, LB Derrick Thomas, S Bennie Thompson and DT Joe Phillips. Thomas and DE Neil Smith each had two forced fumbles, as well.

The Chiefs finally got on the board in the third quarter when QB Joe Montana threw a seven-yard TD pass to TE Keith Cash, who emphatically spiked the ball into a banner bestowed with the likeness of Oilers defensive coordinator Buddy Ryan. But Cash's exclamation point was nothing compared to the mayhem that would ensue in the fourth quarter.

Another interception by Houston led to a 43-yard FG that put the Oilers ahead 13-7. But the Chiefs grabbed their first lead of the day just three plays later with an 11-yard TD catch by WR J.J. Birden. On the Oilers next play from scrimmage, Thomas unleashed his patented sack-and-strip maneuver on Moon with Chiefs DT Dan Saleaumua scooping up the loose ball at the Houston 20-yard line. This time Montana — who finished the contest with 299 yards — found WR Willie Davis for an 18-yard TD to push the Chiefs advantage to 21-13.

But the Oilers wouldn't go away. Moon — who compiled 306 yards on the day — promptly responded with a seven-yard scoring strike to WR Ernest Givins to pull Houston to within 21-20. Kansas City would produce a one-two knockout combination on its next drive. Cash snared a 41-yard pass from Montana on a third-and-one situation from the KC 30-yard line. Then faced with third-and-two at the Houston 21-yard line, RB Marcus Allen burst through the middle of the line for a 21-yard TD dash to make the score 28-20.

A final sack from Thomas would all but seal the Oilers fate as the Chiefs turned "The House of Pain" into a house of horrors for Houston in the final NFL postseason game ever played in the Astrodome.

1993 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Bills 30, Chiefs 13

January 23, 1994 • Rich Stadium • 76,642

KANSAS CITY.....	6	0	7	0	—	13
BUFFALO.....	7	13	0	10	—	30

The Chiefs knew that they had to stop the run in order to dethrone the reigning three-time AFC Champion Buffalo Bills on their home turf. Unfortunately, the 229 rushing yards amassed by the Bills provided all that was necessary in a 30-13 AFC Championship Game setback at Rich Stadium. Although the Chiefs were outgained by just 51 yards (389 to 338), they allowed RB Thurman Thomas to gain 186 of Buffalo's 229 rushing yards.

Kansas City was in uncharted territory as the club was playing in its first-ever AFC title game and vying for its first Super Bowl appearance since '69, while the Bills were playing in an unprecedented fourth straight AFC Championship Game.

Neither team's offense was able to move the ball effectively at the start of the first quarter. Midway through the frame, though, Thomas would start to get on track as his easy 12-yard TD scamper gave the Bills a 7-0 lead.

But Kansas City would answer. QB Joe Montana orchestrated a 10-play, 52-yard drive that culminated with a 31-yard FG by K Nick Lowery. S Bennie Thompson then forced Bills WR Russell Copeland to fumble on the ensuing kickoff. WR Fred Jones scooped up the loose ball, setting the stage for another 31-yard FG to cut Buffalo's lead to one as the first quarter came to a close.

The second quarter was all Buffalo as the club scored on three straight possessions, getting a three-yard TD run from Thomas and FGs of 23 and 25 yards from K Steve Christie. The Chiefs had a chance to cut into the lead as the half ended, but a pass by Montana slipped through the hands of FB Kimble Anders, stationed in the end zone, and into the waiting arms of Buffalo S Henry Jones. The Bills took a 20-6 lead into the half as Thomas had already amassed 129 yards on the ground.

The Chiefs got the ball to open the second half, but three plays into the third quarter Montana was slammed to the turf by S Matt Darby and LB Darryl Talley, suffering a concussion on the play. Montana was sidelined for the remainder of a very chilly afternoon as QB Dave Krieg came off the bench.

With 2:58 left in the third quarter, Kansas City shaved the Bills lead to seven points with a 14-play, 90-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard plunge by RB Marcus Allen. But Buffalo countered with an 18-yard FG and a three-yard TD run by Thomas to make the count 30-13.

Kansas City's last legitimate comeback hope evaporated when Krieg was picked off at the goal line by CB James Williams with 3:23 left. Krieg would get the club as close as the Buffalo one-yard line on the Chiefs final drive, but it would not matter as time expired on Kansas City and its Super Bowl aspirations.

1994 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Dolphins 27, Chiefs 17

December 31, 1994 • Joe Robbie Stadium • 67,487

KANSAS CITY.....	14	3	0	0	—	17
MIAMI.....	7	10	10	0	—	27

In a game that proved to be the final contest of QB Joe Montana's legendary career, the Chiefs signal-caller provided a dramatic first-half showdown with fellow Western Pennsylvania native, Dolphins QB Dan Marino. But after these two legendary passers dueled to a 17-17 halftime tie, Miami pulled away in the second half behind Marino for a 27-17 victory.

The Chiefs outgained Miami by a 414-to-381 margin in total yardage, but a pair of second-half turnovers and a staunch Dolphins defense was too much to overcome. Neither club was able to mount a substantial pass rush as Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas recorded the game's only sack in his return to his South Florida hometown.

Both quarterbacks were nearly flawless in the first 30 minutes as Montana completed 12 of 15 passes for 178 yards and two TDs, while Marino hit on 14 of 16 attempts for 162 yards and one score as the two squads each scored on their first three possessions.

Montana started the shootout by guiding an exquisite 11-play, 80-yard drive that was capped with a one-yard play-action TD toss to TE Derrick Walker. Marino immediately answered with a nearly-identical, 10-play, 72-yard march that ended with a one-yard plunge by RB Bernie Parmalee to tie the score at 7-7.

KC struck quickly on its next possession as Montana found FB Kimble Anders on a 67-yard screen pass that hit paydirt. The two clubs then traded field goals before Marino produced a monster, 13-play, 80-yard drive that consumed 5:50 off the clock. A one-yard TD pass to TE Ronnie Williams with 0:22 remaining in the second quarter ended an exquisite half of football with the score deadlocked at 17-17.

Marino picked up right where he left off on the opening possession of the second half, putting the Dolphins ahead 24-17 on a seven-yard scoring strike to WR Irving Fryar. But this time the Chiefs and Montana could not answer, going three-and-out on their next two drives. Meanwhile, Miami tacked on a 40-yard FG from K Pete Stoyanovich to go up 27-17.

The Dolphins defense then clamped down in the fourth quarter. CB J.B. Brown picked off a Montana pass in the end zone to thwart a golden scoring opportunity, while S Michael Stewart forced a rare fumble by RB Marcus Allen as KC crossed into Miami territory on its next possession.

Miami was then content to grind it out on the ground, consuming over five minutes off the clock before the Chiefs could regain possession. Montana managed to get Kansas City as close as the Dolphins 19-yard line before his final professional pass fell incomplete on fourth down as he attempted to find WR Willie Davis. He finished the game with 314 yards on 26-of-37 passing with two TDs and one INT, while Marino ended the day by completing 22 of 29 attempts for 257 yards with two TD passes and no INTs.

1995 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Colts 10, Chiefs 7

January 7, 1996 • Arrowhead Stadium • 77,594

INDIANAPOLIS	0	7	3	0	—	10
KANSAS CITY	7	0	0	0	—	7

Frigid conditions, four turnovers and three missed field goals contributed to one of the most shocking upsets in Chiefs history as Kansas City (13-3) suffered a 10-7 loss to Indianapolis (9-7) at Arrowhead.

A kickoff temperature of 11 degrees and a wind chill of 9 seemingly did little to freeze the dome-dwelling Colts. Indianapolis didn't lose any of its four fumbles and despite missing two field goals, it still made one when it counted as Kansas City squandered a solid effort from its league-leading scoring defense and 94 rushing yards from Marcus Allen, the fourth-best total in KC playoff history.

The Chiefs got off to a promising start, putting together a five-play, 62-yard TD drive on their third possession of the game. That march culminated with a 20-yard scoring pass from QB Steve Bono to WR Lake Dawson to give Kansas City its only score of the day and a 7-0 lead.

Colts QB Jim Harbaugh then made arguably the biggest play of the game on Indianapolis' next possession. Facing third-and-11 at his own 22-yard line, Harbaugh scrambled for an 18-yard gain. The Colts would convert six times on either third or fourth down on the drive, including a five-yard TD catch by WR Floyd Turner on third down which capped an 18-play, 77-yard drive that ate 8:40 off the clock and tied the count at 7-7.

Indianapolis K Cary Blanchard was short on a 47-yard FG after a KC fumble. Chiefs K Lin Elliott had a shot to put his team ahead with 0:12 left in the first half, but he was wide right from 35 yards out as the contest remained tied at halftime.

Kansas City boasted an NFL-best +12 turnover differential during the regular season and forced its only takeaway of the day when CB Mark Collins picked off Harbaugh. But just two plays later, Bono was intercepted by CB Ashley Ambrose, setting up a 30-yard Blanchard FG to put Indianapolis ahead 10-7 with 2:48 left in the third quarter.

KC's defense kept it close in the final 15 minutes, but it was not enough. Elliott was wide right on a 39-yard FG to open the fourth quarter and Bono was picked off by LB Quentin Coryatt on the Chiefs next possession. KC still appeared to have a shot when Blanchard's 49-yard FG fell short with 5:44 left in the game, but three plays later Bono was picked off by CB Eugene Daniel. However, the Chiefs defense held once again, setting the stage for one final drive with 4:12 remaining in the contest.

QB Rich Gannon came on in relief of Bono and took over at the Chiefs 18-yard line. He methodically moved the club downfield, converting three third downs, including a 14-yard scramble that put Kansas City at the Colts 25-yard line with 0:56 left. Gannon narrowly missed WR Lake Dawson in the end zone on third down, setting the stage for a final field goal attempt by Elliott from 42 yards out. But the kick sailed wide left as Indianapolis claimed a 10-7 victory and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

- CHIEFS — Dawson, 20-yard pass from Bono (Elliott kick) (5-62, 2:28).
- COLTS — Turner, 5-yard pass from Harbaugh (Blanchard kick) (18-77, 8:40).
- COLTS — Blanchard, 30-yard FG (9-35, 4:35).

1997 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Broncos 14, Chiefs 10

January 4, 1998 • Arrowhead Stadium • 76,965

DENVER.....	0	7	0	7	—	14
KANSAS CITY.....	0	0	10	0	—	10

The two teams with the AFC's best regular season records squared off as Kansas City (13-3) and Denver (12-4) met for the first time in postseason play. The Chiefs boasted the NFL's top scoring defense (14.5 ppg), while the Broncos owned the league's number one scoring offense (29.5 ppg). But it was Denver that claimed a 14-10 victory in what would be the final contest of RB Marcus Allen's storied Hall of Fame career.

Kansas City outgained Denver by 303 to 272 total yards and held a +2 edge in the turnover column, but an inability to put points on the board in several key situations cost the Chiefs a chance to host the AFC Championship Game. After the two teams battled through a scoreless first quarter, KC appeared to get on the board first, but was flagged for holding on a 34-yard FG by K Pete Stoyanovich, who had missed just one FG during the regular season. However, Stoyanovich's ensuing 44-yard attempt went wide left to leave the count at 0-0.

Denver QB John Elway then marched the Broncos on an eight-play, 65-yard scoring drive that culminated with a one-yard TD run by RB Terrell Davis, who would finish the game with 25 carries for 101 yards. KC could not get back into scoring range, as the Broncos took a 7-0 lead into the intermission.

Chiefs QB Elvis Grbac opened the second half with a 34-yard pass to WR Andre Rison, who finished the day with 110 receiving yards, the third-highest total in Chiefs postseason history. The game's most pivotal sequence would follow. Facing third-and-goal at the Denver three, Grbac connected with rookie TE Tony Gonzalez, who appeared to be forced out of the end zone by Broncos CB Darrien Gordon. However, the play was ruled an incomplection, forcing the Chiefs to settle for a 20-yard FG to cut the gap to 7-3.

With Denver poised at the Kansas City 11-yard line on its next drive, Chiefs DE John Browning forced a fumble by RB Derek Loville to thwart a Broncos scoring opportunity. After both squads exchanged punts, Grbac found WR Joe Horn on a 50-yard strike to set up a 12-yard TD pass to Gonzalez, giving the Chiefs a short-lived 10-7 advantage. However, Davis found paydirt from one-yard out on the Broncos ensuing drive to retake the lead at 14-10.

KC got as deep as the Denver 31-yard line on its next possession and lined up in field goal formation on fourth-and-six, but holder P Louie Aguiar ran with the ball and was tackled three yards short of a first down. Kansas City began its last possession with 4:04 left. Grbac found Rison for a 23-yard gain to move KC to the Broncos 28 with 1:51 left as the Chiefs used their final time out. Facing fourth-and-two at the Denver 20-yard line with 0:19 remaining, Grbac's final pass into the end zone was batted down by Gordon as Denver held on to claim the 14-10 victory.

2003 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Colts 38, Chiefs 31

January 11, 2004 • Arrowhead Stadium • 79,159

INDIANAPOLIS	14	7	10	7	—	38
KANSAS CITY	3	7	14	7	—	31

The NFL's top two scoring offenses and two of the game's brightest stars battled in an offensive shootout at Arrowhead in which Indianapolis prevailed by a 38-31 margin. RB Priest Holmes finished the game with a Chiefs single-game postseason record 176 rushing yards and tied a club playoff record with two rushing TDs. Colts QB Peyton Manning was just as good, throwing for 304 yards with three scores and posting an impeccable 138.8 rating.

In a game that featured no punts, just one turnover and only five total penalties, Manning's nearly-perfect performance kept the Colts one step ahead of Kansas City all afternoon. It marked just the third time in NFL postseason history that neither team was forced to punt and was the first time it had occurred since the '82 NFL Playoffs. Kansas City would draw within seven points three times in the second half, but Manning always had an answer.

Manning, the NFL's Co-MVP, opened the game with a 29-yard TD pass to WR Brandon Stokley. Kansas City would answer with a 22-yard field goal from Morten Andersen when Holmes was stopped on third-and-goal from the three. However, Manning and company kept the pressure on with an 11-yard TD run from RB Edgerrin James for a 14-3 lead.

The Chiefs rallied back as Green found WR Dante Hall on a nine-yard TD, cutting the deficit to 14-10. However, the Colts put together another impressive march, as Manning again capped it with a two-yard TD strike to FB Tom Lopienski for a 21-10 lead.

The scoring torrent finally abated as the Chiefs failed to score on their final first-half possession, thanks to a 31-yard touchdown that was called back on an offensive pass interference call on TE Tony Gonzalez and a missed 31-yard field goal.

Holmes ripped off a 48-yard dash on the second play of the third quarter, but had the ball ripped loose by CB David Macklin who recovered the fumble at the Colts 22-yard line. Indianapolis would cash the turnover in with a 45-yard FG from K Mike Vanderjagt for a 24-10 lead.

Holmes would exact revenge on the Chiefs next drive as he accounted for 44 yards rushing and a one-yard TD dive. After a Manning-to-Reggie Wayne TD pass boosted the Colts margin to 31-17 late in the third quarter, WR Dante Hall responded by returning the ensuing kickoff 92 yards for his second TD of the game. Hall's 208 kickoff return yards on the day set a Chiefs single-game postseason record and were the third-highest total in NFL postseason history.

Indianapolis would answer with a one-yard TD from James, building an insurmountable 38-24 lead. The Chiefs made it interesting though as Holmes scored on a one-yard TD run with 4:22 remaining to make the score 38-31. But Kansas City's defense couldn't get the ball back until just 0:08 remained on the clock, leaving the Chiefs out of time for a comeback.

2006 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Colts 23, Chiefs 8

January 6, 2007 • RCA Dome • 57,215

KANSAS CITY	0	0	8	0	—	8
INDIANAPOLIS	6	3	7	7	—	23

The Chiefs fell behind 16-0 in an AFC Wild Card contest at Indianapolis and never could find the offensive rhythm to get back into the game, falling by a score of 23-8 at the RCA Dome. The Colts outgained the Chiefs by a 435-to-126 margin in total yards and limited Kansas City to just one-of-11 on third downs.

Despite a valiant defensive effort by Kansas City that held the Colts third-ranked offense out of the end zone for over 40 minutes, Indy shut down the Chiefs offensive attack. The Colts dominated nearly every category of the first half, but KC's defense kept them in the game by forcing three QB Peyton Manning INTs and relinquishing three first-half FGs, instead of TDs.

The Chiefs went three plays and out on each of their six first-half possessions and the Colts capitalized on three of their ensuing drives. On Indianapolis' first drive rookie RB Joseph Addai ripped off runs of 10 and nine yards to set up a 48-yard field goal.

On the Colts second drive Manning and WR Marvin Harrison converted on third-and-eight with a 42-yard pass to the Chiefs 25-yard line. Indianapolis would reach the KC one-yard line, but like they did on the first drive the Chiefs defense forced them to settle for a 19-yard K Adam Vinatieri field goal and a 6-0 lead.

The Chiefs squandered a golden opportunity to take the lead in the second quarter. CB Ty Law – who is no stranger to the playoffs with 13 postseason starts – intercepted Manning for his fifth postseason INT and returned it to the Colts nine-yard line. RB Larry Johnson ran the ball to the two, setting up third-and-goal. However QB Trent Green fell on third down after being stepped on as he pulled from center. Things got worse for Kansas City when K Lawrence Tynes' 23-yard field goal try hit the left upright, leaving the score at 6-0.

Kansas City dodged another bullet when rookie S Jarrad Page picked off Manning at the KC two-yard line with 1:50 left in the first half. However, once again the Chiefs offense couldn't move the ball and the Colts were able to sneak in a third field goal, this time from 50 yards out, to make it 9-0 at intermission.

Manning would throw his third INT of the game on the opening possession of the second half, as Law snared his sixth postseason INT, his fifth career playoff pickoff of Manning. The Chiefs couldn't convert the turnover into points and instead watched Indianapolis rattle off a 12-play, 89-yard TD drive. Manning completed four passes before Addai scored on a six-yard TD run to increase the Colts lead to 16-0.

With 3:38 remaining in the third quarter, the Chiefs finally notched their initial first down of the game on a six-yard pass from Green to TE Tony Gonzalez. That jumpstarted the offense as they would rattle off 60 yards en route to a Green-to-Gonzalez six-yard TD. A successful two-point conversion from Green to TE Kris Wilson cut the Colts lead to 16-8 after three quarters.

The one-possession deficit would not last long however as the Colts engineered a back-breaking, nine-play, 71-yard scoring drive that finished with a Manning-to-WR Reggie Wayne five-yard TD and moved Indianapolis ahead by a 23-8 margin.

The Chiefs still had hope with 4:00 left when they moved the ball to the Indy 26-yard line, but Green was sacked and stripped by DE Robert Mathis. Indianapolis would register its third turnover of the game on Kansas City's final possession, clinching the Colts 23-8 win.

2010 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Baltimore 30, Chiefs 7

January 9, 2011 • Arrowhead Stadium • 72,190

BALTIMORE	3	7	13	7	—	30
KANSAS CITY.....	7	0	0	0	—	7

The Chiefs were within striking distance at halftime, trailing by only a 10-7 margin, but four second-half turnovers doomed Kansas City as Baltimore pulled away for a 30-7 victory. The Chiefs defense registered 4.0 sacks, including 2.0 from LB Tamba Hali.

The Chiefs won the toss, deferred to the second half and kicked off to open the game. Baltimore promptly moved down field and was poised with first and goal at the Chiefs one-yard line, but Kansas City's defense made a goal-line stand, rebuffing the Ravens on three straight plays. QB Joe Flacco's third-down pass was broken up by S Eric Berry, setting up a 19-yard K Billy Cundiff FG that gave Baltimore a 3-0 lead.

Kansas City went three and out on its opening drive. On Baltimore's ensuing possession, Hali recorded a sack and strip of Flacco and jumped on the ball, giving the Chiefs great field position at the Baltimore 46-yard line. Two plays later, RB Jamaal Charles reeled off a 41-yard TD scamper, the longest postseason TD run in team history, to put the Chiefs up 7-3 with 2:09 left in the first quarter.

On Kansas City's next possession, a Charles fumble set up Baltimore at their own 45, but KC's defense held. The teams exchanged punts before Flacco and company again moved into Chiefs territory. A nine-yard TD pass from Flacco to RB Ray Rice put the Ravens up 10-7 with 0:19 left to play before halftime, capping an 11-play, 80-yard scoring drive.

On the third play of the third quarter QB Matt Cassel's pass intended for TE Tony Moeaki was batted into the air and intercepted by S Haruki Nakamura. However, a hustling Charles stripped and recovered the ball at the KC 32-yard line, giving the Chiefs a fresh set of downs.

Kansas City moved the ball to the Baltimore 33-yard line, but Charles was thrown for a four-yard loss on fourth and one. Cundiff knocked through a 29-yard FG on the Ravens ensuing drive, extending their lead to 13-7 with 6:36 left in the third quarter.

Chiefs WR Dexter McCluster fumbled the ball on Kansas City's ensuing possession, setting up Baltimore at the Chiefs 17-yard line. Cundiff connected on another 29-yard FG, putting the Ravens up 16-7 with 4:20 left in the third quarter.

Two plays later, Cassel's pass for Moeaki was intercepted by S Dawan Landry, putting the Ravens at the Kansas City 21-yard line. Flacco then hit WR Anquan Boldin in the back of the end zone for a four-yard TD pass, pushing the Ravens advantage to 23-7.

On the first play of Kansas City's next drive, Cassel fumbled the ball and it was recovered by the Ravens. Head Coach Todd Haley challenged the play and the ruling on the field was overturned to an incomplete pass. The Chiefs were eventually forced to punt. Ravens RB Willis McGahee delivered the game's final score as he broke free for a 25-yard TD, extending Baltimore's lead to 30-7 with 4:26 left in the game.

Kansas City took over at the 40-yard line after the Ravens kickoff went out of bounds. Cassel was sacked twice on the drive and his fourth-down pass was intercepted by CB Josh Wilson at the Baltimore 34-yard line. Baltimore was able to run out the clock to seal the victory.

*Only includes starts dating back to '68.

Regular kicker or punter during that period.

Notes: The Chiefs All-Time Roster includes all players who were on the active roster for at least one regular season game or playoff contest. It also includes players who accrued at least one season as a member of a reserve or injury list. The one exception to this criteria is RB Stone Johnson, who had his number 33 retired after suffering a fatal injury in a '63 preseason contest. Jersey numbers refer to those numbers worn only in regular season or postseason play.

Notes: No assistant coaches were designated as coordinators during Hank Stram's tenure as head coach from 1960-74. The first assistants in Chiefs history to hold the title of coordinator or special teams coach came under head coach Paul Wiggin in 1975. Although subsequent staffs did not always specifically denote coordinators, every attempt has been made to indicate the offensive and defensive play-callers if it was an individual other than the head coach. Beginning with Frank Gansz's staff in 1987, three separate individuals have carried the titles of offensive and defensive coordinator, as well as special teams coach each subsequent season except for 2009 under Todd Haley.

The winning team in the American Football Conference receives the Lamar Hunt Trophy, named in honor of Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Lamar Hunt, the founder of the American Football League and the Kansas City Chiefs. First presented following the 1984 season, the 2010 season marked the debut of its redesign by Tiffany & Co. The new trophy reflects the sterling silver material of the Vince Lombardi Trophy, awarded each year to the Super Bowl champions. The Lamar Hunt Trophy is designed to depict the journey of the playoffs leading into the Super Bowl. The trophy's shape is based on the football shape used on the Vince Lombardi Trophy. It features an etched conference logo and the NFL Shield.

Eddie Robinson, the legendary coach at Grambling where Buchanan was an NAIA All-America choice in '62, called him "the finest lineman I've ever seen." ... Played both offensive and defensive tackle at Grambling ... Enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in '96 ... Owned All-Pro Construction Company and All-Pro Advertising in Kansas City ... Was captain of both the football and basketball squads at Parker High School in Birmingham, Ala. ... Given name was "Junious," but was known as "Buck" ... BUCK BUCHANAN • 1940-1992

"The first time I met him, I was impressed with his awesome size, speed and agility, but underneath it all, you came away impressed with a tremendous person, a great competitor and a terrific leader. He loved what he represented, his family and the Chiefs."

MACK LEE HILL & DERRICK THOMAS AWARDS

Each year since '66, Chiefs players have selected a recipient for the Mack Lee Hill Award. It is a tribute to the late Mack Lee Hill, an outstanding running back who played for the Chiefs in '64 and '65. He was described as a man who played as much with his heart as he did with his driving legs in the early days of the American Football League.

In memory and tribute to Hill, the award is presented annually to the Chiefs rookie or first-year player who, as the inscription on the trophy reads - "best exemplifies the spirit of the late Mack Lee Hill ... the man with the giant heart and the quiet way." In selecting the recipient, the Chiefs veterans look for a first-year player who has displayed the spirit and attitude of Mack Lee Hill.

For the past 33 years the Chiefs have upheld a tradition of selecting the club's Most Valuable Player. Named in honor of the late Derrick Thomas, this Chiefs custom is especially meaningful for its recipients not only because of the man that it is named in honor of, but also because it is selected by a vote of their peers. Thomas was the heart and soul of the Kansas City defense from '89-99.

One of the most popular figures in Chiefs history, Thomas was posthumously enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2009. A member of the Hall of Fame's NFL All-Decade Team of the '90s, Thomas was the cornerstone around whom the Chiefs franchise was rebuilt.

USA TODAY ALL-JOE TEAM

The USA Today All-Joe Team takes its name from former Chiefs DT Joe Phillips who played 14 seasons for Kansas City, San Diego, St. Louis and Minnesota before retiring following the '99 season. According to USA Today's Larry Weisman, the All-Joe Team is represented by "hard-working, overlooked, underappreciated players who do the dirty work simply because that's their lot in life."

Of the 40 game-winning field goals in franchise annals, the biggest was a 25-yard kick by K Tommy Brooker that ended the second-longest game in pro football history. Brooker's FG concluded the '62 AFL Championship Game with an elapsed time of 77:54 as the Dallas Texans claimed a 20-17 win at Houston (12/13/62). Brooker received a celebratory postgame escort off the field from TE Fred Arbanas (#84) and DB Bobby Hunt (#20). Among the nine other kickers to hit a game-winning kick for Kansas City, K Nick Lowery booted a team-record 14 game-winning FGs, while K Pete Stoyanovich owns the longest kick to ever win a game for the Chiefs, a 54-yard effort vs. Denver (11/16/97).
